Two Whites Killed, One White and a Negro Wounded.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 28.—In a general fight between white men and negroes at Childersburg, Christmas day, a white man and his son were killed, while a white boy and one negro were wounded. With great difficulty a general outbreak was prevented. The negroes are now in jail at Talladega.

J. Bird, a middle-aged white man, and Reuben Bird, his son, 15 years old, are the dead.

Tom Holly, a negro, was probably fatally wounded. George Bird, white, was shot in the legs.

The trouble grew out of a card game, the negroes having quarreled over the winnings. Tom Holly shot at one of the party when J. Bird, a white man, came up and advised the negroes to stop fighting. Holly, becoming angered at the interference, fired on Bird, mortally wounding him.

Bird's two sons, George and Reuben, were with their father when he was shot. Reuben rushed to his side, while George shot the negro Holly, inflicting a fatal wound. By this time the negroes began firing on both the boys, and they began to seek shelter. Reuben went to his father, who was dying, and was ordered by George Woods, a negro, to run. The boy begged to remain by his father, but on failure to move was shot dead. Charner Woods, father of George Woods, then shot the elder Bird again. George Bird was shot in the legs while escaping. A large crowd of whites quickly gathered, and surrounding the negroes captured them all and took them to Talladega. For awhile it seemed as if a riot would result, but the quick action of conservative citizens prevented an outbreak.

GOVERNOR ROGERS DEAD.

Succumbs to a Severe Attack of Pneumonia at Washington's Capital.

Olympia, Wash., Dec. 28.—Governor John H. Rogers died at 10 o'clock Thursday night from a severe attack of pneumonia.

John H. Rogers was born in Brunswick, Me., September 4, 1838. From 1852-1856 he was a drug clerk in Boston and for the next four years was engaged in the drug business in Jackson, Miss. He taught school for several years in Illinois, and in 1876 moved to Wichita, Kan., where he was editor of the Kansas commoner. During his residence in Kansas, Gov. Rogers became a Farmer's Alliance organizer. In 1890 he removed to the state of Washington, where he was elected to the legislature. In 1896 he was elected governor on the fusion ticket and re-elected in 1900.

Rogers was the author of several works on political economy, among them "The Irrepressible Conflict," "Looking Forward," and "The Inalienable Rights of Man."

TO ADOPT ARBITRATION.

Pan-American Conference Delegates Have Reached an Agreement.

City of Mexico, Dec. 28.—A substantial agreement on the subject of arbitration has been practically reached by the several delegations to the Pan-American conference. Contrary to what had been anticipated, it is now sure that the agreement is acceptable, including even Argentina, who, it is thought, would refuse to sign any compulsory scheme of arbitration. The basis of agreement is the Hague convention. All the nations represented at the conference in Mexico will become parties to the Hague convention. The compulsory plan, however, will only take effect among the states which have agreed to it, and will not have the effect of binding the Pan-American conference.

A sentiment is growing up in favor of arbitration, and it is probable that for the closing of the conference.

Urbana, Ill., Dec. 28.—John B. Weeks of Champaign, a personal friend of Rear Admiral Sampson, has received a letter from Mrs. Sampson in which she says that the mental condition of the admiral is beyond recovery. The letter was written in reply to a note expressing sympathy with the rear admiral in the personal annoyances he has suffered in the controversy with Rear Admiral Schley. The letter is as follows:

"Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—My Dear Mr. Weeks: Admiral Sampson is too ill to understand your most kind letter just received, but if he were well he would wish to thank you for it. He cares so much for 'old times,' and for anything that concerns Palmyra.

"The wording of your letter shows that living in the west has not blinded your eyes to the truth concerning recent events. I have enjoyed your expression of the true facts as you understand them.

"My dear husband is quite worn out with a long life of concentrated duty. Physically he is comfortable and happy, but the brain is tired beyond ever being rested.

"ELIZABETH B. SAMPSON."
