Capt. W. B. Porter, Young's Station.

The river continues to decline at this point.

Dr. F. M. Mumford, of Bayou Sara, has been commissioned Tax Collector of West Feliciana.

Mr Theodore Bakewell has placed us under obligations by providing us with late N. O. dates of an interesting character.

To our polite fellow-townsmen, Mr. Benny Brown, who has filled the position of usher, so efficiently, for Stutz's Theatre during its stay among us, the local of the SENTINEL is under obligations for courtesies.

Ladies should remember the grand Matinee at Firemen's Hall at 11 o'clock this morning, to enable them and the little ones to see Mr. J. G. Stutz and mammoth company in FANCHON THE CRICKET. Don't miss this chance.

We were pleased to meet, on Monday last, our esteemed friend Mr. Chas. P. Whiteman, whose radiant countenance has not illumined our vision for many months past. He is the impersonation of good health, and we trust it may be many a year ere his shadow marks a narrower outline.

The appointment of Dr. J. P. Monahan as Tax Collector for the Parish of East Feliciana, is received by the people there with universal satisfaction. Indeed, a better selection could not have been made. He possesses the combined Jeffersonian qualifications.

We have on our table, the New Delta, published every Sunday at No. 98 Camp St., New Orleans and edited by Messrs. M. P. Rigby and E. C. Wharton. The initial number is ably edited and presents a beautiful typographical appearance. It is a literary journal of a high order, and is devoted to the fundamental interests of its city and State. We wish it that support which will ensure success.

For the first time since the advent of the SENTINEL, we are compelled to offer an apology for appearing in a half sheet. This has been necessitated by the very large amount of job work we have had to accomplish to fill the requirements of the several public exhibitions that have visited Bayou Sara within the past two weeks, and to furnish our merchants with contracts for the business of the planting season. While we by no means hope the demand for job work will decrease, we trust to be able to make such arrangements that it will not interfere with the paper in the future.

THE ATTITUDE AT WASHINGTON—The most reliable advices from Washington indicate a fierce conflict between the Administration and the more ultra Republicans. Already the war has broken out under the leadership of Morton and Blaine. Hayes is represented as standing firm and adhering tenaciously to his conservative policy towards the South, as foreshadowed in his inaugural. In view of this policy of conciliation, there is every reason to believe that Mr. Hayes will find an ally in the democratic members in congress. With such a phase in the state of political affairs, the contest will be hot, but the defeat of the ultras will be assured. Already the first tilt has been decided against them, in the referring of Kellogg's claim to the Election Committee. Let the fight go on.

Mr. Douglass, member of the House of Representatives, from Virginia, grossly insulted Mr. Lamar of Mississippi, while in a state of intoxication. He promptly made the amende honorable, upon "sobering up."

As Hayes, in taking possession of the Presidential chair at the hands of the Electoral Commission, is the recipient of stolen goods, we may sing "hail to the thief who in triumph advances."

HEAVY FROST—On the morning of the 6th inst., we were visited by a killing frost and serious apprehensions are felt for the peach crop, the trees being in full bloom. Vegetation generally, will doubtless suffer from its effects.

STUTZ'S THEATRE

GRAND OPENING NIGHT!!

A SEASON OF INTELLECTUAL ENJOYMENT!!!

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY!!!!

On Monday evening Firemen's Hall was well filled with an intelligent and appreciative audience, the occasion being the opening night of Mr. J. G. Stutz's Dramatic Company, with a bill embracing Tom Taylor's great Drama in five acts, "Ticket-of-Leave Man," and the inimitable Mr. C. Toler Wolfe, in the favorite farce, "Family Jars."

From the encomiums bestowed upon Mr. Stutz by the press throughout the country, we were led to anticipate a performance of no ordinary merit, but we were by no means prepared for the display of that degree of artistic excellence exhibited by several of the company, among whom stand prominently Messrs. J. G. Stutz, C. Toler Wolfe, F. M. Cottrill, Owen Ferree, and Misses Daisy Markoe, Frankie Gonzalez and Eloise LeComte.

"Ticket-of-Leave-Man" was presented with a strong cast, and each character was ably borne out to the end. Mr. Stutz is a most excellent Bob Bready, portraying the various phases of that character with a faithfulness that evinces deep study, and appreciation of the part. He was ably sustained by Daisy Markoe, as May Edwards, who has shown herself to be an actress of high merit; whilst Mr. C. Toler Wolfe as the Jew; Frankie Gonzalez, as old Mrs. Willoughby; F. M. Cottrill as the Detective, and Miss LeComte as Sam Willoughby, played their respective roles with the highest degree of success.

Before the company takes its departure, the Two Orphans, Fanchon and perhaps Hamlet, will be personated. The company possess an excellent personnel, which will insure them triumph, not only in this, but in other fields. They go to Woodville from here and with them they carry our best wishes—for they deserve success. Their performances at this place have stood the test of close scrutiny in the important particular of morality.

The advantages we predicted would follow the erection of a hall in Bayou Sara, capable of affording accommodation to first class exhibitions, have already begun to be realized. Firemen's Hall, even in its unfinished state, has become a favorite and popular resort for those who relish reasonable and innocent amusement. Agents of traveling companies, are as well acquainted with the accommodations afforded by, or wanting, in every town and hamlet, as are the inhabitants themselves; hence it is, that Bayou Sara and St. Francisville have been preternaturally exhibitions of character and high moral teaching, and have been left entirely to the mercy of the unconscionable circus man; forced to draw for amusement, from the often immoral fund alone, offered by the sports of the arena. Shows that stay among us for days, affording us intellectual entertainment and expending in our midst, some of the earnings of their exhibitions, are the kind we want, and Firemen's Hall is the institution to attract them hither. We trust the boys will soon be able to give it those "finishing touches" it requires.

SAD ACCIDENT—On Sunday morning last, a little colored boy, named Edward Wicker, the son of Baptiste Wicker of Bayou Sara, aged about 12 years, was thrown from a horse and trodden to death, while riding on the Tooran place. The parents have the sympathy of the whole community, both white and colored, in their sad bereavement.

INCENDIARISM—In West Feliciana, as in East Baton Rouge, there is need for vigilance, and punishment of the guilty, if detected, as will appear from the following letter from Mr. Eli S. Norwood.

Editors West Feliciana Sentinel:
On the night of the 2d inst., about ten o'clock, the torch of the incendiary was applied to my crib and Stables, destroying all my corn, and other things to the value of four hundred dollars. No clue as yet to the dastardly coward.
Respectfully,
E. S. NORWOOD,

MARRIED.

BALL-KNOX—At the residence of Mr. Joe S. Jones, in Clinton La., on the morning of the 25th ult., by Rev. I. B. Robertson, Mr. J. NELSON BALL, of West Feliciana, and Miss ELMA KNOX of East Feliciana.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Coroner Ball's Jury of Inquest, after three days session and diligent inquiry into the circumstances connected with the killing of Mr. D. A. Weber, adjourned last evening to Monday next. A large number of witnesses, both white and colored, have been examined, but so far nothing has been elicited that tends to throw light on the mystery.

KILLING OF D. A. WEBER.

On Wednesday last, about 2 o'clock, p. m., the entire community was thrown into commotion by the announcement that Tax Collector Weber had been shot and killed, when opposite the Court House, while walking along the street.

It was some moments after the report gained circulation, before his body could be found and when discovered, was lying in the ditch near Grace Church Cemetery, and nearly directly opposite the Court House gate.

Dr. Ball, the Coroner, arrived speedily, and upon examination, it was discovered that one shot had entered the right side, penetrating the lungs, and another had entered directly between the eyes, passing through the brain and lodging against the skull in the back part of the head. Several shots were found in the left arm also.

The affair, so far, is wrapped in impenetrable mystery, although the Jury of Inquest are making the most diligent inquiry and have been for the past three days. A number of witnesses testify to having heard the report of fire arms, but no facts have been elicited that would establish the commission of the act, upon any one.

As the affair is in progress of thorough investigation, we forbear further comment than to say that Mr. Weber had made himself odious to a number of our citizens, colored as well as white, through his partisan acts, and that he had become obnoxious through articles appearing in the LEDGER, abusive of our citizens, and of which he was believed to have been the author, although not the ostensible editor. The last number of that paper contained threats that were calculated to engender ill feeling toward their author rather than to tranquilize the public heart.

Pending the deliberations of the Inquest we refrain from saying more; as faithful journalists we can not say less.

STUTZ AND COMPANY.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings respectively, the following plays were presented with marked success, by the Stutz Dramatic Company, at Firemen's Hall: FANCHON THE CRICKET, THE TWO ORPHANS, and the great temperance play, TEN NIGHTS IN A BAR ROOM, in each of which, the Co. sustained the reputation and character they so justly won on their opening night. We regret that want of space forbids that particular mention, in this issue, that we would be glad to bestow. In our next issue, we shall notice their rendition of THE LADY OF LYONS, at the Firemen's Benefit, tendered by Mr. Stutz last night.

TELEGRAPHIC GLEANINGS.

The Senate, by a vote of 35 to 25 laid Kellogg's credentials on the table, and referred the matter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

A Telegram from Mr. Albert C. Jannin to the Democrat, says pay no attention to rumors. There is not the slightest danger of Packard's recognition.

A N. O. Democrat special from Washington, dated 5th inst., says: "I have not seen a Democrat or Republican who thinks Packard has the least chance of support from Hayes."

Blaine and Morton have broken out against the Administration but Hayes is firm as a rock. He said yesterday his policy was irrevocable, no matter what the consequences might be. A big split in the Republican party is inevitable.

Genl. Sherman did not, as reported, recommend Gen. Joe. Johnson for Secy. of war, but is anxious that he should accept the position. Gen. Johnson had not made up his mind on the subject up to the 6th instant.

President Hayes will issue orders as soon as his Cabinet is formed, to commanding officers in the South, to withdraw their troops to government reservations. Major Burke left Washington on the 5th inst., with written assurance from Hayes to this effect, and Senator Gordon has a similar document for Gov. Hampton of South Carolina.

A Washington special to N. O. Democrat of 7th inst., says the cabinet is constituted as follows: Evarts, Sherman, McCrary of Iowa, Key of Tennessee, a Confederate General, Devins of Massachusetts, and Thompson of Indiana. McCrary is Secretary of war, and Devins Attorney General. The Cabinet will be strongly in favor of the South.

Mr. Albert C. Jannin telegraphs the N. O. Democrat, from Washington, on the 6th inst., "Do not indulge in any further apprehensions. The maintenance of our government is an absolute certainty. Morton, Blaine, Logan and that crew are already at odds with Hayes. The carpet baggers denounce him as another Andy Johnson. In saying the situation is altogether rosy, I remind you that I do not allow hope to run away with judgment."

In his inaugural address President Hayes dwells particularly on the necessity of self-government in the Southern States. He professes to love his country more than his party. Time, and a very short time at that, will solve the question, whether or not Mr. Hayes means what he says and has the fortitude to act up to his convictions in the face of the pressure that Morton, Blaine & co., will bring to bear upon him. We shall see.
