In our last week's issue we neglected to mention another important item. Monday, the 4th inst., one of the pipes of S. O'Bryan's distillery, at Shannondale, blew out and scalded Al. UNCLE JOHNIE BREWER was down attending Probate court last week, looking hale and hearty for one of his years. He tells us the holiness people have been refused the use of the McCurry school house, and that there is a movement on foot to stop the holding of all sorts of protracted meetings there.

A performance of more even excellence than that given at the Windsor Theatre last night by I. W. Baird's Mammoth Minstrels was seldom or never seen here, and it was applauded from beginning to end by one of the most satisfied audiences of the season. This company will safely endure comparison with any of their much vaunted rivals.—Boston Daily Globe.

Mr. LOS WRIGHT and Miss Jennie Shively, of Missouri township, jointly concluded that it was not good for man to be alone—nor woman, either—so they were married on last Thursday night, February 14, 1884, "Squire Cazell officiating. We extend our best wishes, and trust that neither may ever regret the plighting of the vows which made them "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one."

A LETTER from a near relative in Texas, dated the 13th inst., says: February sat in very warm and pleasant, but has changed very much since. On the 5th it began to rain, and has rained more or less every day since. Last night it rained as hard as it ever does, sleeted and snowed, turned very cold, and at 2 p.m. to-day is still very cold.

ON last Friday afternoon we had the pleasure of being present to hear the "High School Gazette" read—a spicy sheet edited by the young ladies of Prof. Newton's department of our school. The editresses for that afternoon were Misses Bessie Smith, Katie Veatch and Jennie Cook. We were very much pleased with the Gazette; it was quite interesting throughout, and reflected great credit upon its compilers.

The following ladies made us glad during the past week by their merry laughter and winsome smiles. We are always glad to have our lady friends visit us. Mrs. Richard Cook, Mrs. R. B. Lowry, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Cook and the Misses Rebecca Robertson, Winnie Moore, Dorothy Phillips, Ann Fuqua, Lucie White, Adelaide Hardcastle and Ella Wheeler.

WE have been notified by Mr. Gould, the gentlemanly postmaster at Cunningham, that T. E. Rose has gone to Muskogee, and does not take his paper out of the office. Well, we suppose this means the aforesaid Rose does not intend paying us for nearly two years subscription due, and which he promised to pay at an early day more than once. Let members of the press and others note our misfortunes chargeable to this shunk, and govern themselves accordingly.

ON last Monday two blind men, Profs. Blumenn and Akes, assisted by Billy Wilson and Frank Burke, gave a free concert at the opera-house. It was by no means the worst show that ever struck Keytesville. Many of the features were very amusing, and created a great deal of laughter. At the close of the entertainment a present was given to the most popular young lady. Miss Carrie Willett carried off the honors. A very handsome cake knife was presented to J. E. Zilhart for being the laziest man. Zil says "truth is stranger than fiction."

The Old English Gardner will be in Brunswick every Saturday and Monday throughout March and April with vegetable and garden seeds—all of the most improved varieties. I will have fine drumhead cabbage seeds at Charley Schell's restaurant. For sale. Remember, you will get more good seeds and of the first quality for 50 cents than you can get for $2 of any salesman in America. OLD ENGLISH GARDNER.

WHAT the Courier Would Like to Know. If Rush has got the smiles? How Jim likes to play "sitout"? Who Cousin Sam walks like now? If the young lady with the red hat and — has got up a case? Who the young lady was that lost her teeth in a cup of coffee? When will Cousin Sam enter society again?

What section of the country Carrie thinks his heart will find peace? If Zilhart really is the laziest man in this burg?

Who the young lady was that fell into the gutter last Monday night? If Pete has looked up the definition of fascinating?

If Cousin Sam is grateful to Caskie for his sympathy? Why the young man don't call for his overshoe?

If the Senator's brunetto hasn't got away with the blonde? If any one thinks the dance was given in her honor?

If Dr. Holland isn't glad that he escaped with a whole hair? When Zilhart is going out West to open a gold mine?

If L — has learned in what country Ontario is? If B — can tell what a parallelogram is?

Who the young lady is that is going to take George Dewey to the next free show?

If a certain young lady found a ring to suit her last Monday afternoon?

How much "dust" you squandered on your best girl last Monday night?

Why raw turnips don't agree with C. B. C.? And if he will ever tackle another one?

If some of the crazy quills ain't the prettiest piece of crazy work that crazy fingers or crazy brain ever originated?

If the society editor's chromo doesn't take the cookery and the cook, too? And if he is not very grateful for the young lady's kind remembrance?

I HAVE the best and largest line of DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS AND CAPS, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Etc., Etc.,

H. H. Kellogg. Secure your seats in advance for the great Minstrel Festival at the Opera House next Thursday evening, or you may have to buy a ladder to peep in at the windows.

HARMONY HALL was crowded to overflowing on Saturday night, and the good-natured President and Doorkeeper had their hands full to keep order. Caskie came up smiling with the minutes all O. K., and says they will be all right as long as Fred stays away. The names sent in for new membership were not accompanied by the necessary bank check, and were returned. The hickory nut box being low, it was decided not to fill it up till next fall. Dr. H. was granted permission to get m —, you can't guess what? George offered the following, which was unanimously adopted: "That Cousin Sam be tried for doing a thing he had no right to do, anyhow, nowhere, because he was setting a bad example." Sam demanded a trial by a jury of three of his superiors, which he got too quick for him to digest. He was found guilty of trying—oh, well, he will be punished on the 30th of February. Zil was granted permission to read his patent back-action, twice-thought of, six-for-a-nickle lecture on "What I Know About Leap Year." Eli apologized for wanting to withdraw from the club at the last meeting, and says that as the girl backed out, he is still going to remain a bachelor for some time yet, at least. After a drink—of water, of course—and singing the doxology, the members dispersed to their cold and quiet beds.

The Silver and Gold Band attached to I. W. Baird's Mammoth Minstrels, will give a parade concert at noon next Thursday, and will render a number of choice selections in front of the Opera House at 7 o'clock in the evening, at which time will be heard Cline and Lovick, gold cornet duettists; J. J. Spencer, baritone soloist; Geo. Phillips, trombone soloist; and Chas. D. Sullivan, tuba soloist.

In 1859 a brother Mason, named J. W. Hagerty, applied to Warren Lodge, No. 174, A. F. A. M., at Keytesville, for relief. He was supplied with the amount required. At the last communication of the lodge the secretary read a letter from Holiday, West Virginia, dated February 9, 1884, from Mr. Hagerty, containing the amount which he had re-

You will need wire fastenings on your vest buttons when you sit in the Opera House next Thursday evening and witness Charlie Gbodyear, Tom Warfield, Billy Burke, and the other great comedians with I. W. Baird's Famous Minstrels, as "The Jolly Cull'd Dudes and Dudeens from Dudeville."

The Dalton riot, mentioned in last week's Courier, among the colored people, proved not to be as big a thing as at first reported. Some ten or twelve of them were tried by jury in "Squire Mann's" court last Friday, charged with riotous conduct the preceding Saturday night. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Beverly Price and Tom Agee were tried on account of the trouble created on Monday of last week, when Abe Bayne was rescued from the custody of the Marshal, by "Squire Mann" on Saturday, when Beverly Price pleaded guilty, and was fined $25 and costs under the charge of carrying concealed weapons—the costs and fine amounting to $48 50; while Tom Agee made the same plea, charged with a breach of the peace, and was fined $5 and costs, aggregating $15 25. Had these cases been tried, probably some undeveloped features would have been shown up in the testimony. We can not say as to that. Enough, however, has transpired to teach the colored people of Dalton a valuable lesson, which we hope will be of some advantage to them. A disorderly saloon in their midst, tempting to dissipation and riot, does not excuse them when they violate the law. As citizens, they are as much interested in good order as any other citizens, and they should exert whatever influence they may have in behalf of law and order. This they owe to themselves, the community in which they live and their families.

We this week announce the name of Robt. P. Clarkson, Esq., as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Chariton county, subject to the nomination of the Democratic party, either by convention or primary. Mr. Clarkson is well and favorably known throughout the county, his home having been in Chariton since 1854. During this long period he has filled many local positions, such as school director, tax collector of four townships, justice of the peace, and is at present chairman of the township board of directors. Some of these positions he has held continuously, by re-election, through several terms. He also served acceptably as a member of the Democratic county central committee. None of these have been places of profit, but it is no flattery to say that Mr. Clarkson has, in each of them, discharged his duties with credit to himself and satisfaction to the people. While "Bob" is a sterling Democrat, he is not controlled by prejudices or dead issues, as was shown by his active support of a Democratic federal soldier for congress at the last election. Being a man of strict integrity, and well qualified, and having been a zealous worker for his party and friends from the time he cast his first vote, they could now well afford to consider his claims and support him. 1*

ELI M. WHEELER has bought the interest of E. Finnell in the grocery business of Wheeler & Finnell and will continue to conduct the business at the old stand with only Eli and himself for a partner. We feel sure he will "get there" too, for he is a staunch and reliable gentleman, and justly deserves the trade he commands. He believes in the efficacy of printer's ink and gives us an "ad." for this week's Courier, which you will do well to read, and act accordingly. Mr. Finnell is now open for business propositions.

"My hair was almost entirely gray, but a dollar bottle of the Balsam has restored the softness, and the brown color it had when I was young—not a single gray hair left. Since I began applying the Balsam my hair has stopped falling out, and I find that it is a perfectly harmless and agreeable dressing." 7y
