We acknowledge a call from Mr. D. W. Dale of Robinson's circus. Mr. Dale came over to settle up all bills contracted by the advance agents of that circus. In conversation with him he informed us that the circus had changed its route owing to high water on the line of the V. S. & P. R. R. Mr. Dale is a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman and a thorough business man. The show it is expected to visit Monroe shortly.

River News.

The Little Boone, from the D'Ar, bonne arrived this morning light.

The Rowena, for the Cornie, departed at 1 o'clock p. m.

The John H. Hanna arrived up this forenoon with a fair trip and returns this evening to the Crescent City.

A Nobby and Elegant Line of Spring Neckwear, Just Received at the Star Clothing House.

A meeting was held yesterday at Trinity to draft suitable resolutions to the stock holders of the proposed oil mill, which is to be erected somewhere, not yet definitely decided upon, on the Ouachita river. The Herald of that town concludes that: Trinity-Troyville is the most suitable location, and closes its article with the statement: but we must offer some inducements." That neighbor is just what Monroe should long since have done—offer inducements.

We call the attention of our readers to Circular No. 119, Queen & Crescent route which we publish elsewhere. It will be seen that passenger trains on the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific division are running through without interruption and that agents are authorized to resume the sale of tickets to all stations along the line. This is good news to the travelling public as well as to all business men along this line and it is gratifying to us to publish this welcome news.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias which had been in session in this city for several days, adjourned yesterday evening. The following officers were elected:

Joseph H. Spearing, of New Orleans, G. C.; W. F. Norworthy, of Jackson, G. V. C.; R. B. Rowley, of New Orleans, Prelate; Wm. Gramer of New Orleans, G. M. of E.; John A. McLean of New Orleans, G. K. of R. and S.; W. B. Boggs, of Red Land, G. M.-at-A.; J. E. McGuire, of Monroe, G. I. G.; David C. Hollander, of New Orleans, G. O. G. The next session of this Order will be held at New Orleans. The Knights were all well pleased with their visit.

WEST MONROE DOTS.

[FROM OUR REGULAR REPORTER.]

We had the the pleasure of meeting with Bros. Gilland of the Shreveport Journal and E. C. Drew of the Louisiana Advance in your beautiful little city yesterday.

The Banquet which was given in your city in honor of the Knights of Pythias was one of the grandest affairs ever witnessed in Monroe, and one that will be long remembered by this writer.

There were 14 bales cotton received in town yesterday.

Dr. I. J. Newton and lady of Bastrop, La., spent Thursday night in our town the guest of Rev. Wm. Hart.

We acknowledge an agreeable call this evening from our friend Capt. G. W. Knight, lately a citizen of our city, but now a resident of Trinity.

We are gratified to learn from the gentleman, himself, that he has succeeded in building up a good and paying trade, though opposed by the steamer Minnie, which latter boat connects with the Natchez, Red Red and Texas railroad and the Collins connects with the Ouachita river packets.
