Stole From His Father.

Fred Walker, the wayward son of Joshua Walker, of 815 Garfield avenue, Kansas City, Kas., who was arrested last Thursday by the police of that city on the charge of burglarizing his father's house, confessed the crime and waived the right of a preliminary hearing. Justice Svingley thereupon remanded him to jail to await arraignment in the district court. Young Walker maintained an air of braggadocio throughout the day, and when he waived the right of a preliminary trial he said, "I want to get done with this thing and serve my sentence. But when I get out I will make the old man (meaning his father) hard to catch." Joshua Walker, the father of the boy, says Fred has taken a great deal of property from his house and either pawned or sold it. He says he will now let the law take its course as he fears the boy at large.

An exchange says it is strange how differently animals are effected by the locomotive. Dogs will run and bark at the wheels, leaping about, but seldom get hurt. Horses race ahead of the engine on the track and will sometimes run half a mile before they can be driven off. Oxen can hardly be persuaded to get out of the way while a calf will sometimes stand on the track and stare at a locomotive in blank astonishment until taken by the ears and dragged away. Sheep are the most stupid. If one attempts to cross the track in front of the engine the engineer may make up his mind for an accident, for the balance of the drive are going to get over or die. Hogs pay very little attention to an engine. They seem to regard it as something quite out of their line and not in any way concerning them.

A MILLION FRIENDS.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at W. C. Gaston's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

To Form a New Party.

President Cleveland's veto of the Bland bill has resulted in a proposition for a national convention of the West and South to form a new political party based on the demand for the free coinage of silver. The proposition comes from certain radical Democratic congressmen, who believe that the time has arrived when the party's salvation is in the West and South demands that it should repudiate, once and forever, domination to financial politics. Western and southern Democrats who are at the head of this movement declare that the veto of the Bland bill shows that the administration has set its face toward the single gold standard.

W. I. Church, of Staunton Post, G. A. R., says: I have tried nearly every cough remedy but have found nothing to compare with Parks' Cough Syrup. There is nothing on earth like it for bronchitis. I have suffered ever since my discharge from the army and Parks' Cough Syrup is the only remedy that has ever helped me." Sold by W. C. Gaston.

Mrs. Kendall, who is so justly noted for her lovely complexion, gives the following as her complexion recipe: Ten hours' sleep every night, a pure milk-walk every day, vigorous bathing in cold water, brown bread, sweets and no coffee.

Marriage Rules.

Let her meet him with a kiss—not a club.

Let him assist her in beautifying the home. Let him fall off the borrowed step-ladder and job a tack hammer in his mouth, in attempting to hang a 4c cent chromo on a $2 nail.

Let her not relate Mrs. Next Door's gossip or ask him to white-wash the smoke house when he starts fishing.

Let each realize that they are one and that the rest of the family should not exceed ten.

Let her not worry him with petty troubles, $10 bonnets, $50 cloaks and raking off the front yard.

Let her sympathize with him in business cares, and don't say "I told you so" more than 4,000 times a week.

Let him speak to his wife—not yell "say" at her, when he is looking for a clean shirt under the kitchen stove.

Let her dress as tastefully for him as for strangers and have it charged. Let him wear a frazzled collar and a calico patch on the gable end of a pair of cassimere pants.

Let his latch key gather rust from disuse. Let her nail the keyhole in a stationary position and keep the flower stand off of the front walk.

Let her confide in him tell him how much he will have to pay for the birthday present she is going to give him.

Let him be as courteous now as before marriage, and never swear when the chair tidy gets tangled in his back hair.

Let him frequent her home and not some other woman's home—Ex.

Mark Twain's Philosophy.

Nothing so needs reforming as other people's habits.

Behold the fool saith, "put not all thine eggs in the one basket"—which is but a manner of saying, "Scatter your money and your attention," but the wise man saith, "put all your eggs in the one basket and WATCH THAT BASKET."

If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you. This is the principal difference between man and a dog.

We know all about habits of the ant, we know all about the habits of the bee, but we know nothing at all about the habits of the oyster. It seems almost certain that we have been choosing the wrong time for studying the oyster.

Even popularity can be overdone. In Rome, along at first, you are full of regrets that Michelangelo died; but by and by you only regret that you didn't see him do it.

July 4. Statistics show that we lose more fools on this day than in all other days of the year put together. This proves, by the number left in stock, that one fourth of July per year is now inadequate, the country has grown so.

What is the platform.

Centralia Courier.

The national Democratic administration is all wrong. The administration is responsible for the following things not found in the platform:

1. More bonds in time of profound peace.
2. An extra session to stop the coinage of silver.
3. A veto refusing to even coin the silver seigniorage in the treasury.
4. Olney—the attorney general who has protected every trust in the country.
5. A disgraceful Hawaiian policy.
6. A disgraceful Russian treaty.
7. A Van Alen dude and mugwump policy of appointments.
8. A Morton who has been denounced by every farmer organization in the country.
9. A patronage policy of corrupt legislation and enforcing legislation.
10. A single gold standard.

THE voracity of fish is remarkable. A huge pike recently caught in an English canal is said to have had in its stomach, a child's tin toy wagon, a tablespoon, a short Roman sword, probably lost by one Caesar's legionaries, a hammer and a baby's flannel shirt.

An old law in Paris forbids kissing in public places. A cabman who saw his wife only once a week gave her his weekly kiss in front of a restaurant one day recently. Both were arrested. The cabman was fined $5. He gallantly paid the fine, remarking that the kiss was worth it.

THE best investment

in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

"I, a man; she, a woman. Both human." This is one of Col. Breckinridge's wonderful epigrams. And yet there are people who will doubt the fact of his being strictly human.
