Our merchants have been in conference with drummers to a considerable extent this week and new goods in all the latest styles are now on hand.

These are the days when the school director's life is made weary by the persistent attentions of the pretty girl graduate, the vinegar-faced old maid, the ambitious youth and gentlemen, whose health will not permit them to engage in the active (?) duties of life.

M. L. Chevront Leonard, Mo.

In Agony

15 Years With Salt Rheum

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave a Perfect Cure.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Hood's Sarsaparilla is an excellent medicine. I had eczema in my left leg for fifteen years. Part of the time my leg was one mass of scabs, and about every week corruption would gather under the skin and the scabs would slough off.

The Itching and Burning sensation made me suffer indescribable agonies. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies but did not get relief. About a year ago, leading physicians advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and have taken five bottles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures skin diseases. Now all the sores, scabs and pain have vanished and I am enjoying perfect health. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is second to none and I can recommend it to all suffering humanity."

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels.

The new bank has opened up for business with Wm. H. Hayes as cashier. Everything has been fitted up as neat as a new pin and presents a fine appearance.

Miss Mug Brammell and Mr. Harry Morehead were married Thursday at high noon. This is a worthy couple and we extend congratulations. They have gone to Nashville, Tenn., on a bridal trip.

As our custom is we visited the coal shaft Wednesday and found everybody busy and the work moving along nicely under the supervision of W. A. Howard. The trouble from water seeping in has been removed by preparing a "sump" or basin in which to catch it, and this in turn is relieved by an automatic pump. A clear stream of water now flows from the pipe and the miners are left free to work on the shaft which is now down 125 feet, with the signs of coal becoming more pronounced all the while. The bore showed a fine vein of coal at 152 feet, and as the shaft was put on higher ground, the coal will be reached, it is thought, at about 165 to 170 feet. The gentleman in charge of the work are polite and accommodating and it is a pleasure to visit them. No one need hesitate about going for all are kindly received and made welcome. Those who are daring enough can visit the "sump," but, until the cages are in, this is rather an unpleasant job for a tenderfoot.

Echo Etchings

BY FIELDING.

Mrs. S. P. Henderson was suffering with chills and fever last week.

There will be another joint debate between Brunswick and Triplett Wednesday night, April 18th. The question will be "Resolved: That a citizen in casting his ballot in the fall of '94 is more justified in voting the People's party ticket than either the Democratic or Republican ticket." Triplett will affirm and Brunswick will deny. The debate will open promptly at 7:45 o'clock, p. m.

The Kickapoo Indian Medicine company's essay contest took place Tuesday. The contest was for a prize in the shape of a piece of head work. The subject was the "North American Indian" and the conditions of entering was that the contestant should be a girl of between the ages of 8 and 13. About fourteen contestants and many of the essays displayed much originality in both style and thought. But the awarding committee, after much deliberation, decided that the essay by Miss Lula McKenzie merited the coveted prize. At night Dr. Brown, the manager of the company, called Miss McKenzie to the stage and in very appropriate words presented her the prize.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Killing Chinch Bugs.

The death dealing discovery to chinch bugs, made by Prof. Snow, of the Kansas experimental station, is proving a success, and will no doubt ultimately rid the farmers of this terrible pest that has in the past robbed them of many dollars of their hard earnings.

The professor's scheme is to propagate a white fungus in the laboratory which spreads a deadly contagion among the bugs whenever they are exposed to it. From the middle of May to the 1st of September is the most favorable time to propagate the fungus. A few of the bugs are caught and placed in a box prepared for that purpose where they are exposed to the fungus. In a short time the bugs become diseased. They are then scattered in the fields where the healthy bugs are at work, and where they soon die by millions.

The Missouri experimental station did something on this line for the farmers last year. In every instance the most gratifying reports were made as to the efficiency of the work in destroying the bugs.

Salisbury's new Savings bank was opened for business last Monday. Capt. Wm. Herford is president. Thos. Karcher is vice-president and Wm. H. Hayes is cashier. The board of directors is composed of Capt. Herford, Thos. Karcher, Wm. H. Hayes, Chas. A. Clark and Covey and Bentley Herford. The capital stock of the new concern is $10,000. All of the gentlemen interested as officers and stockholders are men of excellent social standing and well-known financial ability. Salisbury now has three banks.

FINAL SETTLEMENT NOTICE.

Creditors and all others interested in the estate of Judith T. Deasey, deceased, are hereby notified that at the next regular term of the Chariton county probate court, to be begun and held on the second Monday in May, 1894, at the court-house, in Keytesville, in said county, I shall make final settlement of said estate.

LLOYD H. HERRING, Administrator.

FINAL SETTLEMENT NOTICE.

Creditors and all others interested in the estate of George Bolter, deceased, are hereby notified that at the next regular term of the Chariton county probate court, to be begun and held on the second Monday in May, 1894, at the court-house, in Keytesville, in said county, I shall make final settlement of said estate.

ROSA BOHLER, Executrix.

The county board of equalization completed its labors last Friday afternoon and adjourned. The total amount of increased assessments will reach about $250,000. All parties whose assessments have been raised will be notified by Const. Clerk R. D. Edwards, secretary of the board, some time during the coming week. The publication of the proceedings of the board will appear in this week's Keytesville Signal.

The Salisbury Democrat admits the Coroner's enterprise, but denies its jurisdiction over the county records. Who has ever advised such jurisdiction that it should be denied? We accused the Democrat of having appropriated, bodily, the Coroner's notice of tax collections and this it did verbatim et literatim. Come, "Jemas," acknowledge the cora like a man and you will feel better, live longer and be happier.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Craig, who have been making their home in Salisbury for several years past, where Mr. Craig has been engaged in the harness business, were presented with a handsome silver sugar bowl and spoons by several of their brethren and sisters of the C. P. church, before Mr. and Mrs. Craig's departure for Illinois where they will make their home hereafter.

A. G. Crane, of Salisbury, is nursing a broken hand. Mr. Crane lost his thumb and struck at a balky horse, but the horse dodged and the clenched fist of the angry owner of the balky equine came in contact with the shaft of the vehicle. It don't pay to get mad even at a balky horse.

Miss Eva Billingsley, who was a one time teacher in the Keytesville public schools, but has recently been teaching German in Elizabeth Aul's seminary, at Lexington, Mo., will take her departure for Europe on the 10th of this month where she will take a special course in German and art.

The Salisbury Press-Spectator says: J. M. Singleton, one of C. W. Singleton's industrious sons, who has been learning surveying for several months with County Surveyor Carter, did his first official work by himself Monday and proves himself to be quite proficient.

Dogs are reported to have killed a number of chickens a few miles south of Salisbury. Nick Wright is said to have been the heaviest loser, twenty of his best birds having been killed. We failed to learn whether the "dogs" travel on two or four legs.

"Uncle Jack" Wallbur, living three miles south of Salisbury, has seven deer of his own raising which he keeps confined in a woods pasture enclosed with a high post and wire fence.

"ACME" Pulverizing Harrow, Clod-Crusher and Leveler

Lowest priced and best riding harrow on earth. Packs close—measures 5 cubic feet knocked down—weighs 110 pounds. Adapted to all soils and all work—consequently every farmer should have and cannot afford to do without one. Sizes: 1 to 4 horses. One hundred thousand in use.

KEYTESVILLE

LIVERY STABLE.

T. P. WOOD, PROPRIETOR.

Horses, Buggies, Carriages and Saddle Horses on short notice. Horses boarded by the day or week. Fine rigs a specialty. Give me a trial. Reasonable prices.

JOHN F. HAGEN,

CITY MEAT MARKET

NORTH BRIDGE STREET,

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.

The best of meats, fresh pork, beef, veal, mutton and all kinds of sausage always on hand. Our aim is to keep the best to be had on the market. Country produce wanted. Cash paid for hides and furs. Give me a call.

What is looking much better since the rain.

The latest enterprise, at Mendon, is a garter factory.

The infant chicken is abroad in the land and the Methodist ministers have begun to smile.

Miss Carrie Felt, a pleasant young lady, of near Mendon, is a new student at the Salisbury academy.

A Salisbury man claims to be the Cobb of all Cobbs; and if he has corns he doubtless thinks they are the corns of all corns. Oh, sneaks!

Joe Metzger, Bremen on the Salisbury and Glasgow branch of the Wabash railway, has been laid up for a few days with a sprained wrist.

A lodge of the order of Knights of Macabees was instituted, at Salisbury, last Thursday night. The new lodge is composed of about 25 charter members.

Advertising always pays. If it don't pay you, it pays the printer and enables him to loon the town by buying a paper collar, a straw hat and a pair of odd socks.

Landlord Robinson, mine host of the Robinson house, at Sumner, has embarked in the "tater" business and will raise an acre of that staple product this season.

Morrison Hughes, the bright and promising young attorney, of Sumner, attended circuit court at the capital last Monday, and made the Coroner a friendly call while here.

Dr. T. J. Moore, the Salisbury dentist, will visit Keytesville soon. Look out for dates.

DR. T. J. MOORE.

In Gillespie county, Texas, there was a hail-storm on the 8th inst. that killed cattle and destroyed the prospects for fruit. It is said, hail-stones fell that were six inches in circumference.

A K. of P. lodge is to be instituted, at Gorin, Scotland county, Mo., tonight. Quite a number of Chariton K. P.'s expect to be present to assist in saddling the goat.

Stock Notice.

Kentucky Elmore and Red Chief, two fine standard bred trotting stallions, will make the season of 1894 at my farm, five miles north west of Keytesville, and will serve mares at $12 and $8, respectively, to insure a living colt.

At the same time and place Black Sampson, a fine Maltese jack, will make the season at $8 to insure a living colt.

Lien on colts in all cases to stand good for the season.

L. C. WELLS.

Dr. G. M. Dewey, of Keytesville, was among the witnesses at circuit court one day last week; and the question was asked him if he was not coroner of this county for some time. To which the doctor made the characteristic reply: "Yes, and I expect to be again soon." Dr. Dewey, as is known to the CURRIER readers, is now a candidate for that office, and hopes to "get there," as he does not regard it so dangerous to sit on a dead man as a live one; and the doctor always likes to be out of harm's way. So far he has no opposition, and so far as we know there are no prospects that he will have as he carries a rabbit foot.
