IMPROVED CHARTER OAK
COOKING STOVE, sold by
RICE BROS. & Co., 89 and 91 Camp street, and Magazine street, New Orleans.
Sole Agents in the South.
A Good Cooking Stove is one of the most necessary and desirable articles of household economy, and if properly managed, will promote the health, comfort and happiness of every member of the family.
Time, money, and extreme vexation, by delays of your daily meals, may be saved by using the CHARTER OAK COOKING STOVE.
Over 10,000 of these celebrated Cooking Stoves are in daily use throughout the city of New Orleans. Every one of them has been sold under a full guarantee, and we offer them as a reference wherever found.
The Improved Charter Oak Stove with Extension Top has but one damper, and is so simple in its construction that a child can manage it. The oven is larger, bakes more uniform, and the stove heater than any cooking stove of corresponding size ever made.
The Hot Water Reservoir Boiler furnishes a constant supply of hot water at all hours of the day, and for hours after the fire has been extinguished, without additional cost for fuel, a practical illustration of the economy in using the Charter Oak.
The Reflector Gridiron, original with the Charter Oak, and used as no other stove—the most perfect manner to broil meats and poultry, whereby the offensive odors arising from roasting during the process of broiling are carried up the pipe, and juices of the meats preserved.
The Hot Closet, in which meats and pastry are kept warm for hours when there has been a delay at meals, besides enabling the cook to furnish the greatest variety of dishes and desserts, and place them hot upon the table.
The Charter Oak Stove will do one-third more baking in a given time, at least 25 per cent. less wood than any other stove now made.
Send for price and descriptive circular.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.
Plan and execution commended by Justice Story, Chancellor Kent, Historians Sparks, Pesscott, Bancroft and Ticknor; Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and many others.
It has been published for more than twenty years, and is now enlarged. It is issued every Saturday, giving 52 numbers and over 3000 double column octavo pages of reading matter every year.
It is a work which commends itself to every one who has a taste for the best literature of the Magazines and Reviews, or who cares to keep up with the events of the times.
It contains the best Reviews, Criticisms, Stories, Poetry; Literary, Scientific; Biographical, Historical and Political Essays—from the whole body of English Periodical Literature, making 4 volumes a year, of immediate interest and solid permanent value.
EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES.
From the late President of the United States, John Quincy Adams: Of all the periodical journals devoted to literature and science, which abound in Europe and this country, the Living Age has appeared to me the most useful.
From Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, May, 1867: Were I in view of all the competitors now in the field, to choose, I should undoubtedly choose the Living Age. There is not in any library that I know of so much instructive and entertaining reading in the same number of volumes.
From the New York Times: It rests with the friends of the Living Age to see that the selection, judgment and wise tact displayed in the collection of articles are above all praise, because they have never been equalled.
From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican: We can do those among our readers who love sound and pure literature no better service than by referring them to this sterling weekly. It is decidedly the best magazine of its class published in the United States, if not in the world.
From the Boston Post: We venture to say that in no other form can a work of similar character be found of equal merit, or at so moderate a price.
From a Clergyman in Massachusetts of much literary celebrity: In the formation of my mind and character, I owe as much to the Living Age as to all other means of education put together.

THE SPECTATOR

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
The best Paper in the World.
Published for nearly a Quarter of a Century.
This splendid work, greatly enlarged and improved, is one of the most reliable, useful, and interesting journals ever published. Every number is beautifully printed and elegantly illustrated with several Original Engravings, representing new inventions, novelties in Mechanism, Agriculture, chemistry, photography, manufactures, engineering, science and art.
Farmers, mechanics, inventors, engineers, chemists, manufacturers, and people in every profession of life, will find the Scientific American to be of great value in their respective callings. Its consults and suggestions will save them hundreds of dollars annually, besides affording them a continual source of knowledge, the value of which is beyond pecuniary estimate. All patents granted, with the claims, published weekly.
Every public or private family should have the work bound and preserved for reference.
The yearly numbers of the Scientific American make a splendid volume of nearly one thousand quarto pages, equivalent to nearly four thousand ordinary book pages. A new volume commenced January 1, 1868. Published Weekly, at $3 per year; half yearly, $1 50. Clubs of ten copies for one year, $25; specimen copies sent gratis.
Address, MUNN & Co., 37 Park Row New York.

Weekly National Intelligencer.
In compliance with numerous solicitations the publication of the Weekly National Intelligencer was resumed on Thursday, November 29th, 1867.
It is much enlarged, and by its fact, one of the largest weekly newspapers published in this country. It is printed with new and clear type, on strong, fine white paper, and will contain more reading matter than any weekly published south of New York. Its columns are devoted to news, literature, commerce, agriculture, the industrial arts, the interests of religion and political affairs.
It contains regular reports of Congressional proceedings and departmental news, and the latest foreign and domestic markets.
In each of its departments special attention is given by an able and numerous corps of editors and reporters to provide the latest, most interesting and reliable intelligence, and to make the Weekly National Intelligencer in every respect a first class family newspaper.
Maintaining the just Constitutional powers of the General Government on the one hand and reserved rights of the States on the other, confident that the Union can be preserved only while the rights of each shall be respected by both and not transcended by either, the Weekly National In- telligencer will advocate the restoration of the Southern States to their place in the Union, on the basis of a just and equal representation in the national legislature and the electoral college, and will urge social and sectional pacification and reconciliation as the means of restoring harmony and prosperity to all parts of the country, and the proper development of its vast agricultural, mineral and industrial resources. In addition to its value as a miscellaneous newspaper, the Intelli- gencer will in every respect supply the place of a national Union campaign paper. It will be the only weekly paper of this character published at the seat of Government. It rests with the friends of the Union and the Constitution to secure this paper a circulation that shall enable it to spread the truth and to arouse the patriotic impulses of the people in every State, county, town, hamlet and fireside, where truth and patriotism are appreciated.
TERMS—payable in advance. One copy, one year, $3; six months, $1 50. Five copies, one year, $10. Daily Intelligencer, yearly, $10; tri-weekly, $6.
Subscribers should forward with their names, the post-office county and State, to which the paper is to be sent. All communications should be addressed to SNOW, COYLE & Co.,

THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.
Edited by
Geo. D. PRENTICE and Paul R. SHIPMAN; and published by The Louisville Journal Company, Louisville, Ky.
The Journal's political character and standing are known everywhere and to all intelligent and well informed persons. It is universally recognized as one of the Institutions of Louisville, Kentucky, and of the United States. Acknowledged as one of the great controlling powers of the State and Union for nearly forty years, it has during all that time, steadily bent its energies and exerted its influence to advance what it honestly conceived to be the best interests of the whole people.
The Constitution of our Fathers, unperverted and undistorted by selfish politicians and pestilent demagogues, has been the star to which it has looked as that of the nation's destiny, and by its calm, majestic and sacred light shall continue to be guided through all the calms and storms that may be before us.
The Weekly Journal is the largest paper published in this section of country, is issued on Mondays to meet the large number of mails radiating from this point. Besides the Editorials, esteemed by all amongst the foremost in the land; it has telegraphic reports from all points of the world, and communications and selections from writers of eminence in every department of science, literature, mechanics and agriculture, unsurpassed by any paper published in the West.
J. D. OSBORNE, President.
W. H. Ferris, Secretary.
TERMS—One copy, one year, weekly, $2 50; ten copies, $20. A copy sent gratis to the getter up of a club of ten.
Daily Journal, per year, $12. A copy of the Daily Journal will be sent to the person sending us forty subscribers to the Weekly.

FROM SHORE TO SHORE.
A FINE Pencil ENGRAVING, BY P. T. STUART.
From a Painting by Clarence M. Doherty.
This beautiful Engraving, suggestive of Life's Journey from Childhood to Old Age, which has been so long in the Engraver's hands is now ready for subscribers.
The Picture represents a Boat Crossing a Stream; on the forward part, Childhood is represented by a Boy and Girl, joyous and delighting with the prospects ahead; who further along in the boat is Youth—a young lady carelessly playing with pop lilies; her admirer, a young man, sits by her side. Near the centre of the boat, Manhood is represented by husband and wife. The husband is standing, his hand resting upon the shoulder of his wife, while she looks up with a confiding and cheerful smile, her child of perhaps six summers is sleeping in her lap. In the after part of the boat, Old Age is shown by an old man and woman who have travelled "Life's Journey" together, with all its "joys and sorrows," "hopes and fears;" the old gentleman leans forward upon his cane deep in thought, while the old lady sits with a basket in her lap looking back, evidently reviewing the past. Time is represented by a hardy oarsman, whose only care seems to be in pulling the boat's crew across the stream, his daughter in her sun-bonnet, very contentedly peers over the side of the boat. The whole group and style of the picture shows a master-work of art, and need only to be seen to be admired.
The Engraving is neatly printed on plate paper, 20x26, and sold to subscribers at $2.00 per copy. D. B. RUSSELL & Co., Publishers, 55 Cornhill, Boston.

THE BABE OF BETHLEHEM.
A FINE MERL ENGRAVING.
Very Beautifully Representing the Nativity of our Saviour.
No event in the history of the world more remarkably displays the wisdom and power of God, than the glorious manner in which He brought Life and Immortality to light, by the gospel of His only Son, manifest in the flesh. History as it relates merely to human events, is a pleasing and interesting subject, but that which relates to our Immortal interest certainly claims our most serious regards. The time, place and manner of the Nativity of our Saviour charms the soul, and carries with it consolation to the human heart. All in this Christian land are familiar with the prophecies of a Saviour.
In the days of Augustus Caesar, an edict went forth for general taxation, Joseph and Mary went up from Galilee to Bethlehem, to be taxed. (The Narrative continues, as recorded in the 2d chapter of St. Luke.)
The artist has chosen this interesting scene.
The Babe in the Mang'r, Mary (her face beaming with sweetness and beauty), kneels beside it, Joseph tranquilly standing close by, the Shepherds who have evidently brought a sacrificial Lamb, have laid it on the floor, and bow in humble adoration before the Holy child. The figure at the left, a mother and child, are cautious and interested spectators. The Cattle in their stalls, the shepherds dog meekly waiting at the door, the stars shining through the casement, the glimmering light from the swinging lamp, the burning fa-gots on the floor, the rustic appearance of the stable, in fact the whole grouping of the picture is admirably portrayed; each face bears its own meaning, while "The Babe of Bethlehem" is the centre of their hopes and the joy of the heavenly host. No lesson can be more instructive, or theme more profitable than the plan of human redemption.
This Engraving is executed in the highest style of stipple and line, by Messrs. Kellogg & Wilcox, of Boston. The style as well as the subject is most excellent match for "Christ blessing little children." It is to be sold exclusively by agents.
Price, $2.10 per copy.

THE ROUND TABLE.
A SATURDAY REVIEW OF LITERATURE, SOCIETY, &c.
The Round Table is established for the uninterrupted discussion of the subjects named in its title.
Its purpose is to be utterly fearless and untrammeled in forming its opinions, and to collect the most brilliant and scholarly writers in the country to give their expression. Some may occasionally be displeased by the tone and spirit which it maintains, but we beg all such to consider—in the words of Mr. Ruskin—how much less harm is done in the world by ungraceful boldness than by timidity fear.
The Round Table is independent in politics, and it will not hesitate to condemn or to sustain any men or measures, of whatever sect, clique or party as may seem to the editors to be from time to time in a position of antagonism or to arise to the material interests either of the metropolitan community, or to those of the whole common country.
Arrangements have been effected with some of the best living writers, both American and English, and it is the determination of the conductors to make The Round Table for 1867 a better paper than it has ever yet been, and, if possible, the equal of the best weekly Reviews ever established either in the Old or New World.
RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:
One copy one year, $6, in advance. One copy 6 months, $3 in advance. Single copies, 15 cents.
Ten copies to one address, one year, $40,00 in advance.
Clergymen and Teachers, one year, $4,00 in advance.
The postage on The Round Table is five cents a

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST!
Now is the time to subscribe to Moore's Rural New Yorker; the great town and country Weekly. The Rural is the leading and largest circulating Newspaper of its class on the continent, superior in value and variety of contents and beauty of appearance. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Scientific, Educational, Literary, and News Matter, interspersed with Engravings, than any other Journal; for it comprises Departments devoted to or including Agriculture, Horticulture, Sheep Ra-bdary, Grazing, Dairying, Rural Architecture, Domestic Economy, choice Literature, Science and Art, Education, Youth's Reading, General News, Commerce, Markets, with Illustrations, Tales, Essays, Music, Poetry, Rebus, Enigmas, &c.
The Rural New Yorker is a National Journal, circulating largely in the East and West, North and South. It employs the best talent in all Departments. Its corps of Editors, Contributors, &c., comprises many of the best Farmers, Planters, Wool Growers, Graziers, Horticulturists, &c., and also Authors, Scholars, &c., of note and ability.
In brief the Rural is a weekly, profusely illustrated, neatly printed; Practical, Scientific, Useful, Moral, Instructive and Entertaining. It is adapted to the wants of all. Note that it is not a monthly, but a large and beautiful weekly.
Examine a number and see if next to your local paper, the Rural is not the one for your money.

This popular Southern Journal, established in 1848, suppressed by Ben. Butler, May 13th, 1862, and re-established October 12th, 1865, is now, as in the past, a faithful exponent of Conservative Southern sentiment, a reliable record of events, and the ardent advocate of all means calculated to develop the resources of the great south-west.
