KILLED WRONG GIRL

Mrs. Humelhagen Shot Down on Street by Drunken Man.

RAVES OVER FATAL MISTAKE

Opened Fire While She Was Wheeling Her Baby Along the Street.

I reeport, Ill., June 3 .- Edna Humelhagen, 19 years of age, was shot to death by Herbert E. Sphinger, aged 18 years, of Rockford, Ill., who chased Mrs. Humelhagen through a crowd in Ninth street, thinking she was a Rockford woman who had spurned him. Springer revived from an alcoholic stupor and raved over the fatal mis-

Mrs. Humelhagen, who had been married only 17 months, was wheeling her 6-months-old baby along Ninth street. As she stopped to rearrange the infant in the cab, Springer stepped up and muttered a threat that caused the young mother to retreat a few paces from the baby carriage.

With a hand made unsteady by drink, Springer drew a revolver and fired at the woman, missing her. As the man paid no attention to the child, but started towards the mother, she turned and fled down the street, pursued by Springer.

A second shot missed Mrs. Humelhagen as she ran, and, nearly overcome by fright, she tried to enter the grocery store of George Aton, calling tor help.

Just as the woman reached the door of the grocery Springer fired a third shot and the bullet struck her dead as she fell into the arms of Grocer Aton, moaning: "Save me for my poor baby." Springer was arrested and taken to jail, while scores of persons who had seen the quickly executed murder swarmed about the dead woman Friends took the baby home to its father, who says he never heard of
