

ADVERTISING TERMS. Legal and transient. One square, one week, one insertion, 10 cents

CURRENT NEWS.

WASHINGTON. Secretary Sherman says he has not decided to announce the resumption of specie payments in advance.

WEST AND SOUTHWEST. The steamer Capitol City, of the Anchor Line, was burned while lying at the wharf in Memphis.

DEADLY COACH. The dead coach was again stopped by two highwaymen on the night of the 1st, about six miles south of Deadwood.

MISS PINCKNEY. Miss Pinckney, now a resident of Canton, Miss., married to a colored man named Wayne Fritchard.

GENERAL. It is stated that the racing mare, Mollie McCarthy, has been sold to Budd Doble.

FOREIGN. The Pan-Anglican Synod of the Protestant Episcopal Church assembled at Lambeth Palace, London, on the 2d.

ADVANCE FROM THE CITY OF MEXICO. The 20th, state that Gen. Jose Maria Mata has been appointed Minister of Foreign Relations.

DECEASED IN RUSSIAN CITIES. The 20th, state that Gen. Gortschakoff depends upon the Count's ability to inaugurate a policy aiming at the English alliance.

THE ARKANSAS DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION. The Arkansas Democratic State Convention, which met at Little Rock on the 5th.

THE REPORTED DEATH OF THE SULTAN OF MOROCCO. The reported death of the Sultan of Morocco is officially denied.

THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT. The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT. The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT. The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

Near Bucyrus, O., on the 8th, John Kartner fell in front of a reaper in a field and was horribly mutilated.

Major W. W. Williams, editor of the Logansport (Ind.) Herald, placed himself in front of the night express train near Bellefontaine, on the morning of the 8th.

George Bullitt, a negro, was lynched at Vine Grove, Hardin County, Ky., on the 7th. He was charged with having assaulted a white woman.

At Ross's Grove, southwest of Pittsburg, Pa., on the 4th, a terrific storm occurred during a picnic.

James Gilmore, an employee of the United Express Company at Cincinnati, on the 4th abandoned with some $15,000 in money packages.

It is stated that the racing mare, Mollie McCarthy, has been sold to Budd Doble.

The Columbia College crew of New York were victorious in the Henley (England) regatta.

Mr. Wilbur F. Storey, of the Chicago Times, is under the care of Dr. Brown-Sequard in Paris, being treated for paralysis.

Advices from the City of Mexico, of the 20th, state that Gen. Jose Maria Mata has been appointed Minister of Foreign Relations.

It is declared in Russian cities that the Prince Gortschakoff depends upon the Count's ability to inaugurate a policy aiming at the English alliance.

The Arkansas Democratic State Convention, which met at Little Rock on the 5th.

The reported death of the Sultan of Morocco is officially denied.

The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

The election of the President of the United States is discussed in detail.

some I discovered among them a few days ago which I think should have been filed in the Secretary of State's office.

D. J. Wedge, Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee of East Feliciana Parish, La., testified on the 5th as to the Republic.

Not quite a year ago the readers of the Democrat will remember a description was given of the famous Stuttgart mammoth.

The bones from which the original restoration by Martins was made are in the possession of the Royal Museum at Stuttgart (Wurtemberg).

—A friend of William Cullen Bryant's recently reminded me of the idea of immortality expressed in his "Flood of Tears."

—It has cost England $7,500,000 to maintain the Queen's children since they came of age.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Personal and Literary. —Miss Julia, a sister of Robert Buchanan, is the author of the novels, "The Queen of Connaught" and "The Dark Colleen."

—Jules Verne is yachting off Portugal and in the Mediterranean, in search, doubtless, of suggestions for new romances.

—Prince Leopold, Queen Victoria's youngest son, has written a book on the polarization of light, which will be published some time the present year.

—The passage in Prof. Longfellow's poem of "Kermas" alluding to Japan is a practical lesson to the cultivators of that empire, and a copy of it presented to the poet.

—There are in the United States 23,908 Baptist churches, but only 14,596 ministers of that persuasion.

—A friend of William Cullen Bryant's recently reminded me of the idea of immortality expressed in his "Flood of Tears."

—It has cost England $7,500,000 to maintain the Queen's children since they came of age.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

—The death of Marshal Baraguey d'Hilliers reduces the number of Marshals of France to three—MacMahon, Canrobert and Leboeuf.

—The Queen of Denmark has received from the Empress of Russia the decoration of the Red Cross.

FASHION NOTES.

Celluloid coral bangles are among the latest novelties.

Englishmen are imitating the Russian fashion of wearing bracelets.

Large gilt and silver balls are used as ornaments on chip hats.

Floral garnitures for bridal toilets are composed of white lily-of-the-valley and orange blossoms and myrtle leaves.

The favorite colors for lawn and organza costumes are mastic gray, flesh pink, pale sky blue, and violet purple.

Celluloid cuffs and collars can be cleaned with a solution of soda water when soiled, and need no starching or ironing.

Swinging side pockets of velvet with silver clasps are suspended by silver chains to the waistcoat of cutaway jacket costumes.

Old polonaises are made over by economical ladies by cutting off the bottom and adding a l'aveuse (turned up) overskirt of new material.

Percale and lawn in delicate solid colors are bordering for the bonnets in floral designs or with set Greek or arabesque figures.

Dust cloaks of mohair, alpaca and de-wege are made weather-proof by a new process which coats the threads of the fabric with celluloid.

Robe-bonnet, a new fashion made in the form of a small bonnet of different kinds of flowers are made to give the finishing touch to every elegant toilet this season.

The most substantial and elegant lace for the bonnet is made in the form of a small bonnet of different kinds of flowers are made to give the finishing touch to every elegant toilet this season.

Small bouquets of different kinds of flowers are made to give the finishing touch to every elegant toilet this season.

They are fastened on the left side of the bodice with a porte-bonnet.

SWINDLING FARMERS.

Lighting-Rod and Hay-Fork Operators. (Special Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.)

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 3.—Much as the farmers of this State love the warning given, of the swindling practices of lightning-rod agents and vendors of patent rights, they still ply their vocation and rope in victims.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

Another gang are going about the State selling a patent hay-fork. They propose to some prominent farmer to take the agency for the State.

One Meal a Day.

At a late meeting of the Baltimore Academy of Medicine, Dr. Cordell Thayer briefly reported the cure of a gentleman of that city—understood to be Mr. H. G. Gregg.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.

At the age of 25 he lost his appetite for food; since that time he has never been able to eat a meal.