

A Good Habit

The habit of buying of Hebert & Andrus, the Southside general merchants, is a good habit to get into. They sell everything usually kept in a first-class general store, and on account of their large trade they are constantly receiving new goods, which you will always find fresh and clean. Since doubling the size of their building they have received a new stock of UP-TO-DATE Dry Goods, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Shoes and Notions. Our GROCERY and PROVISION DEPARTMENT is filled with good thing to eat.

FOR MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER.

The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle, So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c

A Monkey's Escape.

One of Gentry Bros' performing monkey's escaped during the performance last night by running under the seats, and gaining the street, lead some of the employee's of the show a merry chase. Judson Harris who had been attending an oil meeting returned home about 9:30 and was much surprised by being confronted by a monkey on his gallery and was at a loss to know what to do with his prize or rather how to proceed in order to secure him, for he did not know but the representative of the "missing link" might bite. However while ruminating over the situation, the men came his way, and when he learned their mission he told them he thought he had the runaway cornered on the gallery. They then approached and the monkey recognizing them jumped into the arms of one of the men, indicating a degree of conscious, confidence in his rescuers that went to show that he had had enough of the fun and was glad and willing to be among old acquaintances again. If the monkey was glad, the captors were equally elated as their uncertain chase had indeed been successfully.

ANOTHER VERSION.

Jud is telling his experience last night with an escaped circus monkey. It seems Judson had been out rather late last night to a meeting of (so he says) an oil Co. and when he arrived on the gallery of his home he saw a monkey. Of course Jud having been to the so called "oil meeting" he was not so sure if the "monk" was in the flesh or not, he took no chances however, drawing his gun he took deliberate aim saying to himself, Mr Monkey, "if you are a monkey you are in an awful bad fix, and if you aint a monkey I am in an awful bad fix." It was a monk; Jud did not have them.
