Union Oil and Development Co., Ltd,

Capital Stock, $200,000 Jennings, Louisiana

This is one of the strongest companies financially there are, or will operate in the Jennings field. Its officers are all men of exceptional business ability and its holdings are of the best, consisting of 250 acres, constituting the Big Spring farm, formerly owned by Cooper & Lehman, lying southeast of Jennings and adjoining the Southern Pacific right of way, making the site unequalled for the speedy and economical handling of the product. This is a big saving to stockholders.

The derrick is now being constructed and the contract for drilling is being let. Work will commence very shortly.

A limited number of shares in this company are now offered for sale at 50c per share, par value $1.00. Fully paid and non-assessable.

LANDS FOR SALE.—About 80 acres adjoining the well site has been subdivided into tracts ranging from 2½ acres up, and are now offered to purchasers at a reasonable price. This is a fine opportunity to get a splendidly located small tract.

Neighborhood News.

KLONDIKE, LA. Nov. 18.
Threshing on this plant is just about worked up for this season.

Mr. Limbocker pulled his machine to east Klondike Sunday to thresh for C. M. Gremillon.

Fred Limbocker moved his family back home last week.

The little shower last Thursday was very acceptable in as much as it did not continue. It settled the dust somewhat, and has brought in a few ducks.

Mr. Ben McGratter of Shell Beach expects to start for his home in St. Louis, Mo. this week. He's been here about seven or eight months, and says he likes it so well that he intends coming back after the holidays.

It seem that we're not going to have any school at Klondike this winter. It was to have began about a month ago, but for some reason two teachers after having made arrangements to take up the school have changed their minds and gone elsewhere. Plenty idle boys and girls who ought to be in the school soon can be found getting into mischief.

B. L. Roberts was taking his girl buggy riding Sunday afternoon. When some one heard him say he had decided not to go back to college this winter. Well we can easily understand that. But I do feel sorry for the other girls, especially those who have charge of his instruments. But if he does not hurry up some body else will beat him stepping off yet, for we think we know where there will be a wedding on the 29th but we would not say where it is going to be as it's down on the lake.

MAY SEND THE TROOPS OUT

American Consul Said to Have Called on Bulgaria for Assistance.

Sofia, Nov. 20.—It is reported that Mr. Dickinson has informed the government of Bulgaria that the abductors of Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mme Tsilka, with their captives, are concealed in a defile of the Bellitza mountain, near Smoutch, district of Dubnitza, and has requested that troops be sent to surround the place and liberate the captives.

Both Mr. Dickinson and the Bulgarian foreign office decline to confirm or deny this report. Nevertheless it is believed that Mr. Dickinson, persuaded of the impossibility of coming to terms with the brigands and relying upon his belief that they will not harm their captives if the troops are employed against them, has, after consulting with Washington, decided upon this move.

Only eight bandits now guard Miss Stone and some of these are known to sympathize with her.

Echoes of the Lake Charles Convention.

The convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs is over, but pleasant memories linger. Miss Agnes Morris, state secretary of the federation, who is still lingering in Lake Charles, writes as follows to the Picayune. "Lake Charles has done herself proud during the past two days in making the delegates and visitors to the State Federation of Women's Clubs feel that they were honored guests. Hospitality is peculiarly a southern virtue, we like to think, and it has been shown in its perfection in Lake Charles on Thursday and Friday. Gracious women and cultured men have made the visitors feel that they were sincerely welcome to the homes of the city by the lake. Their hospitality seems to give them so much pleasure the recipients could not but be happy in receiving it."

In Jail for an Infamous Crime

Ovide Savant, a farmer and logger, residing near Indian Village, came into the sheriff's office Tuesday afternoon and surrendered to answer a charge of criminal assault. He was placed in jail; the punishment being death, the offense is not bailable.

The victim of the alleged assault is Laura Fontenot, Savant's niece, who is sixteen years old. The act is alleged to have been committed a week ago last Saturday.

A warrant has been out for Savant's arrest for some days, but he has eluded the officers and explained that he preferred to give himself up. He denies the charge. Savant is about 50 years old and has hitherto borne a good reputation.—American.

Good things come in small packages. That's why the El Cid Cigar is so popular, at Mitchell & Embich.

WILL MAKE A STRONG FIGHT

A Messenger Sent to Find the Attorney General of Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., November 20.—The Dispatch says: Governor Van Zant has sent a special messenger to find Attorney General Douglass in the Northern Minnesota woods and requested him to return to the city so that a consultation may be held with regard to the situation of railroads.

If Attorney General Douglass requires assistance the governor promises to engage the best legal talent that can be had either in this State or outside of it.

The governor has received no telegrams or other advices from the governors of neighboring States as to what action they will take, but it is expected that the fight will be taken up in all the Northwestern States, several of which have laws similar to Minnesota, prohibiting the consolidation of parallel and competing lines. The laws of North Dakota, Montana and Washington are said to be identical with those of Minnesota.

Now Crowley Views It.

A dispatch from Crowley in the Picayune of a recent date says:

The circular letter issued by H. L. Gueydan, of the Mutual Mill, of Gueydan, La., soliciting the co-operation of the country mills looking to a boycott of the New Orleans and New York rice markets, has fallen flat insofar as Crowley is concerned, and the plan proposed is looking upon as entirely unfeasible. The idea of boycotting these two markets, in the opinion of Crowley mills, would only be giving two of the best markets in the country to other mills, especially in the export trade. The clean market has now, they think, reached its bottom, and no further decline is anticipated. To the contrary, they believe that when the true situation is realized that the market will go up. From estimates received from well-posted rice men the yield of Louisiana and Texas is put at a 2,300,000 bag crop, a great deal less than is required to supply the consumption of the United States. The millmen to not consider the prospects gloomy by any means and are looking forward to a rise in the market after the holidays, at the farthest.

LASTIE REDO SHOT AND KILLED

Murdered by Joe Diamond Because he hadn't Whisky to Give Him.

Quite a little excitement occurred last evening in the suburbs of town about 6:15 o'clock, caused by the killing of Laste Redo by Joe Diamond, both colored.

The coroner's inquest took place in the street in front of the Jennings Drug Store by Justice Valdedero. The first witness called was Jeff Monroe, colored. He stated that Joe Diamond, the murderer, and Laste Redo were standing in the street talking when Diamond says, "Give me a drink of whisky?" Redo replied, "I have no more." Diamond drew his pistol from his bosom and fired, the bullet going in Redo's mouth and breaking his neck. He died in about ten minutes.

The four other eye witnesses were Robert Snipe, Henry Williams, William Brian and Calvin Walker, all colored. Their testimony was almost the same as the first witness.

The coroner's jury consisted of Jack Bonnin, C. F. Cullen, Arthur Hebert, A. Hollins, F. G. Crow. Their verdict was that Laste Redo came to his death from a pistol shot fired by Joe Diamond.

Diamond, the murderer, has so far made good his escape.
