

The Louisiana Capitolian.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Get your Job Work done at the Capitolian office.

See administrator's notice of final settlement in the matter of the succession of S. M. Robbins, deceased.

CHURCH NOTICE—Divine service, as usual, at St. James Episcopal church on Sunday, April 6th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

Patronize home enterprise, by having your Job Work done at the Capitolian office. We guarantee satisfaction in style of work and price.

THE CAPITOLIAN—Can be purchased by the transient public at the news depot of Mr. Chambers, on Third street, and at Heroman's "Blue Store" on Main street.

Mr. William Blackie invites the public—in a notice—to witness his process of producing steam with liquid fluid. We had occasion to describe it some time ago, and will be found an interesting sight to see it put in operation.

We would inform our friends that the Capitolian Job Office is new and complete in every particular, and we turn out job printing at the shortest notice and in the most approved style. It matters not what kind of jobs you have, bring them on. We print them from the size of a full sheet poster to a visiting card.

Our genial and talented friend, Mr. F. Arment, of New Orleans, is in town, looking as well as ever. His name is being submitted to the consideration of the delegates to the Convention as a candidate for the secretaryship of that body. If elected, Mr. Arment will certainly give entire satisfaction. The qualifications that he possesses fit him in every respect for the position. He is well known throughout the State as a writer of great ability.

Leon, the showman, and his corps of acrobats and lady vocalists entertained our public on Wednesday and Thursday nights. Although this show travels without the accompaniment of the "band wagon" and illustrated placards, the performance is none the less interesting and amusing. Wonderful feats of gymnastics were executed by his performers. A long while has it been since we have witnessed a more attractive exhibition, and we cheerfully recommend Prof. Leon and his troupe.

With sundown on Monday next, April 7th, the Israelites all over the world will commence to celebrate the feast of Passover (Pesach). It is also called the feast of unleavened bread, and lasts seven days. The reason for celebrating the same is found in Exodus xii, 2, 15, 18, 20, and is in memorial of the delivery of Israel from Egyptian bondage. The first and last days are "holy convocations." Our Jewish friends here will hold service at their Temple on Monday evening next at 8:30, and on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

The complaints in connection with the mail service are so frequent and so well founded, that we approach the subject with reluctance, knowing the futility of lamenting these irregularities. We nominally have a daily mail here, since the Bayou Sara line has been established. As it is, we now, through this daily mail arrangement that is being served by the Katydid, receive our matter just about semi-weekly. We don't appeal to anybody to correct these failures, knowing that the postoffice agents have something more agreeable to attend to than this, we only mention the subject just for fun!

A Barbarous Instrument—From the southwest end of our office a voice was heard last Monday evening, enquiring: "What is that noise in the street?" Our devil was immediately forwarded to the scene. He quickly re-appeared with the information that it was nothing more than "one of those organs"—not one of the people—but what is termed in French orgue de Barbarie, the literal translation of which is "organ of barbarity." A barbarian's instrument indeed, transplanted in a civilized community, from which we earnestly pray that the Lord in his infinite mercy may deliver us.

We were pained to hear of the distressing casualty that occurred on last Friday, near the Garrison bayou. A little boy about twelve years old, son of Mr. Hackett, was found dying on the roadside, from the effects of a bullet wound in the head. The boys have been in the habit lately of indulging in the dangerous practice of target shooting with cheap single-barrel pistols. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the death was caused by the accidental discharge of a cartridge that the unfortunate little fellow was striking against a post. The family have our deepest sympathy in this their hour of bereavement.

This week a floral offering in the shape of an artistically arranged bouquet, reaches us, accompanied by the compliments of the Vice-Consul of France, Mr. P. Machet, a gentleman widely and favorably known to almost every visitor in our city. The courtesies that his genial nature prompt him to extend to all who appreciate culture and refinement, have endeared him to his many acquaintances, and have won him a host of staunch friends. We can assure him that his remembrance of us is highly appreciated, and, with our thanks, we send him our kindest regards.

As to the bouquet in question, we have to state that it is obtainable only by our sweetheart, if there exists a lady anywhere willing to accept this title from us. We feel that so gallant a gentleman as our handsome friend Mr. Machet is, will cheerfully excuse us if we part with his beautiful offering, by thus devoting it to that fair sex at whose shrine he is always a devotee.

Try the Capitolian Job Office.

A Visit to Bayou Sara.

On last Sunday we took passage on the Katydid, among a number of excursionists. Barring a stoppage at Port Hickey, to repair the pumping apparatus of the steamer, the trip was safely made. We reached Bayou Sara at 2 P. M., and there had the pleasure of spending some two hours in the company of that genial and accomplished gentleman, Dr. Mumford, who was kind enough to take us out riding. We visited St. Francisville, and were highly pleased to note the handsome appearance of several residences, and the general comeliness of the scenery thereabouts. Passing by the Seaside office, we were introduced to our good-looking and clever conferees, Mr. Reese, who is evidently an earnest and straightforward advocate of right. We take pleasure in acknowledging the urbanity of his manners and the courtesy he was kind enough to extend us. We found that the political cauldron, had ceased to boil and the two wings of the Democracy that were flapping prior to the late election have resumed their wonted quietude, enabling the "Tree Frogs" and the "Tadpoles" to bury the hatchet. We sincerely hope that in the future our whole-souled neighbors will unite in one solid phalanx, and shake hands over their chasm, that is really not a deep one. We met also Mr. Irvine, the mayor of the burg, whose health we were happy to find much improved, and Mr. Enochs, in whose agreeable company we were, while ascending the river.

Meeting of the City Council.

On last Tuesday morning this body was assembled by the Mayor, in compliance with a petition signed by a large number of merchants and traders, who were desirous that the city authorities should take some action towards protecting them in the privileges afforded them by virtue of the licenses they hold and pay for the maintenance of our local government. The council fully recognizing that the enforcement of the Sunday law in Baton Rouge is causing great detriment to the business interests of this class of citizens, decided to appoint a committee, composed of Messrs. John J. Wax, Richard Burke and Charles Wieck, to draw up a memorial to the Police Jury, asking that this vexed question be left to be settled by means of an election within the city. To this reasonable proposition, no dissenting voice was heard.

We hope that the Police Jury will recognize the justice of this request and suspend the execution of their ordinance, so far as this city is concerned, and allow our people to practice the principle of "local option," which exists in many States.

The Municipal Election.

Since our last issue, Messrs. Waddill, McMain, Farnbacher and Lytle have withdrawn their names from the contest for Councilmen. On the other hand, that well known and staunch old citizen, Mr. Michael Granary, announces his name for the position of Administrator of Finance. If elected, he will fill the office to the satisfaction of the community. Where there are so many worthy and competent aspirants to the several offices to be filled, as is the case in this municipal contest, we can only advise our friends to do for the best, and cast their ballots for those among them who unite the greater qualifications. There is no occasion in this instance for none other than a friendly rivalry.

Gen. Herron Declines.

We take pleasure in publishing in this issue an article emanating from that spirited and high-toned journal the Daily Shreveport Standard, suggesting the name of our distinguished townsman and friend as a candidate for president of the convention. We fully concur with the writer in everything that he says of Gen. Herron, but must state that this honored gentleman, as he expresses to those who have urged him to accept the candidacy—that, inasmuch as he has consented to become one of its members, in response to the wishes of his parishioners, and for the sole purpose of submitting questions of great interest to them and to the State—he desires to do service on the floor of the Convention, and must in consequence respectfully decline the proffered honor.

Meeting of the Medical Association.

BATON ROUGE, March 29, 1879. At a called meeting of the Baton Rouge Medical Association, held at the Library of the Louisiana State University, three delegates were elected to attend the annual meeting of the State Medical Association—Drs. R. H. Day, T. J. Bufington and L. F. Reynaud. There being no further business, the Association adjourned to meet on Monday, April 7, at 11 a. m. All physicians are cordially invited to be present.

R. H. DAY, M. D., President.

F. M. BROOKS, Secretary.

The First of April.

It is evident from the following, that our worthy conferees' reporter was not on the lookout. He says: The city papers report that Paul Boyton was escorted down from this city by a large party of excursionists and a brass band on the Katydid. This is news to Baton Rougeans.—Advocate. The suckers, as they usually do on the first of April, were biting furiously, and were the only excursionists in the wake of Paul Boyton. A good many of them were caught on that day.

A square fight was settled lately by Judge McVea in favor of the people of the parish. On one side were Berhel, the heirs of Beauford and the City of Baton Rouge, all fighting for the ownership of the old court-house now occupied by the city government. The suit was a very interesting, highly amusing, though a tedious one. The attorneys representing the three claimants all came to grief, the Judge deciding very justly that the building was the property of the public, and could not be seized by either of the contending forces. The chances are that the claimants will be satisfied that they had as well let the matter rest where it is, and not mention it any further. Amen!

LETTER FROM ABOGEMION.

Nothing But a Bolt Out Can Beat Baton Rouge in the Capital Contest—A Flimsy and Pointless Pretent!

NEW RIVER LAKE, La., March 30.

PUBLISHER CAPITOLIAN—Your bright and spicy paper came duly to hand yesterday. Somehow my mail now arrives more promptly than in the past. We anxiously look for your paper, and are disappointed when it fails to come on time. All of my neighbors like it and admire its pluck. You can put Mr. John Green down on your subscription list at this office. He is the manager of the Mount Houmas plantation, and one of the most efficient and successful on the Coast. There are several parties here who intend to take the Capitolian, and who are in sympathy with Baton Rouge. I see no reason, except plain "selling out," why Baton Rouge should not be made the future Capital of the State. It is unquestionably the will of the people, and if there is any virtue in the principle that the voice of the majority should rule, then the matter is already settled; otherwise the principle upon which our Republic is founded must be declared null and void. However, I have great faith in a large number of delegates, with whom I am personally acquainted. With such men as Robert L. Luckett, of Rapides; Newton Blanchard, of Shreveport; Judge A. D. Land and A. B. George in the Convention, you need not fear corrupting influences. I know them to be men of solid character, with opinions of their own, and cannot be lured into a movement contrary to the wishes of their constituency. I do not know them to be in favor of Baton Rouge, but think they are. If they are instructed, they will abide by their instructions; if not, they will do what they believe to be right, and for the good of those whom they represent.

It is a strange notion some of your people have that Mr. Jastrzemski should resign the office of mayor because he has been selected as a delegate to the State constitutional convention. The idea is preposterous, and has the ring of personal prejudice. Mr. Jastrzemski should have paid no attention to it. Now if I wanted the office of Lieutenant Governor, I would forthwith write a communication to the New Orleans Democrat calling upon that official to resign. Then I would build a call for a special election to fill the vacancy, and announce myself as a candidate for the position!

But, jokes aside. The constitution is very clear on that point. It says that no person shall be allowed to hold more than one office of profit and trust. Being delegate to a convention does not make one an officer, because there is no constitutional provision for it. An office is something that is created by the constitution or by special legislation. If being a delegate or member of a convention, whether constitutional or not, makes one an officer, and the office he thus fits is one of profit and trust, made so by the present State constitution, I must confess my utter ignorance of the subject. MORE ANON.

Arrivals at the Louisiana Penitentiary. PARISH OF FLAQUEMINES. April 1st—Louis Baptiste, (black) murder, life; Joe Conway, (black) assault, attempt to kill, 10 years; Charles J. Lewis, (black) forgery, 2 years; Lucinda Ashbury, (black woman), larceny, 1 year.

PARISH OF BIENVILLE. April 2d—Ismael Harvey, (black), larceny, 20 years; Jack Higginbotham, (white), horse stealing, 1 year. PARISH OF LAFOURCHE. April 2d—Simon Randolph, (black), petit larceny, 2 years; Henry Alexander, (black), petit larceny, 2 years; Celey Wilson, (black woman), petit larceny, 2 years.

David & Garig.—As will be seen by the new advertisements of this enterprising mammoth grocery firm, they are in receipt of a large lot of whiskeys, flour, gunpowder, insurance oil, staple hardware, condensed milk, canned and preserved goods of all kinds, tinware, glassware, queensware, dried fruits, fish, etc. It would be a tremendous job to attempt to describe the variety of goods composing the immense stock that their spacious stores contain; suffice it to say, that it is unnecessary for any of our planters, dealers and consumers to look to the West or New Orleans for supplies, when they can obtain all they want right at this establishment, in quantities to suit, and at such prices as will make it a bad speculation to order from other points. We advise the public to go in and satisfy themselves.

The New Orleans Democrat.—That fearless, able and indefatigable champion of the people's rights, in its issue of last Tuesday, pays the CAPITOLIAN the compliment of reproducing three of its editorials bearing on the State debt question. We highly appreciate the honor conferred, but had it been left to us to select from among the articles contained in our last number, we would have recommended for reprint by our esteemed contemporary that one referring to the removal of the Capital to Baton Rouge, as one of equal importance, relating to a measure urgently demanded by all those who, like the Democrat, have buckled on their armor to battle against the enemies of good government and the prosperity of Louisiana. However, the omission can be easily rectified by substituting the one that appears in to-day's CAPITOLIAN, entitled Baton Rouge "En Avant."

WILLIAM GARIG. BUGGIES—A large assortment of Open and Top Buggies, Barouches and Jersey Wagons, which will be sold at prices which defy competition, at store of WM. GARIG.

SOAP—A full stock of Procter & Gamble's, Haas' and Keller's Soap, always on hand, and which I am prepared to give at bargains in job lots. WM. GARIG.

GARDEN SEEDS.—Of the justly popular crops of D. M. Ferry & Co., fresh and genuine. For sale by ANDREW JACKSON.

SUGAR AND MOLASSES.—By the hogshead and barrel, or by retail, at bottom prices, by ANDREW JACKSON.

LOUISIANA CAPITOLIAN Book and Job Printing Office, BATON ROUGE, LA.

Your attention is earnestly and respectfully called to our new facilities for JOB PRINTING—it matters not what may be the style or quality of work desired. Home enterprise sustains home interests, and preserves the financial equilibrium of a community. In view of this important fact, we have supplied ourselves with the necessary material and seriously announce that we are determined, with the aid of the people, to uphold our part of this local obligation. Our prices are the same as those of New Orleans; therefore there can be no excuse for sending Job Work away from home. The old complaint of "unreasonable prices and inferior workmanship" can no longer be urged, for, with experienced printers, the latest styles of type and a handsome assortment of stationery on hand, we are prepared to do Job Work with dispatch and in a satisfactory manner.

DR. BROOKS' Anti-Malarial Tonic and Chill and Fever Cure, For the Immediate Relief and Permanent Cure of CHILLS AND FEVER, INTERMITTENT FEVER, MALARIAL NEURALGIA, AND ALL OTHER ABNORMAL CONDITIONS PRODUCED BY MALARIAL POISONS.

I place before the public a preparation which is of the highest standard of excellence, second to none, for the class of diseases for which it is intended. I claim it to be a specific for this class of diseases, having submitted it to a rigid test, extending over a period of several years, in treating the most obstinate cases which have come under my observation with it successfully.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE IN ITS COMPOSITION, contains no Arsenic or Iron, but combines with the Muriate Tincture of Iron and the Soluble Salts of Iron—making it a valuable tonic in all conditions where Iron is indicated. It may be administered to the most delicate children with impunity. Large numbers of testimonials could be produced as to its efficacy, but I deem it best that it should recommend itself. One bottle will satisfy any fair-minded person that it is worth five times its cost.

Address: F. M. BROOKS, M. D., Proprietor and Manufacturer, BATON ROUGE, LA., January 1st, 1879. My Agents are hereby authorized to refund the money in any case of "Chills and Fever," where DR. BROOKS' CHILL AND FEVER CURE has been used in strict accordance with the printed directions on the bottle and failed to give relief. feb8 F. M. BROOKS.
