Issues in Iowa.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 5.—Iowa today elects a state ticket and a legislature, which will choose a successor to United States Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver, now filling the seat to which John H. Gear, since deceased, was elected. The Republicans, Democrats, Populists, Socialists have tickets in the field. The two foremost nominees for Governor are Cummins, Republican, and Phillips, Democrat. The issues as presented by the Republicans are national tariff changes and reciprocity, while the Democrats although they endorsed in the state convention the Kansas City platform, have made their fight on the issue of reform in corporate taxation.

Not burnt out; we are still in the same old stand at Renshaws meat market, with a large list of bargains in land; call and see us. WILLIAMS & Co.
