Marksville Review: We are told that many bears were seen on Red River near the mouth of the Black River. One was lately killed by Mr. Edmond Tassin measuring seven feet.

The river is falling very rapidly at this point. Parties living adjacent to back water should exercise care in regard to their health.

The election for Mayor and Aldermen of Marksville took place last Saturday and passed off very quietly. The following gentlemen were elected: Mayor, A. L. Barbin; Aldermen, H. C. Edwards, A. J. Ducote, Geo. L. Mayer, Eugene Ingouff and A. M. Gremillion.

A petition is being circulated to have the Morning Star mail service maintained until the completion of the Texas Pacific to this city.

There is a short communication in another column which refers to the Jewish question. At the first opportunity we shall give our views on this important matter.

Columbia Herald: It is said there is "nothing new under the sun."—but a wild hog on Tuesday whipped a steamboat crew out, made one of our citizens climb a pole like a streak of lightning, and took possession of a dentist and lawyer offices, defied all to enter, for awhile; but was finally captured after an hard struggle by the means of ropes.

The grand extraordinary semi-annual drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery came off on Tuesday last. The $100,000 prize was snatched in by a man in Tennessee. "Oh, would it were we!"

Marksville Review: We have been informed by Mr. Emile Luneau, of Pointe Maigre, that he sold not less than ten thousand pounds of hog meat this year in Marksville. And he was but one out of many who sold meat to our people.

The CAPITOLIAN office is under obligations to our genial young friend, Jacob Fahnert, for a pitcher of ice-cold beer. This acknowledgement should have been made in our issue of Tuesday, but was, in the press of work, inadvertently omitted.

Famerville Gazette: A grand hunt was made week before last, by some of the citizens of the 3rd Ward, for the wolves that have been destroying sheep and hogs in the Grange Hall neighborhood.

Mr. Philip Buchel, we are pleased to state, was unanimously elected Parish Ranger, by the Police Jury, on Tuesday last. Mr. Buchel is an honest and industrious citizen, fully competent in every respect to perform his duties to the satisfaction of the entire people.

From our account of the affray in which the man Allen Philips participated, it might be inferred that he became intoxicated at the store of Mr. John J. Wax, who desires it known that it was because of his refusal to sell him liquor that Philips misbehaved in his establishment.

St. Tammany Farmer: Joe Smith, colored, aged about 55 years, is confined in the Parish Jail, on the charge of brutality to a little colored boy, aged about 10 years. It appears he kept the boy tied by the ankles for three days, drawing the rope so tight that the flesh was worn raw to the bone.

Dr. L. Weiss, Rabbi of the Morgan City congregation, called to see us this morning. He will lecture at the Synagogue on to-morrow evening, and on a Friday evening he will deliver a public lecture. Every one is cordially invited to attend. The Doctor is a refined and intelligent gentleman, who comes most warmly recommended.

Capt. Sam, the famous Pinte chief, was told by a Nevada man recently that the iron horse traveled all the time and ate neither hay nor barley. Said the chief in reply: "What matter you 'bout that? This morning we had the pleasure of meeting in the States office our friend General Leon Jastremski, Mayor of Baton Rouge, and editor of that enterprising and sterling Democratic journal the CAPITOLIAN.

As soon as the Capitol is regularly installed at Baton Rouge and the railroad completed, Gen. Jastremski will convert his tri-weekly CAPITOLIAN into a live daily, which will be filled with the latest news from that section of the State, and reach New Orleans early on the day of publication.

Col. Henry D. Monier, of this city, well and favorably known by our people, is the regular authorized agent of the CAPITOLIAN in New Orleans, and he will receive both subscriptions and advertisements from the people.

EDITOR OF THE CAPITOLIAN.—Having read the article upon "The Jewish Question in Europe," in the Advocate's issue of June 7th, I feel for that "highly intelligent Jewish Rabbi," who inconsistently turns to the religious emblem of his opponents, (Cross), for a sympathizing opinion upon the Jewish question now agitating some parts of Europe.

I hope that "highly intelligent Jewish Rabbi" is now satisfied as regards the writer in the Advocate, and in future not will ask for bread, where stones are offered instead.

Gen. Brady has retained as his counsel in the coming star-route prosecution Ben Butler and Bob Ingersoll. He would also have retained the devil, but it was not deemed necessary.
