FIRE AND AN EXPLOSION TREATY WILL BE SIGNED

Causing a Loss of Quarter of a Million Dollars.

The United States and Cuba Agree on Reciprocity.

By Union Associated Press.

Lacoma, N. H., Dec. 6.—The Masonic temple burned this morning, following a terrific explosion which first entirely wrecked the structure.

The accident scattered destruction over a large area, causing, among other fires amounting to a loss of quarter million dollars.

A Musical Treat.

It was indeed a source of pleasure to the large audience that completely filled the auditorium of the Congregational church last night, to listen to the host of songs that were in store for them and also the readings of Miss Colclough. They were enjoyed on several occasions.

The musical critics pronounced the music a success, and something that our people will again hear should the Chicago Glee Club visit our city again.

"Sing! Brethren, Sing!"

A Good Thing.

H. Stern has let the contract to Waldford & Head for the erection of eight six-room cottages of the Queen Ann style on his lots on Cutting Avenue. Work will commence next Monday. Mr. Stern is a very enterprising citizen and will fill a long felt want.

Resting Easy.

By Union Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Ex-Speaker Reed is resting easily this morning. He had an alarming attack of nausea soon after one o'clock. Dr. Bishop left the Arlington hotel, saying he patient is not worse, though seriously ill.

Cambon is Pleased.

By Union Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 6.—The French Ambassador, Cambon, sailed on the La Champagne this morning, and expressed regret at leaving. He says what impressed him the most during his stay was the American treatment of foreigners.
