

CHARMING MABEL.

BY H. C. DODGE.

Miss Mabel is a daisy; She's queen of all the girls; She sets you nearly crazy With her golden curls.

O, she's just a beauty; When her work is done She thinks it is her duty To have a little fone.

At home she is so busy She hasn't time for beaux; Her head is never dusy. Thinking of their weaux.

She does her mother's sewing And helps the little fox; Her wit is overflowing, And many are her jolks.

She's careful of the money And also of her tongue Her temper is so sunny. Her praises oft are sung.

Her ways are never subtle; She's high on honors roll; When empty is the scuttle She fills it full of coll.

To people who are surely She speaks a loving word, And in the morning early She singeth like a bird.

She's very sweet and puise— An Angel here on earth And—fact is we get luisse Thinking of her wearth.
