The LaTake is better than ever. The exterior of the Methodist church is being nicely painted.

A new walk has been put down in front of the Presbyterian church.

The LaTake has lots of imitations but no equals.

All wide-awake dealers handle the LaTake cigars.

Taylor and West shipped a car load of hogs to St. Louis, Monday.

An innumerable line of seasonable novelties for little girls at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Mrs. Iglehart, of Dalton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Minter, this week.

Dr. Drace, just east of town, has about as good a piece of wheat as we have seen this year.

William Hancock, who has been in Chicago for nearly two years, has returned to his Keytesville home.

Narrow ribbons in black or white and all colors for dress trimmings at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Mr. J. C. Miller left Tuesday to attend the Presbyterian general assembly, at Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Cameron, the hardware merchant of Rothville, and wife were in Keytesville on business, Wednesday.

When you want a good 5-cent cigar call for the LaTake and Monogram. For sale by all wide-awake dealers.

Mesdames Miles and Fisher, of Dalton, were in Keytesville the first of the week and were the guests of Mrs. H. C. Minter.

Herbert Gilliam, an operator on the Santa Fe R. R., at Sheffield, Mo., is at home on a visit to his parents this week.

Harry Wallace, a typo from Salisbury, is over this week to help the COURIER force in the absence of the foreman, R. F. Keeley.

J. W. Brooks, an old Chariton county boy, now of Columbia, visited old friends and relatives in and near Keytesville the latter part of last and the first of this week.

C. F. Owen is placing the material in the ground preparatory to the erection of a new cottage residence in the northwest part of town.

Mrs. G. T. Manlove, of Salt Creek township, was at the capital last Monday on probate business and while here made the COURIER a pleasant and substantial call.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the Salisbury academy from May 27th to 31st.

Mrs. Evans, an old lady living at Snapp, died last Friday, aged 84 years. She was the venerable mother of W. S. Evans, Snapp's merchant and postmaster.

C. Courtney & Son shipped two car loads of southwest cattle to St. Louis Monday afternoon. "Millard" went down with the cattle.

Our old stock of wall paper goes at cost. Come in and look at some new samples. SNEED'S DRUG & GRO. CO.

A tent of the order of the Knights of Maccabees was organized at this place last night. The new Lodge is composed of 30 charter members.

Dr. T. J. Moore, the Salisbury dentist, will visit Keytesville soon. Look out for dates.

DR. T. J. MOORE. Chariton county was about 75 strong at the state convention and knew what they were there for, as proven by the nomination of Maj. Jos. Hicks for railroad commissioner.

Ed. T. Miller, a prominent Keytesville attorney, left for New York City and other eastern points, Wednesday morning on a pleasure trip.

A large party, composed of some of some of Keytesville's most prominent families, have been the past week enjoying themselves at Brill's lake.

A. M. P. Halley, of Argonne, Kan., who recently married Miss Maudie E. Grimes, of Cunningham, is here accompanied by his bride, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Robt. Halley, and other Keytesville relatives and friends, Tuesday morning.

Delinquents Take Warning.

Our list of delinquents will appear in the next issue of the COURIER. Those who owe as much or more than $3 on subscription should see that at least a part of their subscription is paid between now and that time.

Miss Maude Smith, sister of Mrs. C. P. Vandiver, returned to Keytesville, Wednesday, after a week's visit to her home folks in Carroll county.

"Little Chap" won the Brunswick race he was matched for. The men who bet against him might have known he would do so. The name is an unlucky one to bet against.

When you want the pure article, try Kellogg's pure, hand-made sour-mash whiskey.

Three balloonists passed through Keytesville Wednesday. They proposed to make an ascension for $50, but the amount not being readily secured they continued their journey on terra firma.

Bro. Rice, our popular Methodist pastor, went to Columbia, Monday, to tie the nuptial knot between Dr. T. P. Williamson and Miss Lydia Cunningham, and returned Wednesday morning.

W. F. Seneker, esq., an estimable citizen of Triplett township, was here Wednesday on business in probate court. He made us a pleasant call and while here made himself solid with the COURIER for another year.

Harnes, the Keytesville Mercantile Co.'s tailor, tried his luck at Brill's lake, Sunday, and reports that he caught 175 "head" of fish. Sunday night he reposed his weary limbs on "nature's carpet".

Huntsville Sunday-school, with special train stopping at Clifton and Salisbury, comes to Keytesville fair grounds next Wednesday for a picnic, where they will be joined by the Keytesville Sunday-schools. Come with your baskets full.

C. B. Crawley went to Chillicothe last Monday afternoon as attorney for defendants in the case of Chas. Chesnut et al and J. E. Dempsey against P. W. Binkley. The cases were taken from this to Livingston county on a change of venue. They will not be tried, however, until to-day.

A certain widower, who lives a few miles northeast of town, was pointed out to a couple of ladies the other day as being a "good catch," when one of them said "I believe I would rather catch his son." We thought the father would suit an old maid best, but as the old saying is there is no accounting for tastes.

'Squire J. W. Cazzell, of Missouri township, was at the capital Wednesday on business in the probate court. He reports splendid prospects for corn in his part of the county, while the wheat, he says, is only fair. 'Squire gives his unqualified endorsement of the "lister" as a farming implement with which to prepare the land for corn.

We call the attention of the proper city authorities to the pond in the street between the southwest corner of the Presbyterian church and that of John Gaston. After a rain a pond of water collects there several inches in depth. The evil could be remedied by a few hours work. Let the remedy be at once applied.

Chris Noll, an ex-resident of Missouri township, and a large and successful farmer, but now of Glasgow, was in Keytesville Wednesday. We think he does not look entirely like himself since he moved out of Chariton county. Will Taylor says the change is occasioned by his great anxiety to get back.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church continues. Brother Barton preaches twice a day. The congregations are large and attentive at night but small at the afternoon service. The meeting will continue over Sunday. There have been several accessions to the church and the prospect is good for others coming into the fold before the meeting closes.
