FELICIANA DEMOCRAT.

Special Notices.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING. THE Democratic party of the Parish of East Feliciana, will assemble in Mass Meeting, at Clinton, on Saturday, the 9th day of June, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions, to be held in Baton Rouge, on the 3d Monday in June. Come one and all. Clinton, La. May 18, 1855.

MASONIC CELEBRATION. THE Anniversary of St. John, the Baptist, will be celebrated at CLINTON, La., on MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1855, by St. Albans, No. 28, Olive, No. 52, Mt. Moriah, No. 77, and Kellertown, No. 134, Masonic Lodges. Brethren in good standing, members of a lodge, are invited to participate.

MAYOR'S OFFICE. CLINTON, May 10, 1855. AN ELECTION for Mayor and five Aldermen, to serve during the ensuing year, for the corporation of Clinton, will be held on MONDAY, the 4th day of June next.

CASE OF W. G. KENDALL.—After the commitment of the late Postmaster Kendall to appear before the United States Circuit Court, and answer the charge of embezzling a valuable letter and appropriating its contents it was ascertained that Judge Campbell, before leaving the city, had adjourned that court till November next. The 23d being the day fixed for Kendall's appearance, he appeared before the United States District Court and entered into recognizance in the same sum that had before required of him ($19,000), with Emile La Sere and Dr. Hensley as his sureties. The grand jury which had been empaneled were dismissed until Thursday next, when it is understood Kendall's case will be laid before them.

THE CROPS—THE WEATHER. On Sunday last, says the Independent of Catahoula we had light showers during the greater part of the day, but not sufficiently copious to wet the ground below the surface. Still however, the rain was evidently of much service. Crops look well, and, with timely rains, the prospect of an abundant yield was never greater. "Low and falling," in reference to all the water courses, is still the cry.

The Houston Telegraph, of the 18th, says:—Our exchanges from all parts of the State, bring us the gratifying intelligence, that the late rains were general throughout the State, and the prospect is that the grain crop will be fully equal to that of last year.

The Shreveport Democrat, of the 10th inst, says:—The weather is cloudy and cool; some prospect of rain. The stand of cotton is said not to be good, otherwise the crops is said to be doing well, considering the drought. The river is still receding. Small boats get along with difficulty. On Wednesday night of last week there was a heavy rain in several of the eastern counties of Texas, extending as far north as Hempstead county, Arkansas. On Wednesday night last, there was another rain in same direction, extending somewhat into this parish.

The Opelousas Patriot, of Saturday last, says:—Since our last issue we had a very general and refreshing rain, which did incalculable benefit to the crops. The earth was so dry, however, that its effects have passed away and we are experiencing the drought in all of its severity. The progress of vegetation, therefore, is very slow, and the prospects of the planters still gloomy. As for navigation we have none—large alligators even finding it difficult to navigate the Courtableau in the neighborhood of Washington.

The Alexandria Democrat, of Wednesday last, says:—Rain fell on Sunday last in some portions of the parish. On Bayou Boeuf we hear of a substantial shower of a pretty general character. In the upper end of the parish and along the river, the benefit from this source was meagre. But a few drops fell.—We want a steady, powerful rain of ten or twelve hours duration to give us good hopes for the crops. Nothing short of this will be effectual. The river has fallen rapidly within the last few days, and the water is receding. We have now "regular-built" low water navigation, and shippers must have a bad time of it in future.

No Wonder.—The Know-Nothing press are making much ado over a letter from the Rev. Dr. Robert Breckenridge, of Kentucky, in favor of their party. Of course. Dr. Breckenridge hates slavery and approves any movement that promises to extirpate the "evil." He is an old and inveterate Whig; was a candidate for the last Reform Convention in Kentucky; took ground in the canvass in favor of emancipating the slaves, and was badly beaten upon that issue. Now he is a Know-Nothing.—There is no inconsistency in his conduct. He has only changed the mode of his warfare against slavery. He is fighting now with a more effective weapon.

The Morrions have established a settlement about thirty miles from Council Bluffs. It is composed exclusively of families from the Western Reserve of Ohio.

DEATH OF AN ORATOR AND STATESMAN. Hon. Walter T. COLQUHETT, died at Macon, Ga., on the 7th inst. The deceased was born in Virginia but was brought by his parents at an early age to Georgia. He was educated at Princeton College New Jersey, where he gave signal promise of the reputation he has since acquired as a statesman and advocate. He filled in Georgia, successively, the offices of Judge of the supreme court, member of Congress and U. S. Senator; and was distinguished in each. But he was most at home on the stump and in the court-room. As a most popular orator, he might justly be compared to Patrick Henry; playing upon the human heart with a master hand and evoking smiles and tears at his will, as he passed from broadest humor to irresistible pathos. As a politician, he was a State's Rights Republican, and never deserted the faith of '98, though he had sometimes to break with his friends.

PAY YOUR BILLS.—An Incentive.—Some years ago, a farmer in Frederick county, Md., owed a neighbor of his $50, and as soon as he could realize the sum he promptly paid it over. The morning he called to pay it his friend appeared to be very thankful remarking that he was also in debt to another person who needed the money, and he would at once take it to him. This remark started a train of thought in the mind of the first person, who said to himself—why here is $100 paid with $50. I will at once follow up this matter and see where it will end. He then followed up payments of the debts by this one note of $50, until he traced it to the large amount of $3,750! when it got out of his reach.—Now here is the moral: A owes B a bill, which if he pays promptly, will be paid by B to C, and so on through the whole alphabet, and it will be surprising to every one, what a small amount is necessary to pay off hundreds of thousands by keeping the "eagles on the wing." Now, when the money market is so tight and the banks are unable to discount all the paper offered, let persons begin to pay their bills, and by so doing, they, themselves, will be paid back in turn. It is a machine which feeds itself, and propels, by its own offal, the execution of great exploits. As a word to the wise is ever sufficient, we think it only necessary to give this hint to our business men, who will be able, at once, to see the vast amount of good the payment of even a small bill will accomplish in the community.—Baltimore Patriot.
