

Brunswick Brevities.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Laughlin died Tuesday.

A. F. Bash and wife, of Mendon, visited in Brunswick last Sunday.

T. M. Jordan is now night agent at the Wabash depot, having taken charge last Tuesday.

We hear the electric lights will not burn after this week, as there is not enough "oil" in circulation.

Quite a good deal of shipping is being done from Brunswick now. The Wabash has been running three extra trains daily for a week.

Mrs. O. T. Scott and daughter returned home Monday night from Kansas City and West Plains, Mo., where they have been visiting.

The Brunswick boys have quit playing ball, as it has been demonstrated thoroughly they can not find a team hereabouts that can beat them.

W. E. Eison came in Monday morning. He had been attending the fair at Carrollton and Chillicothe, and had started with his race horse to Sedalia, but got the animal crippled in shipping.

Namrash Nuggets.

Most of Mr. Cooper's family are on the sick list at this writing.

Mrs. Wm. Beeler, of Cassell, was the guest of Mrs. Barnes, Saturday.

There has been no corn sold at the low price offered by the buyers.

Miss Nettie Brewer visited the family of Mr. B. F. Barnes last Sunday.

The timbers that are being hauled to the river will be shipped to some place in Illinois.

Mrs. J. A. Goll visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward, of near Rockford, Friday.

For several days previous to last Monday there was no crossing the river here on account of the high winds and waves.

Mr. George Chapman, of Keytesville, was around recently shaking hands with his numerous friends around Namrash.

The farmers are all done cutting corn and are nearly through sowing wheat. They are housing their tobacco which looks to be very heavy.

B. F. Elliott and wife gave the young people a party last Friday evening in their new dining hall. They report a good time and return thanks to "Uncle Ben" and "Aunt Catharine."

J. H. Jennings and wife, of near Indian Grove, showed their faces to the inhabitants of Namrash last Saturday and Sunday. 'Squire Miles and wife, of Dalton, accompanying them. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

While at the dinner table Sunday we had to fan ourselves for breath, the heat was so oppressive, but in the afternoon the wind came piping from the north in a blizzard so cold we had to put on our overcoats and build fires in the stoves.

Synnumville Budget.

C. N. Green is quite sick at this writing with diarrhoeal troubles.

Dennis Sullivan is building an addition to his tenant house on the heritage bottom.

Mrs. W. H. Owens, who has been sick for quite awhile with malarial fever, is much better at present.

Elijah Miller, of New Philadelphia, Ill., is at present in our vicinity visiting his numerous relatives and friends.

Aaron Thomas and wife were made happy on the night of the 24th by the arrival of a six-pound boy at their home.

Luther Logan, of Salisbury, has been in our community for the past few days visiting his daughters, Mrs. W. F. Davis and Mrs. W. J. Billeter.

There was a mule show in our town on last Saturday in which J. G. Richmond's mule carried off the 1st prize, and C. R. Billeter's 2nd prize.

The millinery firm, which has been doing business in the north part of town, has changed places of business and also partners, Mrs. J. M. Ramsey having sold her interest to Miss Grace Woodruff. They will be found at the store of Dodge & Sullivan.

The sudden change in the weather on Sunday evening has caused the nasal organs of many of our citizens to get out of order. The change, however, if permanent, will be welcomed by most of us.

Salisbury Scribblings.

C. B. Crawley and H. B. Richardson were over Tuesday evening.

No one ever heard of the like of cider our two mills are making.

Mrs. P. D. Vandeverter has sold her apple crop in the orchard for $300, cash.

There is some talk of organizing a new bank here with a capital stock of $50,000.

With a $20,000 damage suit on her hands, Salisbury begins to put on metropolitan airs.

A. V. Salisbury and wife, of Kenton, Ohio, are visiting friends here and will remain for several days.

Westenkuehler Bros. have completely overhauled their store-room and it is a beauty. They are hustlers.

Hos. U. S. Hall will orate here Saturday afternoon and also at night. There may be some one present to answer him.

Russell, son of F. M. Phelps, is recovering from a spell of typhoid fever, and is affected in a peculiar way with worms.

J. W. Luck has taken out the estate of administration on his brother's estate, both private and partnership estate.

Mrs. W. R. Haddock, though still very sick, is slowly improving, but the baby will die. This family has been terribly scourged and has the sympathy of all.

20 Scrofula Sores

Afflicted me last July—in fact I have suffered with scrofula over 20 years. My friends thought I could not live long. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a week I was much better, and in a short time I could walk all around. My appetite improved rapidly. I can't speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla for I know its medicinal powers." Mrs. S. E. HATCH, Licking, Missouri.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

Shannondale Stiftings.

R. B. Tuder and Claude Hart, from this neighborhood, are attending school in Glasgow.

Leo Minor and wife and Dave Ware, of Sumner, visited Mr. Minor's mother last week.

Arthur Salisbury, wife and daughter, of Kenton, Ohio, spent Sunday at J. M. Shannondale's.

The cold wave Sunday afternoon made our people wish for overcoats and heating stoves.

Our young people were entertained at David Tuder's Saturday evening. A good time is reported.

Andy Wilgamoth, from Triplett, is in Shannondale for the purpose of having his eyes treated.

Misses Nannie Dameron and Annie Young and Master Joe Robertson, of Keytesville, Sundayed in Shannondale, the guests of R. H. Ford and family.

C. M. Allega, his son, Will, Chas. Palmer and J. B. Shanson, of near Shannondale, and Geo. Herman, of Salisbury, started Wednesday for a trip to Southeast Missouri and Arkansas.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Eccles Echoes.

Jodie Moore is visiting his brother, Henry Moore, this week.

Miss Effie Lewis, of near Brunswick, is visiting in this vicinity.

John Phelps is rejoicing over the advent of a bouncing girl at his house.

Will Chapman and his brother left here last Monday for Indian Territory.

Miss Belle Medlin, of near this place, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Angie Medlin, near Brunswick.

Chas. E. Epperly, of near Prairie Hill, was the guest of his uncle, Chas. Epperly, last Lord's day.

Several people, of this vicinity, attended the Mexican veterans' reunion at Salisbury on the 18th inst.

Rev. C. F. McCurry, of Salisbury, failed to fill his appointment at the Holiness church last Sunday on account of the illness of his wife.

The new bridge across Jones branch is nearing completion, and adds greatly to the convenience of the traveling public in these diggins.

Guthridge Mills Gossip.

A fine rain Sunday evening.

Some of our denizens are wrestling with the chills.

Bob Brewer has been smiling since last Friday. It's a boy.

A Miss Hobbs, from the Bluffs, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lewis.

'Corn-cutting and wheat-sowing are now engaging the attention of our farmers.

Albert Morgan lost a mare one day last week by the animal's dropping dead in the stable.

Rev. Stevens preached to a good-sized audience at the Pollard school-house last Sunday.

The Pollard school begins the first Monday in October with Miss Dollie Mitchell as teacher.

Billy Thomas and Dan Clark started to Hickory county two weeks ago on a prospecting tour.

The little son of A. C. Enyeart has been quite low with typhoid fever, but is now on the way recovery.

James Manness, from Schuyler county, stopped over a few days with relatives in this vicinity while en route to Laclede county.

There is no hog cholera or hog fever out this way, but we will confidentially say that one young man has the "pig fever." He is, however, about over it.

Mendon Mention.

E. M. Shupe and wife leaves Wednesday for Connecticut.

J. D. Hend and Wm. Ward were in Brookfield, Wednesday, on business.

Miss Nannie Cawthron, of Triplett, was visiting friends here the first of last week.

Nice rain Sunday which laid the dust and decreased the heat so much that winter wraps were in demand.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Callaway on Wednesday evening, Sept. 18th, Mr. Joe Ballew and Miss Sallie Callaway. Rev. J. J.

Squire, of Brunswick, tied the nuptial knot.

Wm. Felt, while engaged in raising a barn one day last week, had the misfortune to have some of the timbers fall on him, bruising him up considerably.

The ball game, Mendon vs. Rothville, last Wednesday week, at Rothville, resulted in a score of 13 to 40 in favor of the latter. The Mendon boys can't expect to be "in it" unless they play their own men and practice.

County Court Proceedings.

Called Term, Sept. 24th, 1895.

All of the officers present as follows: L. H. Herring, presiding justice; C. E. Allen and Henry Hays, associate justices; J. E. Dempsey, sheriff, and R. D. Edwards, clerk.

Bonds of township collectors approved as follows:

- W. C. Talcott..... Salt Creek Tp
- M. L. Finnell..... Keytesville Tp
- F. F. Hamilton..... Yellow Creek Tp
- John M. Wainwright..... Cunningham Tp
- B. F. Laughlin..... Mendon Tp
- C. B. Kavanaugh..... Cockrell Tp
- C. H. Allen..... Muscle Fork Tp
- Columbus Gray..... Wayland Tp
- C. W. Steiman..... Bowling Green Tp
- Geo. D. Dolyns..... Triplett Tp
- John W. Redd..... Salisbury Tp

Each of the above bonds is for twice the amount of taxes collectable by the respective township collectors.

Upon information of J. S. Craig, a citizen of Bee Branch township, and the hearing of testimony in the case, the court doth adjudge Sarah E. Craig to be of unsound mind and fit subject to be confined in the state lunatic asylum at St. Joseph, to undergo treatment therein; and the court finding that neither the said Sarah E. Craig nor her husband, J. S. Craig, has sufficient estate to defray her expenses at said asylum, doth order that she be maintained at said asylum as a charge against Chariton county. And it is further ordered that Dr. James S. Cater make out a detailed statement of said case, to be forwarded with the said Sarah E. Craig to the said asylum, together with a request for her admission therein.

Whereas, on the 9th day of September, 1895, the state veterinary surgeon, of the state of Missouri, T. J. Turner, notified this court that the following described animals to wit: One gray gelding, 15 3/4 hands high, 10 years old, the property of L. S. Curry, and one 8-year-old bay mare, 15 1/2 hands high, left hind ankle white, the property of J. S. Stevenson, are affected with sub-acute and chronic glanders, a contagious disease, and are now in quarantine in said county, and whereas the said court doth find that the said horses became so diseased accidentally and not through any inhuman or gross or willful neglect or scheming on the part of said owners; that said stock was not already so diseased when it came into the possession of said owners; that said diseased stock did not come already affected with said disease from any other state or territory, or from any other country, and that said stock has not been exposed outside the state of Missouri to said contagious disease, it is therefore ordered; by the court, that I. C. Couch, A. J. Bell and Isaac Huddle, three disinterested persons who are stock owners, be and they are hereby appointed to go and appraise said diseased and quarantined stock, taking with them the sheriff, of this county, shall proceed to the locality where said diseased and quarantined stock now is, and there make their appraisal, taking into consideration the condition of said stock, also the disease with which they are affected in determining its value, and immediately report the same in writing to this court.

Allowances as follows:
Jas. S. Cater, M. D., account for witness fees and mileage, $3.70, for medical statement in case of Sarah E. Craig, $5, total..... $ 8.70
Hansford Pippin, account for witness fees and mileage in case of Sarah E. Craig, insane..... 3.50
J. S. Craig, account for conveying Sarah E. Craig, insane, to asylum at St. Joseph, $36.50, and her board at said asylum for a period of six months, $65, total..... 101.50
Ordered that this court do now adjourn

NOW IS THE TIME

AND THE

People's Dry Goods Company

IS THE PLACE TO BUY

Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Carpets, Boots, Shoes, Etc.

We have an unrivaled line and defy competition on anything we sell. In fact we are selling better goods and at lower prices than any firm in Keytesville. We invite you to call and see. Our line of SCHOOL SHOES are the BEST, and are being sold away down. Our line of nobby Carpets, Rugs and Curtains are unsurpassed, and will be sold at bed-rock prices.

M. W. ANDERSON, Manager, Keytesville, Mo.

A Half Mile

Of board fence built up six feet from the ground And filled with advertisements, would not convince you Of the great advantages in buying

WALL PAPER AT GASTON'S

As much as to call at my store and see with your own eyes the QUALITY, and hear with your own ears the PRICES I quote you.

GASTON, THE DRUGGIST, KEYTESVILLE, MO.
Headquarters for Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Etc.

"Goods Well Bought are Half Sold"

THIS IS WHAT MRS. C. P. VANDIVER CLAIMS FOR HER LARGE STOCK OF

FALL AND WINTER MILLINERY!

Consisting of a handsome line of the latest style pattern hats and bonnets, French felt sailors, all felt and with silk and satin tops, shapes, flowers, tips, fancy feathers, ribbons, laces, silks, velvets, children's caps, baby caps, mourning goods, etc., etc. In connection with my stock of millinery I also carry a full line of

NOTIONS AND FANCY GOODS,

Consisting of face veilings, including the new style chiffon veiling, kid gloves, new style leather belts, ladies' pocket-books, fancy hair ornaments, side combs, stamped linen goods for fancy work, Filo embroidery, wash silks in all the new shades, Corticello knitting silks, etc., etc. In fact, my stock is complete in every department and was purchased at

VERY LOW FIGURES

And I therefore can and WILL give my customers the benefit of the GREAT BARGAINS I have obtained. REMEMBER that I have had 10 years' experience in the Millinery business, and my steadily increasing patronage speaks well for my abilities in the trimming department, which requires no fulsome words of praise or sycophantic flattery. In short, I understand my business, and understand it thoroughly, as everyone within a radius of 15 miles of Keytesville well knows.

One or two-day openings are out of date, and, like the leading houses of St. Louis this season, I shall have no formal opening, knowing that all of my friends cannot visit my store in one or two days, I will have a

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING

Throughout the month of October as well as the entire season, and would be pleased to see all of my old customers and many new ones whenever it may suit them to call, assuring them of the best of work, the best of goods, the best of bargains and the VERY LATEST STYLES.

DON'T FAIL to get my prices before buying your Fall and Winter Millinery. I will spare no effort to please you. Thanking you for past favors and soliciting your patronage and kind words in the future, I am, Very Respectfully,

MRS. CHAS. P. VANDIVER

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.