Where it Touches the Shores and the Great Columns in Midstream. "What a beautiful bridge between old age and childhood is religion. How intuitively the child begins with prayer and worship on entering life, and how intuitively, on quitting life, the old man turns back to prayer and worship, putting himself again side by side with the infant." remarks Sir E. Bulwer Lytton in his "Jungle Story."

Yes, but between its distant abutments the bridge of life has many high and awful arches, through which the wild waters dash and roar in rath and desolation. Prayer and worship alone do not sustain these. Nature's solid rocks must be unshaken by soul, and human art and skill must erect and solidify the structure overhead. God's will is best exemplified in the laws He has made for the creatures whom He has placed under their control. Neither the child's trustful "Our Father," nor the old man's "Forget me not in the midst of mine infirmities," will alter this by the weight of a single grain.

Science and art first, then faith and prayer, is the order of heaven itself. Divinity beals through its agents, and those agents are the discoveries of man; not the vague announcements of prophets or seers. Is life a burden to you? Does time drag? Is your power to cope with life's problems and duties weakened? You are untaught, perhaps; or some important organ is tepid or overworked. This fact may have taken the form of dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout, malaric pains in the stomach, chronic headache, or any of a dozen other ills. PARKER'S TONIC will invigorate you, as fresh air invigorates those who have been shut up in damp, fetid cells. It is powerful, pure, delicious, scientific, safe—the best tonic of the central arch of the bridge of life.

"Where, oh! where are the Hebrew children?" Gone to Charlio Schell's to lay in a Christmas supply of candies, nuts, cakes, etc., which he is selling so cheap for cash.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Rheumatism

Though painful and wearing almost beyond endurance, it is an incurable disease if treated in time. Perhaps no other disease has so baffled the efforts of science and medicine as this, but at least a remedy has been discovered in SONGOLLE which CURES RHEUMATISM, and is highly esteemed by many of the Leading Physicians. WHAT THEY SAY. "SONGOLLE is doing all that is claimed in it." G. G. BERRY, M. D., Coonrad, Ill. "I have given SONGOLLE a fair trial, and think it the best remedy I have ever used for Rheumatism." R. P. DAVIS, Kingston, Mo. "I had a case of Inflammatory Rheumatism of nearly all the large joints. One physician said 'do not try any more, it is not to be done.' In my opinion SONGOLLE cures all other so-called rheumatic remedies." R. C. WHEELER, M. D., Marquette, Ill. "Have given SONGOLLE a fair trial, and think it the best remedy I have ever used for Rheumatism." R. P. DAVIS, Kingston, Mo. PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS. A. A.
