THE RICE MARKET.

TALMAGE'S REPORT.

The week proved a record breaker—the largest of the season, and nearly double any corresponding week the past five years. The chief enlargement of demand was in Japan, which is coming forward with fair freedom and finding ready takers at nominally opening figures. Under liberal receipts there is a widening assortment and present offerings now include every grade from common to choice. With many buyers price is more important than quality, and common to fair sell on a nominal parity and also at more than relative value in comparison with other grades.

Advices from the south note steady demand and generally strong conditions. Along the Atlantic coast stocks show some slight accumulation, in the main firmly held. Planters, having to face the alternative proposition whether it was better to maintain prices and lose sales, or continue selling at expense of price, appear to have elected—or at least the majority have elected—the former course. The idea is prevalent that with the passing of the whiter sorts in Louisiana, Carolina will be sure of sufficient patronage to carry out its crop at full present figures.

In New Orleans and other southwestern points, the volume of business shows further enlargement. Receipts are coming in at about equal ratio, but as the quantity is not superabundant sharp prices for the rough and in turn for cleaned, up to about former average. So far this season market conditions have ruled in planter's favor, and the deliberation with which crops are placed upon the market, would seem to assure present range of values. All sections are beginning to contribute to the supply, and outside of Japan, ruddy styles constitute a larger proportion of offerings in low and medium grades. Most of these thus far have shaded off in but slight degree, and being finely milled have commanded close up to whiter sorts. There is a lull in the demand for export, but known orders in hand for a considerable quantity act as a brace on styles suitable for such use.

The Rice Kitchen a Success.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 26.—S. Locke Breux of the New Orleans board of trade yesterday submitted a report on the Texas-Louisiana rice kitchen at the Pan-American exposition. He says the kitchen cost $9,000, and after running five months has proven an unqualified success, having cleared $3000 up to date. The executive committee intends continuing the kitchen at the Charleston exposition if the rice interests of the Carolinas will put up their share of the expense.
