

CHARITON COURIER,

A. C. VANDIVER & SON, Proprietors

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Grass growing nicely.

Go to Myers' for groceries.

Maple syrup at Williams Bros.

Gardening will soon be in order.

Save money by buying groceries of Ford.

Lion coffee at Williams Bros. It is the best.

Mrs. B. Lowry for spring millinery goods.

Our merchants had a rousing trade last Saturday.

Go to J. C. Rucker & Co. for coffins and burial cases.

See those handsome pattern hats at Mrs. B. Lowry's.

Cash paid for all kinds of country produce at Winfree's.

Go to J. C. Rucker & Co. for bed rock prices on furniture.

Save money by buying your groceries of Williams Bros.

Photographs $2 per dozen at Cavins' gallery, Keytesville, Mo.

A full line of corsets and ladies' underwear at Mrs. M. E. Miller's.

Country produce of all kinds taken in exchange for groceries at Myers'.

Furniture of the best quality and lowest prices at J. C. Rucker & Co's.

A lovely line of trimmings, ribbons, etc., at Mrs. M. E. Miller's.

Go to Gilliam's cash grocery store for first-class fresh groceries, at bed rock prices.

J. C. Rucker & Co. have for sale the best high arm sewing machine in the market.

The COURIER gets to the front this week with twenty-seven columns of reading matter.

The Building & Loan association at the Opera House next Monday night, April 16.

Myers motto is "Small Profits and Quick Sales." When you want groceries call on him.

Miss Clara McIlroy, a fascinating damsel of Carrollton, is the guest of Miss Flora Stuart.

Go to J. C. Rucker & Co. for sewing machine needles, or any kind of machine repairs.

Enlarging and photo copying a specialty, and at greatly reduced prices, at Cavins', Keytesville, Mo.

My terms are cash, please don't ask for credit.

Mrs. M. E. MILLER.

Miss Cattie Tippett is in Carrollton, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Snavely, ex Cook, of this city.

W. H. Patterson, of Chariton township, made us a most agreeable and substantial call Tuesday.

Williams Bros. keep constantly on hand a splendid line of family groceries, and will not be undersold.

No one is left to doubt now but that Marceline will make a good town—she has organized a brass band.

Mrs. B. Lowry is receiving an elegant line of new spring millinery this week. Call and see her new goods.

A searcher after truth wants to know "why it is, with so many negroes dying, nobody ever sees a black ghost?"

Ribbons of the most fashionable shades, tips, plumes and all kinds of trimmings, hats, etc., at Mrs. B. Lowry's millinery bazaar.

The fast mail trains are generally popular, but the female trains are usually so slow and far behind that they are very unpopular.

Mrs. Supreme Judge Brace, of Paris, Mo., is visiting her daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. W. F. and Frances Marie Summerkamp.

Labor made light and life prolonged; by using the Wheeler & Wilson new No. 9 sewing machine. Call at J. C. Rucker & Co's. and see it.

The fact that the two-headed girl gets $75 a week from dime museums triumphantly establishes the truth of the old adage that two heads are better than one.

Magistrate, to witness: "Do you know the nature of an oath." Uncle Rastus: "I reckon I do, ma'am, 'n' I honor. I've owned a balky mule for fourteen year."

At the restaurant. Haughty stranger: "Your thumb is in my soup, waiter!" Waiter: "Well, it don't take up much room. If you kick, though, I'll fill the bowl up."

BOUN:—To Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Summerkamp Sunday, April 8, at 5 o'clock, p. m., a daughter. The little waif is just the picture of her pa. Mother and babe doing well.

Geo. E. Wheeler went to St. Louis Tuesday night.

St. Joseph, Mo., was visited by a $30,000 fire Sunday.

The primary election is only one week from Saturday.

For president, Grover Cleveland. For groceries, B. F. Ford.

Work is progressing nicely on Senator Mackay's residence.

As natural as life—Those photos made at Cavins' gallery, Keytesville, Mo.

The attendance upon circuit court has been unusually large for the past ten days.

Fishing time has come and the small boy, as well as a great many older ones, is happy.

"Buster" Woodson, of Salisbury, is making hogheads at John C. Miller's tobacco factory.

A thing of beauty and a joy forever—that new No. 9 high arm sewing machine at J. C. Rucker & Co's.

J. H. Cox, a discharged employe, beat a lunatic nearly to death Sunday at the Arkansas State Insane asylum.

Miss Fannie Mullins, a charming little miss of Linneus, is the guest of the family of her uncle, Judge O. F. Smith.

Supreme Judge Theo. Brace is expected to arrive to-day "to take a peep" at his first grand-child, Frances Marie Summerkamp.

Rev. G. W. Hyde, of Lexington, preached two able sermons at the Baptist church, in this city, last Sunday, morning and evening.

MARRIED:—At the court-house Wednesday April 4, 1888, A. T. Chapman and Miss Flora E. Cagle, Rev. H. G. McEuen officiating.

W. P. Jared, two miles northwest of town, will move with his family to Marceline to day. He has just completed a neat residence at that place.

Applegate & Martin, J. D. Butler and Geo. R. Stuart, all got to the front with a new ad. this week. Read them. These gentlemen are all "rustlers."

Rock is being hauled for the foundation for our new school-house, and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible in excavating the foundation, drains, etc.

Speak a good word for your town and stop your growling. If Keytesville don't suit you, move out. A vacant house for a time is preferable to a "sore-headed" citizen forever.

A certain young lady is anxious to learn the name of the fellow she accidentally knocked off the sidewalk Sunday night. The young man will report as soon as he is able to leave the hospital.

We regret to learn that Judge John W. Price, of Dalton neighborhood, has been quite ill for a week past of bronchitis. His recovery was despaired of at one time, but he was thought to be some better Tuesday.

John Rick, a nephew of F. Hansman, of this city, came up from St. Louis the first of the week, where he has been engaged in the butchering business for several years. John will soon open a meat market on his own hook at Marceline. Success to you, Johann.

Our portly old Virginia friend, S. W. Clark, is not very swift, but so many of his friends declare that so far as his Salisbury lady love is concerned, he is away ahead of "Hurry" in fact, there now seems to be no "Hurry" in the contest for the lady's favor.

Our fellow-townsmen, D. B. Kellogg, has ordered his machinery for his sorghum manufactory, and has employed a Mr. Bozarth, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, who has had thirty years experience in the sorghum business, to put up his machinery and operate the factory for him.

A full line of ladies', misses' and children's fine shoes, the nicest fitting lasts, and the best quality of goods. Anything you want at M. W. Anderson & Co.

Talmage, the young railroad conductor who killed Operator Tidd, some weeks since, was indicted by the grand jury at this term of circuit court for murder in the first degree and the cause continued until next court. His bail was fixed by the judge at $10,000, which was promptly given.

Geo. E. Butler, a former Forks of Chariton boy, now engaged as clerk in a large mercantile establishment at McAllister, I. T., recently came up to visit his father, Erastus Butler, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, but is now, we are glad to learn, able to sit up. Geo. will return to Indian Territory the latter part of this week.

W. E. Rhodes, son of the late Sam'l Rhodes, of Clark township, returned to his home in Michigan the latter part of last week. He has been in this county some time assisting his mother in settling up his father's estate. We found him quite a pleasant gentleman in our business transactions with him.

If you are interested in the welfare of Keytesville, come out to the Building & Loan association meeting next Monday night.

Miss Bettie Oldham, of Brunswick, is teaching the spring and summer school at Allen school-house, five miles northwest of town.

Good temper, like a sunny day, sheds a brightness over everything. It is the sweetener of toil and the sower of disquietude.

BORN.—To Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Rohn on Saturday, March 31, a fine boy, and the ring of Frank's anvil is unusually cheerful.

A magnetic young woman in Tennessee can make a six chop the wood without touching it. She has had 92 offers of marriage already.

He is a model husband who will pretend to praise his wife's ability as a cook and then use her doughnuts as sinkers for his fishing lines.

Some one has discovered that the reason so few ladies have their lives insured, is that before they can take out a policy it is necessary to tell their age.

Mrs. Carter, an excellent old lady living three miles northeast of town, mother of County Surveyor Carter, died of pneumonia yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

S. W. Clarke fell asleep in the circuit court room yesterday and snored so loud that he was fined $5 for contempt of court. The fine will probably be remitted.

Mrs. H. T. McCune, of St. Louis, after a visit of several days to her sister, Mrs. J. P. Williams, left Monday for Brunswick to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. T. E. Gilliam.

The trouble with the average wife is that her husband is more prodigal than he is with his money, and that he does not waste much of either unless he wants a bottom sewed on.

Our young friend, P. B. Parks, now goes by the name of "Dead Hoss" Parks. He acquired the cognomen by calling his unsuccessful rival a dead horse. The scenes have shifted and Pete is now "the horse" in the contest.

I will make a present of a $15 bromide enlargement to the person coming the nearest guessing the No. of beans in a jar on exhibition at the gallery. Every 50c worth of work is entitled to one guess. The prize will be awarded May 1, 1888. Everybody come and make a guess.

Jacob Hauswort, a farm hand who works for A. G. Friesz, one mile west of town, came in contact with a rock last Saturday night, supposed to have been thrown by a "coon." Hauswort was on his way home in company with two neighbor boys when the rock was thrown, striking him on the head and cutting two ugly and painful gashes.

The Great Keytesville Fair and Horse Show will commence Tuesday, October 2, and continue five days. The Keytesville fair has been a source of pleasures innumerable to the people of Chariton county for the past twenty-one years, and no pains will be spared on the part of management to make the coming exposition equally as attractive and enjoyable.

E. Fennell has recently made sale of his nice residence in this city to H. H. Miller. "Dred" has not yet determined where his future home will be. We wish him and his clever family success wherever their lots may be cast. We congratulate our young friend, Herbert, and his fair bride in the purchase of such a nice home, with such pleasant surroundings.

Judge Strother, of Marshall, candidate for judge of the appellate court at Kansas City, made our city a visit Thursday last week. The judge made a fine impression upon our citizens, many of whom met him for the first time. We hope the western district will be so fortunate as to get Judge Strother and two other just as worthy and well qualified as he to sit upon the appellate court bench; if so, that court will make a record for ability second to none in the state.

S. E. Hoag, of Brunswick, acting agent for the Order of Railway Telegraphy, has purchased a cosy little home in Salisbury for the widow of C. P. Tidd, the telegraph operator who was killed at Brunswick by Freight Conductor Jas. C. Talmage. The fund has already reached some $1,200 and Mr. Hoag seems to think that as much as $800 more will be contributed, making a total benefit of $2,000 through the O. R. T., of which the late C. P. Tidd was a member.

We had a pleasant call Saturday from Charley Turner, of the Brunswick neighborhood, who has a rare collection of foreign and domestic coins, some of which he had with him and showed us. He commenced gathering these specimens twenty years ago. Some of them were procured at the city of New York, others in Washington City, Virginia and various places while traveling in the East. Mr. Turner has been offered large prices for many of his specimens, but has never parted with any of them.

Judge Ellison, of the Kansas City court of appeals, came to Keytesville yesterday and remained over night. He is a candidate for re-election and is seeing after his interests among the Chariton county Democrats.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

We hear that a certain Republican, who is betting on one of the candidates for sheriff, will vote the Democratic ticket at the coming primary election. If he is a man of honor another vote may be counted for Cleveland next November.

A full line of ladies', misses' and children's fine shoes, the nicest fitting lasts, and the best quality of goods. Anything you want at M. W. Anderson & Co.

A couple of boys stole a pint of whiskey from an old toper the other day, who "raised Cain" when he found his "bug juice" was gone. The father of one of the youths made good the loss by giving the worshiper of Bacchus 50c. The boys say they only stole the flask to get to sell the bottle, while others say that the "kids" drank the whiskey. In either case a brilliant future is perhaps before them, as they are commencing to tread the pathway of crookedness early in life.

Among the distinguished visitors at the circuit court this week is Gov. Moses Roush, of Swan Lake. Mr. Roush is an old-timer from the northwestern part of the county. He lived in the neighborhood of Swan Lake as far back as 1850, when there was no other family in that locality except that of Thomas Stanley. Since the building of the railroad and the towns of Cunningham and Sumner, Gov. Roush has taken up his abode in Sumner. He acquired his title because of the vast territory of which he and one other family were the sole occupants for so long. Mr. Stanley, his only neighbor, had no aspirations in any official capacity, while Mr. Roush had, hence the title of governor.

While the family were at a neighbor's M. L. Fennell's house, seven miles southeast of town, with all its contents was burned to the ground on Thursday night of last week. The fire is supposed to have originated from some ashes in a shed room adjoining the house. The loss is about $1,000, with no insurance, aside from being without a home of their own during a very busy season of the year, making the privation still greater. It is a source of much comfort to Mr. and Mrs. Fennell, however, to know that in their sad misfortune they are not without friends, who are subscribing liberally toward their pecuniary assistance. About $100 were raised for them in Keytesville Saturday.

About three weeks ago John M. Anderson, a Westville merchant, mounted his horse and left. He has not yet returned, and nothing is known by any of his friends of his whereabouts. Mr. Anderson was involved in debt some with a few wholesale houses, but it is thought that the amount of his indebtedness was not sufficient to justify his absconding. Should he not return, probably the heaviest loser will be the Bank of Keytesville, to which Mr. Anderson is indebted about $600, all of which is secured, however, except $150. He carried his accounts, amounting to about $5,000, with him. John Anderson, so far we know, has always been honorable in his business transactions, and his sudden departure from his characteristic honesty is a surprise to all who know him.

The term of our circuit court just closed has been well attended from the beginning by attorneys, litigants and witnesses. While it was a very busy term, many of the most important cases were continued; the Moxley, Banning, and Bailey cases, each of which has been in court for some time, were continued. The James Fuller cases it is to be hoped are finally disposed of. For the one in which he was charged with an attempt to kill in resisting an officer, he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to four and one-half years in the penitentiary. At the October term, 1886, he was tried for the same offense, found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. His lawyers asked for a new trial on several grounds, and got it, but their client found worst next time. They asked for a new trial again after the last verdict was rendered, but were refused. The other cases against Fuller have been dismissed.

SOME DOCTORS honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can—but don't. At- lholphors says nothing—but cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 5, 1887. In my own family At- lholphors was used as a last resort, the case having suffered from rheumatism for years. It was cured by the use of At- lholphors. I have since used it on several other persons, and in every case it has cured them without even temporary relief. Upon my next visit I will send you the same bottle, and you may see the name of the family physician on the wrapper. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, Mrs. Lottie Ostrum.

At- lholphors has cured my Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I feel thankful for all the good it has done me. Mrs. Lottie Ostrum.

Send 6 cents for the beautiful colored picture of At- lholphors. The AT- lholphors Co., 112 Wall St., N. Y.

When the Band Begins to Play!

EVERYBODY IS ON THE ALERT TO SEE THE—WORLD'S GREAT SHOW!

With its multitude of loaded trucks, drays and wagons, parade the streets, which leads us to say that every man, woman and child in this town and for a radius of fifty miles is on the very tips of excitement concerning the vast and well selected stock of general merchandise displayed and offered for sale at

Absolutely - Phenomenal

Low prices by the subjoined proprietors. When Mother Nature presented to the world her extraordinary freaks, the

WILD AUSTRALIAN CHILDREN,

All mankind was astonished; and all mankind is equally astonished at our inexhaustible assortment of

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS, CAPS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, CARPETS AND WALL PAPER,

And, in short, everything that man or beast can eat, drink or wear.

BABY ELEPHANTS

Are subjects of universal wonder, and interest not only the scientist and zoographer, but the entire communities to whom they are exhibited. But they are not half so wonderful as the ASTONISHINGLY LOW PRICES at which we are offering all classes of goods. There is absolutely Nothing Like It Under the Sun.

Our goods are all purchased from first hands at rock bottom prices, and everybody that desires to buy can secure from us Sweeping Bargains. Not even

Also remember to each and every person purchasing one dollar's worth of goods and upwards we will present with a large-size scrap book or autograph album, handsomely bound in Turkish Morocco. Don't fail to take either one of these $2.00 Handicrafts, which will be shipped to wherever you may be, unless you call to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of Dry Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes and Carpets.

Therefore on and after May 1 our Mr. Abe Strouse will remain in the New York market six months in the year, and with loads of ready cash will keep an ever watchful eye for every bargain that is offered, and will purchase such wares as are offered every day, which will be shipped to wherever you may be, unless you call to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase at the remarkably low prices we sell them at. To be enabled to sell goods as above, we are positive that our buyer will have to remain in the greatest market of the world continually; so as to be constantly on the alert, with ready cash to grab every bargain that is offered in the shape of

Our business having increased to the enormous sum of Two Hundred Dollars yearly, we felt confident of the fact that we would be unable to hold our present trade unless we could offer those inducements great enough to induce our customers to purchase