PERIODICALS.

UNITED STATES REVIEW & STATE RIGHTS REGISTER.

IN CONNECTION with the usual matter, political and literary, contained in the UNITED STATES REVIEW, we intend to republish all the state papers extant on the question of state rights as announced in the Virginia Resolutions of '98 and '99. The publication will embrace also the works of standard writers, such as John Taylor of Caroline, whose works are now nearly out of print. These valuable political data will be carefully collected, and when completed, will furnish a complete constitutional history of our Federal Union. The subscription list of the "State Rights Register" (the prospectus of which was issued under the approbation of the Democratic members and senators in congress) will be furnished regularly with the Review from this date, and we hope each subscriber will feel that he is performing a duty to a great and sacred political principle by extending the list of names already on our books.

It is time for us to go back to those pure principles upon which the great fabric of democracy rests; principles originated and defined by those who created, and best understood the true meaning of the constitution. It is time that the friends of state sovereignty should rally around some common nucleus, to resist the wild latitudinarianism of the age, and evident tendency of the republic towards concentration — to end at best in a mixed monarchy. It is time for each states-rights man to feel that he must give his own personal individual influence to the defense of the very corner-stone of our constitutional government.

We send the Review to the subscribers of the State-Rights Register, and feel confident that they will respond heartily to the call. The true Democracy have a great battle to fight, a great principle of self-government to uphold, an inspired Constitution to defend. May each one of us feel that it is an individual duty. LLOYD & CAMPBELL, Publishers. WASHINGTON, April, 1855. UNITED STATES REVIEW OFFICE. N. B.—Until further notice, please address the Publishers at 252 Broadway New York. NOTICE.

THE UNITED STATES REVIEW is a firmly established monthly now just completing its fourth volume, and devoted to the defense and promulgation of the principles of Jefferson and Calhoun. Each number contains ninety-six pages of original matter, and is embellished with a portrait; that of Hon. Jeff. Davis, a highly wrought steel engraving will we found in the present (May) edition. The mechanical execution of the Review will compare favorably with any work of the kind extant. Terms; Single copies, $3 if paid strictly in advance; clubs of five, $13 in advance. Specimen numbers will be sent to those who desire them. Friends of the Review and of the Register are respectfully requested to act as local agents. may 19—3m
