Jennings Daily Record.

N. L. Miller, Publisher.

JENNINGS, - - - - AL

The joy of work is probably felt most exquisitely by those who don't have to.

Some manifestations of strenuousness are painfully remindful of St. Vitus's dance.

Men who cannot get along well with one woman, would have a lovely time in Salt Lake City.

That man who confessed to a murder he didn't commit shows that some men just can't help lying.

"This is above all a reading age, but how many people read the Bible?" Ssh-h.—Boston Journal.

A cablegram brings news that there is to be less liberty in Russia. How can there be less than nothing?

The bearded lady is said to be dead. But she was also said to be a lady. We can never tell what to believe.

A comb has been invented that will not tumble out of the hair. Most combs would stay put if they were not bothered.

Sixty-four divorces were granted in New York one day recently, and a whole lot of people were left unsatisfied even then.

An English syndicate is forming a cotton trust in Mexico, so, you see, some of them get away from New Jersey after all.

The report that Gen. Corbin is writing a book with the alluring title "Me 'n' Kaiser Bill" lacks verification, but it may be true.

The Connecticut bull that got drunk on apple mash and broke his neck in charging a tree, had no more sense than lots of people.

The St. Paul postoffice officials have a pair of garters which were lost in transit. We had not supposed that garters were mail matter.

In Wisconsin barbers are arrested for shaving men on Sunday. In some places there are barbers who should be arrested for shaving men on weekdays.

There is a general impression that the man who offered to do the William Tell act and then lost his life was destined to meet the foolkiller sooner or later.

There is a discussion on now as to what Noah and his family ate on the ark. Noah probably saw to it that more than two chickens were taken aboard.

A Maryland man was shot to death the other day by a hunter. The latter mistook his victim for a wild turkey. That surely is adding insult to injury.

The new cruisers of our navy may not get into battle as quickly as the speedier vessels of some other countries, but they will stay longer after they arrive.

It is claimed that J. Pierpont Morgan has made $42,000,000 so far this year, in spite of the fact that he has been off a good deal and refused to work overtime.

"Great fortunes are misfortunes," declares Uncle Russell Sage. They are misfortunes which nobody is in any hurry to be rid of, however, Uncle Russell least of all.

Wall street and women were the cause of the downfall of the former private secretary to Gov. Murphy of New Jersey. No man can stand up against that combination long.

A Kansas City boy who had fallen in love with "Little Eva" ran away with an "Uncle Tom" show. This is perhaps the worst disgrace that could happen even to a Kansas City family.

Mr. Van Alen of Newport, says England is the only place for a gentleman to live. If he intends this as an explanation of his presence in this country, all right; otherwise, it does not matter.

Germany is disposed to laugh heartily over Andrew Carnegie's proposed "United States of Europe." A Scotch joke equal to the provocation of mirth in a German is certainly a most extraordinary incident.

Western book agents have formed a union, and will try to get into the American Federation of Labor. Don't worry, they'll get in all right, even if they find it necessary to insert a foot in the crack of the door.

The Missouri farmer who sent $2 for a fire escape and received a Bible might prosecute on the ground that the other fellow secured money under false pretenses—if he could prove that there isn't going to be a fire.

Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovitch, the czar's uncle, has been dismissed from the Russian army for marrying the Baroness Pistolkoff. Evidently they have no sense of the fitness of things in Russia. What could be more natural than that of a soldier should love his Pistolkoff?

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE MAY WED ENGLISHWOMAN

PRINCESS ALICE OF ALBANY

CROWN PRINCE OF GERMANY

It is declared, apparently with some authority, that the purpose of Kaiser Wilhelm's visit to King Edward, which he has just concluded, was to arrange for the betrothal of his son, the crown prince, to the nineteen-year-old Princess Alice of Albany. The kaiser and his consort have, it is said, been closely observing the princess the last two years, while she has been living with her mother and brother, who is duke of Saxe-Coburg, and have decided she would make an excellent queen consort for their son. Princess Alice and the crown prince are second cousins. After the crown prince's visit to England a year ago there were persistent stories that he had fallen in love with Princess Alice, and later there was a story of an interview with his father in regard to the matter.

IS A TYPICAL SOUTHERNER.

Capt. Marmaduke Known and Respected by His Fighting Crew.

Capt. Henry M. Marmaduke, who is in charge of the Colombian cruiser Bogota at Panama, and who proposes to reorganize the Colombian navy and make it effective, is a typical southerner—tall, lean and sinewy. He has the gamecock look of a born fighter and the reputation on the Pacific coast of a man who makes good his looks. He comes of a Missouri family and his first experience in naval warfare was on the old confederate ram Merrimac. So well known was Marmaduke on the coast as a fighter that when it was given out that he was to have command of the Bogota the vessel was crowded with applicants for places on the crew. Marmaduke gave the preference to Annapolis men for officers and to old American man-o'-warsmen for the crew. He has had his pick and the crew that he gathered was one that any commander might have been proud of.

Cure for Grip.

According to a French physician an attack of grip can be cured by cologne. The prescription is also recommended for colds, which at this season are so stubborn and so common. To be effective the cologne must be used at the very beginning of the disease. The very best cologne is poured on a handkerchief and the fumes instantly inhaled through the nose and mouth. If the trouble is concentrated in the throat the relief, it is said, is almost immediate. At first the inhalations are made at intervals of but two or three minutes. After a burning sensation has been excited a period of ten or fifteen minutes may elapse. Twelve hours is a fair test with the remedy, its failure after that length of treatment being regarded as an indication that grip was already too far under way.

BELGIANS WANT NEW BLOOD.

Count of Flanders Thought Too Old to Take the Throne.

The announcement that Prince Philip, count of Flanders, has resigned his claims to the succession to the throne of Belgium in favor of his son, Prince Albert, is pleasing to the people. The count of Flanders is growing old, being aged sixty-five years, and the people feel that an infusion of young blood on the throne is desirable. Prince Albert is aged twenty-seven years, and both he and his wife, the Princess Elizabeth, are popular. They have one son, Prince Leopold.

COUNT OF FLANDERS

TURNS ON HER CRITICS.

Miss Nethersole Displeased at the Strictures on her "Sapho."

Miss Olga Nethersole has concluded a successful week at the Gaiety theater. At the end of the performance of "Sapho" on Saturday night she came before the curtain and, in a rather long speech, which was frequently interrupted by the cheers of a very friendly house, gave her views on the treatment of her play by the Dublin Press, which represented her play as not quite as moral as it might be. She was indeed almost inclined to think that these newspapers could be prosecuted under the Crimes Act. The public, however, had not taken their advice. The play had been so very successful in Dublin as to leave her no case for the legal proceedings which she had intended to take against the Freeman's Journal and the Independent, and these would now be abandoned. Miss Nethersole complained of the number of indecently abusive anonymous letters which she had received during her stay in Dublin.—Liverpool (Eng.) Mercury.

Many Changes in Congress.

Since the house of the fifty-seventh congress came into existence in March, 1901, twelve members have died, three have resigned and two have been unseated as a result of contests, making a total of seventeen changes in less than two years. This, according to those intrusted with the compilation of data of this character, is the greatest number of changes occurring during one session of congress in the history of that legislative body.

THE BLOOD.

The blood is life. We derive from the blood life, power, beauty and reason, as the doctors have been saying from time immemorial. A healthy body, a fresh appearance, and generally all the abilities we possess depend on that source of life. It is therefore the duty of every sensible man to keep the blood as pure and normal as possible. Nature, in its infinite wisdom, has given us a thermometer indicating the state of the blood, which appeals to our reason by giving notice of its impurity. Small eruptions of the skin, to which we scarcely pay any attention, headache, ringing noises in the ears, lassitude, sleeplessness, are generally a sign that the blood is not in its normal state, but is filled with noxious substances. These symptoms deserve our full attention. If more attention were paid to those symptoms, and steps taken to remove them, then many illnesses from which we suffer would become unknown and the human body would become stronger and healthier. Attention therefore should be paid to those warning signs, and the blood can be purified and poisonous substances removed from it by the use of Dr. August Koenig's Hamburg Drops, discovered more than 60 years ago.

God has placed upon the earth two gates that lead to heaven. He has set them at the two extremes of life—one at the entrance and the other a the end. The first is innocence, the other repentance.—St. Pierre.

CHRISTMAS, 1902.

Rates to the old states are lower, service more perfect than ever before. Dec. 13, 17, 21, 22, 23 and 26 the Southern Pacific-Sunset Route will sell round trip tickets to points in the North, East and Southeast at rate of one fare plus $2.00, with limit for return thirty days from date of sale. Double daily service, Pullman buffet and excursion sleeping cars free chair cars and day coaches. Direct connection at New Orleans both east and west bound. Write and let us know your objective point. We will be glad to quote rate, furnish schedule and any additional information you may desire.

M. L. ROBBINS,
G. P. A., Houston, Texas.
T. J. ANDERSON,
A. G. P. A., Houston, Texas.

A committee has been appointed at Dole, where a statue of Pasteur has recently been erected, to collect funds to purchase the house in which he was born as a permanent memorial.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by druggists 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Consider carefully pending propositions before acting on same. In this way you may be able to be of more benefit to yourself than you are at present.

Of Gladstone, Henry Labouchere once remarked: "I do not object to Mr. Gladstone's occasionally having an ace up his sleeve. But I do wish he would not always say that Providence put it there."

"Brother, what kind of a thing is a maggot?" "By goodness, Dolly, what an ignorantness! Why, that's how papa made all his money—by being a coal maggot!"

Nearly every member of congress keeps a scrap book, and for the time covered Senator Beveridge's is the largestof the lot. The Indiana man already has two volumes of 250 pages each, with three newspaper columns to the page.

The man who knows it all somehow never seems to prosper.

Don't you believe all the old saws and especially that which says, "A barking dog won't bite."

A corn is a wart on your toe. Corns and warts are just the same, only different.

THE ST. PAUL CALENDAR FOR 1903

Be discreet, but do not carry this virtue too far.

The Lord made the earth, but Morgan and Carnegie own it.

WEALTH OF WESTERN FARMS.

Bountiful Crops the Rule for Many Successive Years.

The big wheat farms of the Dakotas are being broken up into smaller holdings, and the conditions there are becoming like those of states farther south, where the average size of a farm is 250 acres. Out of it all the farmer is growing independent. Five great crop years have just been ended on the plains.

Beginning with the crop of 1897, the wheat has been good every year. Not always has it been a record-breaker in every community, but generally it has returned a great harvest. The farmer estimates the cost of his crop at $7.50 an acre; if he gets thirty bushels an acre and sells it for 50 cents he has a profit of $7.50 an acre. On 100 acres it is $750; on 1,000 acres, $7,500—and there are many hundred farmers with the latter acreage.

What have they done? A. Miner came to York county, Nebraska, ten years ago with just enough to buy eighty acres of land. He lived in a sod house, and lost everything in the hard times of the early nineties. Now he owns 720 acres of land, lives in a ten room house and has a bank account. A man named Harnady rented a farm in Seward county, that state, seven years ago; now he owns the farm and has $3,000 in bank. J. S. Hollinger came to central Kansas poor; he raised wheat chiefly; he died a few months ago worth with the accumulations of his family of boys, $100,000. The Miller brothers rented land of the Ponca Indians, in Oklahoma, five years ago, and put in wheat and raised stock. They are making $25,000 annually clear profit. Hundreds of instances might be mentioned of farms that have been paid out of the crops of one or two years.—Leslie's Weekly.

A Flowery Brief.

A brief for the state in an early Nebraska case indulges in the following prairie flowers of fancy:

"Plaintiffs in error are afraid that the honor and dignity of the state will suffer, and they invoke for the claimants broad principles of natural equity, and the claim that neither the laws governing courts nor the constitution apply to them. The logical sequence is this—that persons who hold claims against the state are a favored class, who can alone make wings of 'justice and right' to fly to that mystic region above and beyond the trammels of law, and where such unjust things as contracts and written constitutions do not exist; but where for them a straight and narrow pathway leads to the treasury, whose doors, without stint or delay, turn softly on golden hinges to admit them. Yet if I do not very much mistake this court, 'these wings' will unfeather in their flight, and claimants against the state must fall to a common level with all other litigants, and stand up to the rack where is fed that good old fodder of 'justice and right' as administered by our courts."

Woman.

The earth had been made, and man had been made.
But somehow it lacked in the bloomin',
Till the God of the good to whom ages
have prayed,
Turned it into a garden with woman.

He builded her fair like a lily of white,
And with love did he perfume her being,
And if through her did come the first shade of night,
Ever since by her light we've been seeing.

For you know that a new wick gives no light at all,
Till it's blackened and trimmed with the shears,
So perhaps that is why she has brightened this ball
Through all of its varying years!

And I think it is sweet at the close of life's day,
When we part hands with all that is human,
To be led to the light at the end of the way—
As it ever has been—by the woman.
—Leigh Mitchell Hodges, in Atlantic City Sentinel.

A Bath for Your Telephone.

To disinfect your telephone transmitter, says the Chicago Tribune, get a bottle of alcohol and a sponge. Wash the transmitter and receiver daily. This is the advice of the Health department to telephone subscribers who want to guard against the possibility of contagion through the use of the instrument.

Daily baths are necessary if the recipe is to be worth anything. The first act after reaching your office and opening your desk should be to wash the transmitter. Then you may open your mail. There is a possibility of contagion, it is asserted. Aside from this, the daily wash is a sensible sanitary precaution which can be taken with little or no trouble and expense.

Russell Sage's Saving.

A solicitor for a Well street paper had been trying for a long time to secure the signature of Russell Sage to an advertising contract at a cost of $100 per year, but to no purpose. To show how diligently he had been working, hoping thereby to induce Mr. Sage to sign the contract, he said:

"I think, Mr. Sage, you ought to favor me with this order, for I have been after you for three years."

The old financier leaned back in his chair, thought a moment, and then asked: "How long have you been trying to get this contract, did you say?"

"Three years," hopefully replied the agent.

"Then, you see," continued Mr Sage, "I have saved just $300."

Brick Will Absorb Water.

An ordinary brick will absorb sixteen ounces of water.

Lived in God's Country.

David B. Hill enjoys the retirement of his country home, but is not averse to an occasional trip to New York, where he can indulge in the wit and pleasure of the banquet table. At one of these gatherings the evening had gone by rapidly and the ex-governor was enjoying himself. He had responded to a toast earlier in the evening, but was being prevailed upon again to say a few words.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I have less than half an hour in which to catch a train for home."

"Why don't you live in God's country, Mr. Hill?" asked one of the guests.

"I do," responded the statesman, quickly, "but I find it unusually hard to-night to leave my friends, gathered here in the devil's country."

When a man reurns from his "vacation," he usually looks as fagged out as a girl who is getting ready to be married.—Atchison Globe.

Matilda—I think that Frank was wholly disinterested in asking me to be his wife. Uncle George—Disinterested? He was positively reckless.

It has been decided to found an eye hospital and an asylum for the blind at Ceylon's memorial to the late Queen Victoria.