

Eccles Echoes.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Little Hill church. Mrs. Cox is visiting her sister, Mrs. Parks, of near Fee Dee. A. C. Johnson had a horse badly cut on a wire fence the other day. Eccles is on the boom. C. A. Clarkson is erecting a blacksmith shop. Those of our citizens who were on the sick list last week have about recovered. The basket-dinner given by the Holiness people last Sunday was well attended. Marshal L. A. Embree and wife, of Keytesville, were in our midst last Sunday. Wilson Medlin and his two children of near Brunswick, are guests of W. J. Sims and family. Chas. Epperly, who has been confined to his room for the past few days, is able to be out again. Several of the youngsters, of this vicinity, have been attending the protracted meeting at Hamden.

Guthridge Mills Gossp.

Health good. The biggest thing out is the corn crop. Sterling Morgan is stepping high. It's a boy. Miss Flos Atwell, of Marcelline, is visiting in this community. John White has returned from Arkansas, after a year's absence. Threshing and hay harvest are about over in this vicinity, and fall plowing is now in order. Mr. and Mrs. Fry will start for Schuyler county next week on a three weeks' visit to friends and relatives. T. E. Rhoades has returned from Camden county, where he purchased a farm, and will move thither with his family about Sept. 1st. Our colored friends are going to have a picnic to-morrow, but no doubt many whites will attend as they usually do on such occasions. The 21-2-year-old son of George Davis departed this life Aug. 4th. His sufferings, which lasted 11 hours, were brief, and the little fellow's spirit returned to the God who gave it. Interment took place at Siloam cemetery. We tender our sympathies to the bereaved parents.

Namrash Nuggets.

B. F. Barnes made a business trip to Keytesville, Monday. While writing we hear the whistle of the steamboat passing down the river. Mrs. B. F. Barnes and Master Willie Doyle attended church, at Dalton, last Sunday and report a pleasant and agreeable time. Mrs. Felix Langer is quite sick and not expected to recover. Her relatives and friends have been summoned to her bedside. Mr. and Mrs. George Shively spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Fleming. Mr. Fleming went home with them. Mrs. John Goll returned from St. Louis Saturday, greatly improved in health. We welcome her back to her home. Miss Annie Hayward will spend several weeks with her. Miss Ada Cruse, after spending a pleasant week in Salisbury, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Widdel, returned to her home, near Namrash, last Sunday, accompanied by her friend, Miss Katie Widdel. Mr. Abbott, the phenological lecturer, while waiting to cross the river last Friday, gave Namrash a pleasant call, and while here examined some of the boys' heads. Some of the organs, as usual in boys' heads, were prominent for good, and some for bad. Let us hope for their good and for the good of the community the better portion of their natures may be cultivated and the evil suppressed or entirely eradicated.

Tripletts Times.

Salisbury Scribblings.

Miss Allie Johnson returned Sunday from an extended visit to Monroe county. Our schools will open in a few days and prospective patrons are moving into town. Some depositors of the Bank of Salisbury have sold their claims at 75cts on the dollar. Eld. Edwards will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and at the C. P. church at night. Our people are nearly suffocated with dust, and rain would be very acceptable. Our voice is for "war-ter." The union service, at the M. E. church, Sunday night, was well attended. Rev. Britte did the preaching and made a splendid discourse. A game of base ball between a team from Berler and our home team took place at the ball park Wednesday. The score stood: Salisbury, 15, Berler, 2. The Democrat office has been moved to the basement under the store of Trammel & Kasey. This will be a cool place in summer and a warm place in winter. E. M. Williams, assignee of the Bank of Salisbury, has an expert at work on the books. We hope when straightened out the affairs of the bank may be found in better shape than is now believed to exist.

Hamden Happenings.

Miss Alma McCurry is reported to be on the sick list. Hon. T. P. Schooler was in Hamden on Friday last. Arthur Price made a business trip to the capital Tuesday last. Miss Mamie Kahov, of Moberly, is visiting at Wm. Kelly's this week. Al Brown and family, of near Salisbury, visited at W. G. Nelson's the latter part of last week. Mr. Adams and wife, of Marcelline, called at Echo, Thursday. Miss Bertie Wolfe visited her sister, Mrs. J. F. Brewer, Monday last. Chas Brewer and family were callers at "Uncle John" Brewer's last Monday. F. F. Brewer has his new building, which he intends for the store, under full headway. Jay Brown is also an admirer of Sight-seeing and makes frequent trips to Bucklin. Wm. Kyes and wife visited the latter's parents, B. F. Sights, near Bucklin, Sunday last. W. G. Brewer and wife, of Salisbury visited his father, John Brewer, of this place, last week. A. F. Brown and family, of Hickory Ridge, visited the family of "Aunt Minnie" Kyes last week. Miss Bina Brockman is making preparations for a visit to Carroll county in the near future. D. A. Brown and Arline, his little granddaughter, are visiting friends and relatives, in Earlville, Ill. Married: In the presence of one hundred and twenty invited guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Albert Wolfe, three miles north of Echo, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Aug. 6th, 1895, Mr. J. F. Brewer, of Echo, and Miss Olive Wolfe, Rev. Jasper Winbiger, of Marcelline, pronouncing the ceremony that made them one. After congratulations were extended refreshments were served. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The groom is well known in Chariton county, as is also the bride, having taught school in this and Linn county the past eight years. Miss Ola Shoott, of Brunswick, while visiting friends near Fee Dee, was thrown from a buggy by its being overturned last Sunday night. The young lady was badly hurt, concussion of the brain and spine resulting from the effects of the fall. She was unconscious for nearly three days, but is now reported on the road to recovery. Dr. J. H. Hume, of Brunswick, was called in consultation with Dr. J. R. Gaines yesterday, and if no relapse occurs, Miss Shoott will soon be up again. Tuesday night a footpad, in St. Louis, undertook the job of holding up and robbing E. G. Hasewick, who at the time was dressed in citizens' clothing. After a desperate struggle, Everard got the best of the robber and lodged him in the station house. E. G. is now a St. Louis policeman, but was at one time city marshal of Keytesville.
