Public Regulation of Railroads.

Special to the Record. Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 27.—The public regulation of railroads was the general subject of discussion at this morning's session of the annual convention of the American Economic Association. Papers treating of the subject from various viewpoints were presented by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Charles A. Prouty, Vice President Walker D. Hines of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, Professor Emory R. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania, and Professor B. H. Meyer of the University of Wisconsin.

The Queen's Christmas Gift

Special to the Record. London, Dec. 27.—Hundreds of women and children—widows and orphans of British soldiers who fell in the recent South African war—were made glad today by the thoughtful generosity of Queen Alexandra. In response to the proclamation announcing the Queen's intention, the believed, many in desperately poor circumstances, gathered for a free Christmas dinner and after they had eaten their fill were sent home laden with packages containing food and clothing.

TRAIN WRECK IN CANADA

Thirty People Killed and Over that Number Injured.

By Union Associated Press. New York, Dec. 27.—A terrible train wreck is reported from London, Ontario. An express train collided with a freight on a switch, with fearful results, overturning the baggage and express cars. It is thought that not a single passenger in the smoker escaped uninjured. The Pacific express connects with eastern trains over the New York Central, Erie and Lehigh Valley at suspension bridge.

Belle Woodworth.

Belle, the infant daughter of Lyle A. Woodworth and wife was born Dec. 13th, 1902 and departed this earthly life Dec. 26th being 13 days old. The babe was one of the smallest ever born in Jennings. Her earth life was of short duration, but the life into which she has entered will be endless. A short funeral service was held at the home, by Rev. J. B. Patterson, after which the body was laid to rest. The family have the sympathy of all in this bereavement.

The Reclining Close.

The series of revival meetings which have been in progress for nearly four weeks closed last night, 24 being added to the church roll.

These meetings have been enjoyed from a religious sense, and the Rev. Hadlock and his assistant Talmage Stanley have won for them a host of friends.

Big New York Athletic Meet.

Special to the Record. New York, Dec. 27.—New Yorkers will receive an opportunity to see a host of prominent amateur athletes in competition at the first annual winter meeting of the Greater New York Irish Athletic association in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Another Gusher Looked For.

Southern No. 5 is expected to come in today. The lines were set yesterday and the hauling was commenced today. The gas pressure is very strong, oil is coming out very freely, and indications are that it will be a first class well.
