

THE OLD STORY.

We are told that the old scarecrow, was again shown to the colored people during the late campaign, to array them against the Democratic party.

It never occurred to those of our colored folks who took in such ridiculous and exploded tales, that the Nicholls government is the only one since the war that has given peace to Louisiana.

Of course such stories found no believers among men of common sense, but the ignorant were very much alarmed thereat.

It won't be long, however, before our colored fellow citizens discover that the incoming Democratic government will do all in its power to develop the resources of our State, while the rights of every man without distinction of race or color will be as fully protected as they are anywhere else in the Union.

Thanks be to the Lord, political agitation is over for four years and we have before us every prospect that the most profound peace will reign in our midst.

One must be blind who does not see that Louisiana is booming towards the front rank of the most prosperous States, and that right here is the happy land of Canaan.

From all accounts the profits realized by this year's crops, will bring more capital than will be needed to raise the next.

The Democrats of Mississippi and Louisiana are advocating the policy of having the Legislature select the presidential electors for 1880 this winter.

The above is from the Rising Sun (Ind.) Recorder, a so-called Republican paper. A more malicious and willful slander could not be conceived by the most unscrupulous villain in the universe.

Messrs. Ellis and O'Conner, the former of this State and the latter of South Carolina, have both introduced bills in Congress looking to the payment of the deluded darkies who were swindled out of their little savings by the Freedman's Bank.

Gen. Butler asks how Gov. Andrew could have called a man a "d-d scoundrel" in whose favor he signed a vote of thanks. That reminds us of a contested election case in Congress.

Beattie ran a head of his ticket in this parish and Wiltz behind him, as also did Hon. A. Nunez, candidate for Senator.

What shall I leave you when I die? said an insipid fellow to a young lady whose patience he had exhausted.

ADVISER PINCHBACK.

The Picayune tells us that Pinchback is disgusted at the turn that public affairs have taken in the State, especially in the northern parishes, where Democratic majorities appear to have become a fixture.

Since "the cruel war has been over" the cabin boy remembers that legislative halls and executive mansions have resounded with his utterances; that newspaper reporters have taken down his words to transmit them over telegraphic wires from one end of these broad United States to the other!

Presto change! These infernal Democratic majorities have produced the same appalling effect on his dreams of future elevation that the flames of Moscow did upon Napoleon the First.

Retrospect to his level with the mass of struggling humanity towards some prosaic avocation, where by his wits or industry he must earn a living side by side with the eight hundred and ninety-five thousand others who have been doing the voting and producing the substance from which he has obtained a luxurious existence!

Perish the State and all its institutions rather than descend from the lofty pedestal over which he once shone as brilliant as the sun at noon-time. If his brethren are to furnish naught but Democratic majorities in North Louisiana, why they'd better go to Kansas or anywhere else.

In lower Louisiana though, where Republican majorities are undisturbed, Pinchback don't see any necessity for his people to disturb themselves. They are very well there.

Can any one imagine how the Wiltz administration will be different in this portion of the State from what it will be in the other? We frankly confess that we fail to see it.

If Pinchback is not a first-class fraud HE will be the Moses who will lead his race across the Red Sea to the promised land of Kansas, where he will bravely take hold of the plow-handle and show them how much wheat he can produce to the acre!

Ha! ha! but Pinch won't do that. He'll never leave the sweets that the Crescent City affords him. Not so with the poor ignorant laborer. What cares he to see the followers he has so often deluded go to a strange and inhospitable clime, where their bleaching bones will soon mark the spot which afforded them nothing but want and misery!

We will tell Mr. Pinchback what is true: Under the new constitution that he proclaimed one of the most liberal in the Union, a Democratic government is about to lighten the burthens under which a whole people have been groaning; PEACE and PLENTY will be the blessings that ALL will enjoy.

Let Pinch come here, for instance, in East Baton Rouge, and ask—not of the broken down politicians of his race, but of the industrious laboring men—whether Democratic officials have not given more protection to their persons and liberties than his partisans did in the days when he was the Lieutenant of Warmoth, the man who saved a half million of dollars out of four years of salary at eight thousand dollars per annum!

Don't tell your brethren to go, Pinch, while you intend to remain. Your object is too transparent. Lead on like a man and a patriot, else hold your peace, for if you can live under Democratic rule in Louisiana, surely every other man can do the same!

Gen. Butler asks how Gov. Andrew could have called a man a "d-d scoundrel" in whose favor he signed a vote of thanks. That reminds us of a contested election case in Congress.

Beattie ran a head of his ticket in this parish and Wiltz behind him, as also did Hon. A. Nunez, candidate for Senator.

A SORGHUM BOOM.

Through late files of St. Louis papers, we have gathered the interesting news, that a convention composed of representatives from thirty States have assembled in that city for the purpose of discussing the practicability of growing Sorghum on a large scale for producing sugar, as against the cane of Louisiana.

It is everywhere admitted that the production of sugar from Sorghum requires such a great degree of chemical skill in its manufacture, besides the very unremunerative results that are obtained after the interminable process of boiling and reboiling have been gone through, that the projected competition of sorghum versus the sugar cane amounts almost to a quixotic errand.

When it is considered that Louisiana offers millions of acres of land which require but the application of capital and industry to yield crops that surpass in value the products of the mines of Colorado and California, it does indeed seem strange that the intelligent men of this country should turn their backs upon these tried lands, to enter the broad and uncertain field of experimentation.

The returns from the cane fields of Louisiana this year, show that our State is on the eve of re-entering the path of prosperity under auspices that ought to dazzle the minds of speculative and enterprising spirits throughout the entire Union.

Good government, order and law are insured to our State in the future, and on all sides we hear of astounding profits which will be reaped by our sugar planters this season. It capitalists will seize the opportunity of investing their means in the cultivation of the numberless acres lying idle hereabouts, more sugar will soon be raised, while magnificent profits are realized, than will supply the entire demand of the United States.

When we reflect that a hoghead of sugar can be raised at a cost of not more than forty dollars, and that in many cases two of these can be obtained from one acre of land, each of which brings as high as one hundred and thirty dollars, is it not the height of folly to discuss sorghum culture for a single moment?

We hope that the Sorghum Boomers will come down and examine for themselves, what the sugar prospects are in Louisiana before they burn their fingers in their more than hazardous enterprise.

Our people are ready to welcome such of their Northern and Western brethren to their midst, who will come to lend their means and energy in extracting from our rich soil the wealth that lies in wait for its extractors.

After all the fuss and bluster of the past few days we feel like resting up a bit, and as soon as we get in good trim we will settle a few old scores we have with Hyams, Gould, Jastremski and others.—Meridianal.

Your'd better lie still awhile, Addison, because Hyams is infuriated. He's been pawing the ground and spitting in his hands for over a week, preparatory to raising some fellow by the "top knot." Gould is ominously silent, and your humble servant is the only one who is in a humor to take your impudence in good part.

The Shreveport Standard says "the Minden Democrat gets into the following: 'An Independent smelt he smole. A Radical wink he wank; It was an Independent thing to think The Radical thought he thank.'"

Distressing Accident.—On Sunday morning last, a most heart-rending accident occurred in the family of a Mr. Prince, near New Iberia. Mrs. Prince had just laid her infant down to sleep, in the bed beside a doubled mattress. During her absence some one opened the mattress over the sleeping babe, of course unconscious that the child was beneath it.

On Monday morning last, a distressing accident occurred in the Prince family, residing near New Iberia, resulting in Mrs. Prince's infant being smothered to death between two mattresses.

A strong temperance movement has been inaugurated in Atlanta, Georgia, known as the "blue ribbon" movement; 3000 persons have bound themselves to total abstinence.

Even if a boy is always whistling "I want to be an angel," it is just as well to keep the preserved pears on the top shelf.

A bridal couple from Washoe Valley at breakfast conversed as follows: He—"Shall I skin your pertater, honey?" "No, thank you, dearie; I have one already skun."

The State Election.—Three rousing hurrahs are in order. Wiltz is elected Governor by Thirty Thousand majority, the Constitution by Fifty, and the Debt Ordinance carried by about Twelve Thousand majority.

An altercation occurred last Saturday, between Mr. Vidrine and Mr. Tete on the plantation of the latter near Flat Town, which resulted in the death of Mr. Vidrine. They were both quite young men and were informed as connected by blood or marriage. We are not in possession of the particulars, but the trouble was of a private nature, and politics had nothing to do with the affair.—Washington News.

The Washington News says a dispatch from St. Martinsville states that Emile Detiege, a colored ex-Senator, on Wednesday killed E. and O. Delahoussaye, sons of the ex-Republican tax collector of that parish. It was a Republican family affair, and we would call the attention of our confederates of the New York Times to the incident as it may give them a little material for the outrage mill to work upon.

A NEGRO KILLED.—In a quarrel on the Alice plantation, between two negroes, Drew Owens and John P. Williams, on the evening of the 25th ult., the former was killed. It is alleged that Williams acted in self-defense.—Sugar Bowl.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

HALL GERMAN BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, BATON ROUGE, DEC. 10, 1879.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from our midst our friend, brother and Secretary, ED. C. RIEDEL, to a world of bliss, and where no sorrows enter; therefore—

Resolved, That in the depth of our beloved brother, ED. C. RIEDEL, the Association has lost one of its best members and a zealous co-worker, his family a true and loving husband and father, and the community a good citizen.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of our deceased brother our kindest sympathies, and commend them to Him who alone can give consolation.

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the minutes and a copy furnished the family of deceased, that the members of the Association wear the regular badge of mourning for thirty days, and that this resolution be published in the Baton Rouge CAPITOLIAN.
