The National Board of Health boat, the Benner, a handsome craft, was at our landing on yesterday, on its way up the Mississippi.

The City Council embroglio case of the four vs. five, was postponed on yesterday, by Judge Sherburne, of the District Court, till Tuesday next.

Persons holding claims against the Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, are referred to a notice in another column.

Joshua Beal, like the Old Dominion, his native State, never tires—getting in fresh stock. In another column he announces that he is in receipt of another large lot of first class goods.

GOSE WEST.—A few days ago that enterprising merchant Mr. Wm. Garig, and family, departed via the Mississippi, for a tour through the West. We wish them a pleasant voyage and safe return home.

Major J. H. Halsey paid us a visit this morning. He looks in splendid health, and is in the best of spirits. He is now practicing law at St. Joseph, La. The Major is a talented attorney and orator. He has our best wishes for unbounded success in his new field of operations.

Zeb Lange, the intrepid colored Democrat, has presented us a fine portrait of our Presidential nominee Hancock and English, for which attention he has our thanks. He expects to receive a supply of these portraits which he will furnish to his Democratic friends at a moderate price.

OFF FOR THE EAST.—Mr. A. Rosenfield, the prominent dry goods man, left on yesterday on his usual excursion to the North and East, whither he goes to make his purchases and to rejoice his family, who departed a few days ago. May they return to us in the full enjoyment of health and contentment.

The CAPITOLIAN extends many thanks to Messrs. Jos. Klempeter, T. B. Brown, A. C. Thomsen, H. D. Hochenedel, J. B. Klempeter, the committee, for their courteous invitation to attend a basket picnic of the Primitive Gun Club of the third ward, which is to take place at Mr. Jos. Klempeter's place, on the 23d inst.

THE NEW ORLEANS PACIFIC.—The information is official that Jay Gould, and Tom Scott have signed the agreement whereby this great railway is to be completed by the 1st of January 1882. We entertain very little doubt that its far seeing directors will connect with the new Capital of Louisiana, on their way to Texas and the Pacific. One by one are our expectations being realized concerning the bright future of Baton Rouge.

REMOVAL.—In another column will be seen the notice of the removal of Brooks' Drug Store, to the handsome iron front brick building which the enterprising Doctor has caused to be erected near his old stand on Main street. The new store will furnish ample room for the display of the extensive stock that he has on hand and proposes to increase from week to week to supply the demand of his host of customers. We are happy to congratulate him on this evidence of thrift, go-aheadiveness and popularity. The public will be well repaid by giving the new Drug Store an inspection.

Departure of Lieut. Jamar.

Despite all the efforts made by the Board of Supervisors of the Louisiana University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, supported by the request of many prominent officials and citizens of the State, to obtain of Gen. Sherman, the revocation of the order returning Lieut. Jamar to his regiment, that officer, accompanied by his estimable lady, from this parish, whom he lately married, left Sunday, on board the steamer James Howard, for St. Louis, whither he goes on his way to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Lieut. Jamar, is well known in the Florida parishes, having served in gallant Major Bascom's company of the 13th Infantry. He is a Marylander, true to the instincts of the people of his State, and had been among us, a friend, for upwards of five years. One of the Cadets, in answer to an inquiry before the College Supervisors, said of him: "Lieut. Jamar is a perfect gentleman, all the boys like him for he has a kind word to say to every one; we are all sorry to see him leave." The good wishes of his numerous friends accompany him, with the hope that he may yet be re-assigned to his post of duty in our midst.

DEMOCRATIC PARISH CONVENTION.

PIKE'S HALL, July 17th, 1880. The meeting was called to order at 4 o'clock, by M. Chambers, President of Democratic Parish Central Executive Committee. R. T. Henderson, unfortunately, this Col. Andrew S. Herron was called to the chair, Col. Herron, however, some stirring patriotic remarks related to State and National politics. Messrs. Geo. W. Buckner, Wm. Sharp and J. E. Blouin were appointed to examine and report on the credentials of the delegates appointed by meeting held in the various wards.

Mr. Ed. Davis, of the Third Ward, offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Hon. E. W. Robertson, representative in Congress, has served his constituency well, using untiring zeal and strenuous efforts in their behalf, marked with indisputable success; and Whereas, by his services in Congress he has gained that knowledge and influence which is so essential to the promotion of our interests and that of the whole State; and

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the course of the Hon. E. W. Robertson, and return him our sincere and hearty thanks for his exertions in our behalf.

Resolved, That we earnestly request our delegates to the Congressional Convention to use their individual and combined efforts to secure his nomination.

Mr. G. W. Buckner offered the following resolution: Resolved, That this parish shall be represented in the Congressional Convention by thirteen delegates, one to be selected from each police jury ward, and three to be appointed at large by the President of this Convention.

It was, on motion of Mr. C. C. Bird, amended, so as to read "four to be appointed at large," instead of three, and as amended was adopted.

Mr. L. D. Beale offered the following, which was adopted:

David.

There being no other business, the Convention on motion adjourned.

Another Forked Lizard.

EDITOR CAPITOLIAN.—The Donaldsonville Chief lately grew happy over the advent into that office of a forked or double-tailed lizard, and still more recently came out with a feeling obituary over the untimely demise of the poor little creature. Ascension parish is certainly prolific of double-tailed creatures, for, while traveling on Manchac a few days ago, your correspondent came across another one of those peculiarly Democratic Parish Central Executive Committee. R. T. Henderson, unfortunately, this Col. Andrew S. Herron was called to the chair, Col. Herron, however, some stirring patriotic remarks related to State and National politics. Messrs. Geo. W. Buckner, Wm. Sharp and J. E. Blouin were appointed to examine and report on the credentials of the delegates appointed by meeting held in the various wards.

ON THE WING, July 20, 1880.

Saturday's Edition.

See postponed Sheriff sale in this issue, property to be sold on twelve months' bond.

A fine rain fell this morning, just in time to help the crops in this vicinity. We learn that on yesterday, a heavy shower was received near Larimore's and McQuade's, some ten miles back. All is lovely as far as heard from.

ATTENTION, ZOUAVES!—We are requested to inform the old officers and members of the company and the young men who desire to increase its ranks, that a meeting for re-organization will take place on Wednesday evening next, at Academy Hall, at eight o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

The denizens of the Highland City, we write by that paragon of a newspaper, CAPITOLIAN, are jubilant over the prospects that work will soon be completed on the new State Capitol in Baton Rouge.

This valuable exchange is filled to repletion with interesting paragraphs, but our very limited space precludes further indulgence.—Gretna Courier.

Our colored citizens are going in for excursions. Mizpah Lodge, G. U. O. O. have made arrangements for a grand excursion to Plaquemine on the occasion of the parade of their brethren there, which takes place on Saturday next. On morning, the steamer Carl Schurz will receive all those desiring to avail themselves of the good opportunity; all the modest amount of 75 cents.

Mr. J. J. Keegan, who has the contract to furnish sand for repairs on the ate-house, has opened the ball. He is on our landing two coal boats containing 1,866 barrels of sand, which he unloading at the foot of Laurel street. He is a go-ahead, energetic young man, and deserves creditable mention, being the first of all the contractors to take the initiative step in the furnishing of material for construction of the ate-house.

Col. George L. Walton, one of the Supervisors of the Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, has sent us a letter in justification of his course before the Board, which will appear in Saturday morning's issue of the CAPITOLIAN. Col. Walton is one of the prominent members of the late Senate, a gentleman of talent and served high standing in his district. His communication will doubtless receive the careful consideration of our readers.

OUR COLORED EXCURSIONISTS IN PLACQUEMINE.—On last Monday, the Carl Schurz left our landing at 9 o'clock A. M., having on board a large number of colored population. The boat reached Plaquemine at 11:30. Headed by Joe Mitchell and Dunley's field band, the excursionists marched to a shady grove, where they listened to a sermon delivered by Rev. George Holmes, which is followed by singing by the Sunday school children. All the participants spent a most enjoyable day. The Schurz reached Baton Rouge on her return at 11:30 P. M.

Brother Hyams, nothing daunted, arched right up to our den, on last Monday, armed with a roller core! With a flourish of his improvised weapon, silenced everybody, from the mild-mannered publisher down to the smallest devil. Addressing himself to all whom it might concern, he said, in relation to our attack upon him in our last issue: "You fellows can't find anything to say about me, save to allude to the fact that I like a drink once in a while. 'Whisker' is your only theme." "What else do you want us to talk about when a whiskey subject confronts us?" quickly retorted the offended publisher. Thereupon, the Grandfather of all the newspaper men fell back in good order, roller core and all, till he reached the Sumter House, where his gushing nature prompted him to shake hands with us across the bloodless chasm, over some bloodless star and water. The roller core was left there as a special deposit—our bank-institution having opened in good order!

Godey's Lady's Book

For August comes to us full of fresh, breezy matter, a welcome guest upon a mummery day. From Darley's exquisite picture to the eagerly sought chit chat on fashion, it is full of interest, and the closest scrutiny will fail to find one duplicate. The fashions are so numerous that every taste must meet with its own requirements, in preparing summer wardrobes for home or the resorts of travelers in the hot season. Seaside costumes and mountain dresses, the simplicity of country dress, or the elaborate toilet of the watering place belle, can all be modeled from the illustrations given in Godey, and the clear directions accompanying them. The literary matter is rich and varied, containing sparkling stories and exquisite poetry from the pens of such popular writers as Estelle Thomson, Christian Reid, James B. Marshall, S. Annie Shields, Caroline Merighi, and others. In every department there is to be found matter valuable to the fair sex, for whom the magazine is especially intended, and we are sure our opinion will be indorsed by every reader of the beautiful number before us.

Wife Beaten and Another Child Carried Away.

On Wednesday evening, a little after sun-down, a great excitement was created among the inhabitants in the vicinity of the Orphan Asylum, occasioned by George John or John George, giving his wife a terrible beating. The aggrieved woman started down town to hunt up the "perlice" to have the offending husband arrested, but was persuaded by two colored men to return home. Upon doing so, she met her husband on the street with their child, two years old, in his arms. He told her he was going to take the child away, and off he loped across the plains with the speed of an antelope. The woman screamed, and cried, Murder! Murder! at the top of her voice, while the excited neighbors rushed out to ascertain the cause of the outcry. The last seen of the husband, he was running with all his might bearing the child in his arms, disappearing in the darkness.

Thursday's Edition.

IN THE THIRD WARD.

Contests Between Shootists—the Pic-Nic.

Extensive preparations had been made at the beautiful beach grove adjacent to Hon. Josiah Klempeter's place, situated on the Plank Road, some eight miles distant, to receive the numerous guests who were expected to witness the contest between the Primitive Gun Club of the Third Ward and the Capital Gun Club of Baton Rouge. To the great disappointment of many excursionists, on Thursday morning, the day fixed for the gala, a drenching rain fell, cooling the ardor of those who did venture out, while the prudent remained at home.

In company with an intrepid friend, who declared that it was only a shower, we set out at 11 A. M., and barring a few mud puddles, that were triumphantly forded, we reached the grove in due time, to find that quite a number of ladies and gentlemen had boldly ventured out to see the sport. We were greeted, on our arrival, by Hon. Josiah Klempeter, who had caused the grounds to be arranged for dancing. Two squares of ground, lined with seats, had been cleared off, and dry sand spread thereon. A stand had been erected for the musicians, Messrs. Willie, Douglas and Baker, who kept things lively all day. Further on, were the dining tables, which, at the appointed time, we found laden with excellent and well cooked meats and other delicacies. In fact, the participants were unanimous in declaring that the third warders had done things handsomely. Quite a large number of attractive ladies were present, so that the young gentlemen were irresistibly drawn to the dance, which was interrupted by dinner only and the contest between the gun clubs, who, all things considered did fair shooting. Here is the score:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Primitive Club members like A. C. Thomsen, J. D. Fisher, and Capital Club members like George Henderson, J. D. Fisher, W. G. Randolph, W. M. Rhodus, J. Potts, J. A. Klempeter, F. B. Brown.

After the club contest, which resulted in a victory for the Baton Rouge club, two teams of six each, were organized under the respective Captaincies of Messrs. John D. Fisher and A. C. Thomsen. Captain Fisher's team were the victors, with the following score:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Fisher Team members like J. D. Fisher, George Henderson, W. M. Rhodus, J. Potts, A. C. Klempeter, F. B. Brown, and Thomsen's Team members like A. C. Thomsen, W. G. Randolph, Henry Badley, Elmore Badley, Dr. J. W. Dupree, Joseph Klempeter.

Despite the inclemency of the weather, the affair turned out to be quite a success, for which, the managers deserve great praise. Everything passed off in the most pleasant manner and to the satisfaction of all present. The day was cool and exceedingly propitious to the amateurs of the dance, who, carried away with the enjoyable exercise, were making arrangements to continue it at a neighboring house until the "wee" small hours.

To Messrs. Klempeter, Thomsen, Badley, Dupree, Anthony Wax and others, the editor of this paper is indebted for many courtesies.

In connection with this entertainment we but re-echo the sentiments of all, when we say that a repetition of the same, will meet with general favor.
