An extract from the Morehouse Sentinel of June 16th, 1886:

"The Monroe Amateurs played last Wednesday night at Levy's Hall. The plays were good, and were heartily enjoyed and encored by the audience. Although the weather was very inclement, still a good house greeted them. The young men performed their parts well, and Mr. A. W. Keller in the role of the darkey was imitable. We wish the company much success."

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned has leased THE OUACHITA TELEGRAPH for a period of two years. With this issue the publication of the Daily will be discontinued. There are some here who would like to see it continued, but their support is not sufficient to justify it. I shall endeavor, in lieu of the Daily, to give the readers of the TELEGRAPH a good, staunch Democratic weekly. I ask the public for a fair share of patronage.

C. H. TROUSDALE.

Monroe, La., July 5th, 1886.

Fruit jars! fruit jars—pints, quarts and half gallons—at,

TROUSDALE BROS.

The Police Jury is in session to-day.

The river at this point continues to fall rapidly.

Miss Laura Delery is sojourning at Mount Lebanon.

The thermometer at noon to-day registered 96 degrees in the shade.

Capt. John B. Stone and lady left this morning for Tallulah on a brief visit to friends and relatives in Madison parish.

Mr. E. L. Ball, of the Monroe Ice Factory, reports business good. The weather is warm enough for such a delectable article.

Charley Randolph has sold out his tonsorial business to Jake Zinzel and the two barber shops have been consolidated and will be carried on at Zinzel's stand.

The people of old Jackson, celebrated the Fourth last Saturday at Vernon. An elegant dinner was a part of the programme and considerable speechifying was engaged in. A party from Monroe attended and report having had a splendid time. Judges Graham, Young and Gunby, all with Congressional aspirations, and Capt. E. E. Kidd of Vernon and W. F. Millsaps of this city, addressed the assembled multitude.

The Gun Club received their "Peoria black birds," and will have a shoot at them to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock. Each member is to shoot at twenty of the birds. The Club has also received their new trap and doubtless the shoot will be well contested. The ladies are invited to witness the shoot.

NOTICE.

This is to inform the PUBLIC that we intend to sell out our stock of Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Clothing, &c., contemplating making a change in our business. We will sell these goods regardless of COST, but for CASH and CASH only. We will positively make no charge to any one from this day on, nor send out any goods on trial. All goods purchased must be paid for before they are delivered.

Thanking our friends and customers for their kind patronage heretofore extended,

We Remain Very Respectfully,
M. WEIL & BRO.

All parties who left their shaving cups at Charley Randolph's barber shop, can, if they wish, have them returned by applying at Zinzel's opposite Randolph's late stand.

SUMMER MILLINERY.

Mrs. M. J. McKenna desires to inform the Ladies that they can now purchase from her Summer Millinery at greatly reduced prices. The Ladies are requested to bear this fact in mind.

MRS. M. J. MCKENNA.

Our people should not forget the Pelican Warbler's entertainment at the Opera House on next Thursday night, for the benefit of the Monroe Library. The object is a commendable one, and the Amateurs' worthy of patronage.

Five car loads of brick arrived by the V. S. & P. R. R., from Meridian, Miss., to be used in building the foundation for the new Corliss engine which is to be erected at the railroad machine shops in this city, work on which will begin in about ten days.

The fourth of July falling on Sunday, the National day was celebrated, by some, Saturday, and by the rest of mankind (Uncle Sam's legions) to-day.

A grand barbecue was given in the Colony Saturday and the assembled patriots had an opportunity of witnessing a game of base ball—the National sport. The contestants were a nine from Monroe and the Colony nine, the game resulting in a victory for the Colony boys. The Monroe nine are unanimous in returning thanks to the good people of the Colony for their hospitable and kind treatment.

A mite party will be given to-night at the Baptist parsonage. All are invited. Admission ten cents. Ice Cream and etc., will be provided for the occasion.

The Insane Assylum at Jackson, La., is crowded, there being according to the Capitolian Advocate, nearly 700 inmates in it.

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Gen. King introduced a resolution in Congress a few days ago asking that $200,000 be appropriated for the relief of planters in Catahoula and other parishes who have suffered considerable loss by recent heavy rains. Of course Gen. King knows that the money will never be appropriated, but he is willing to make himself ridiculous in Congress if he can catch a vote or two in Catahoula thereby.
