

CORN. CORN. CORN. CORN.

50,000 BUSHELS WANTED!

In view of the great scarcity of Money and the immense surplus of Corn and no market for the same, we have concluded to take Corn at market price in exchange for

Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods,

Thus enabling you to secure your Fall and Winter Supplies without the ready cash, at the same time giving one of the largest and best stocks to select from at prices that cannot and will not be discounted. Parties wishing to avail themselves of this offer will consult their own interests by calling during this month. Corn will be received in November.

Keytesville Mercantile Company.

Namrath Nuggets

The health of the community is not very good.

R. M. Elliott visited the family of B. F. Barnes, Sunday.

Mr. John Loll and wife were in Keytesville and Dalton, Saturday.

B. F. Barnes and Washington Pettierew went to Keytesville, Monday.

D. M. Ferry's agents were around gathering up their seeds last week.

Mr. Harvey was around delivering pictures that had been sent off to Kansas City to be enlarged.

Mr. Carson, the commercial salesman for Snidell & Co., St. Louis, was in our midst last Friday.

The Methodists are holding a protracted meeting at Helena this week. The pastor is with them.

Mrs. Goll is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Williams, of Marceline. Mr. George Goll accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Flemming visited their daughter, Mrs. George Shively, living three miles west of Keytesville, Saturday and Sunday.

Lee Chitty left Saturday morning for Indian Territory to visit his father and other relatives; also to have a big hunting and fishing tour. He will probably spend the winter there.

The death angel has again appeared in our midst and hovered over the home of R. W. Cooper and taken away the wife of his bosom and the mother of his two little children, one a tender babe who will never know a mother's love and tender care. But sleep on, sweet mother, we will try to meet you on the shining shore. Mrs. Cooper was well and favorably known in this community, having been brought up in this township from girlhood. She was a member of the M. E. Church, South. She will be missed by the church, where she was ever ready to lend a helping hand. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Dalton Dots.

W. E. Williams, of the Centenary neighborhood, was in town Monday.

Mr. Swain, a gentleman connected with pensions, was on our streets a day or two since.

Mrs. H. C. Minter and infant daughter, of Keytesville, are visiting Mrs. H. O. Fisher, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Long are stopping at the hotel this week. Mr. Long is engaged in repairing watches.

Miss Hattie Younger, of the Holiness band, preached Saturday night and Sunday afternoon to large congregations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Latimer, of Marshall, Mo., came over Friday for a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Bondurant Hughes.

Misses Pearl and Edith Davenport, who attend school at Salisbury, spent their vacation with their parents, near this place.

Mr. White is here looking after the fitting up of his drug store. We learn that he will shortly move his family to Dalton and we are glad to welcome them to our town.

Among those who are seriously indisposed this week we note Mrs. Iglehart and Miss Nora (Sleman). We trust that both may soon be in the enjoyment of good health.

Mrs. Nannie Sewell and children, of Sedalia, arrived here Saturday and are the guests of Mrs. Sewell's uncle, J. G. Payne. She is here to look after her interest in the Grady estate.

Jacob Williams, foreman of the axe-handle factory which was located here, came up from Forest Green recently to spend a day or two with his family. We were sorry to lose the enterprise from our town. The factory is now located at Forest Green.

Words Fail

To express the gratitude of many who despaired of help, but have been cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla, as in this case:
"I cannot tell the great value Hood's Sarsaparilla has been to me. For two years I have been in poor health, taking medicine all the time with little benefit. In the winter I had a severe attack of rheumatism and thought I should never get rid of it. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and concluded to try it. Since taking five bottles I am like a new person. It is worth its weight in gold. It will convince the most skeptical of its merits." Mrs. LIZZIE SHAFER, River-ton, Illinois. Remember,
Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the only True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye today. $1; six for $5
Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c.

C. H. Jenner, of the J. S. Merrell Drug Co., is in town taking an invoice of the drug stock which was lately purchased from Gordon Bros. by J. M. Wilhite, of Salisbury.

Guttridge Mills Gossip.

Elliott Dewees is stepping high. It's a girl.

Chills and malaria are prevalent in this community.

Rain is badly needed in this locality, as cisterns and ponds are quite low.

Tom Morris, the Rothville huxter, still comes around with his egg wagon.

Miss Lara Eysart was thrown from a horse last Sunday and had her arm broken.

Rev. Joe Robinson will preach to the good people of Mount Pleasant the third Sunday in this month.

Miss Dollie Mitchell's school opened Monday last with 35 scholars at the Pollard school-house.

Lagonda Lore.

S. C. Sharp was on the sick list last week.

Seigal Carey is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Jennie Malineaux is recovering from a severe sickness.

Our mail carrier's mind gave way and skipped out for Long's mill.

Miss Grace Sharp was taken with a painful sore throat last Monday.

Mr. Warbritton and J. F. King will plaster their new houses this week.

The Holiness people have closed their meeting and moved their tabernacle east of the river.

A Mr. Eastman, of Brookfield, is taking an inventory of C. Boehm's stock of hardware stored here.

BORN: To the wife of Willie Morrow, a stem-winder, and Willie tries to look very important.

Jacob Davis and family, of LaPlata, and Wayne Allen, of College Mound, were Lagonda visitors this week.

J. F. King has sold his stock of goods to A. J. Barton, of New Cambria. Mr. Barton will move to Lagonda in the near future.

Our school teacher, Frank Gipeon, has 50 scholars enrolled. He will be kept moving. Frank is a good teacher and well liked by all.

P. S. Rader and Capt. L. Benecke, legal lights of Brunswick, were in the capital on Tuesday.

Salisbury Scribbings.

Our city ordinances are printed and now in force.

Mrs. A. Green has sold her property to J. W. Dillard.

Many of our people are attending the St. Louis fair this week.

Mack Welch got his foot mashed Tuesday by being run over by a buggy wheel.

Robert Nickerson is in poor health, being troubled with something like dropsy.

Henry Wachter and Miss Clara Staten backer were married last Sunday by Col. C. W. Bell.

Our old friend, J. O. Dougherty, is troubled with heart disease, but is able to be up and around.

Rev. J. P. Rice is holding a meeting at Pleasant Wood church, three miles east of town.

Jan. M. Creighton was badly shaken up by a team running into his buggy and demolishing it one day last week.

D. R. Patterson, who has been quite sick, is reported much better and we hope will soon be out again.

W. H. Bradley sues Samuel Croff in Justice Newbold's court for fees. The case comes up for trial Monday.

Mrs. L. C. Moore, of Windsor, Mo., is visiting her daughter Mrs. C. M. Rumsey, who has been quite ill, but is now improving.

Prescott & McCurry are moving their stock of groceries into the Horton building and L. B. Matthews & Co. will occupy their old stand with a notion store.

Eld. G. D. Edwards, Mrs. Dr. Welch and her sister, Mrs. Elgin, Miss Effie Hains and A. W. Johnson, all of this place, attended the state meeting of the Christian church of Missouri at Carrollton this week.

Hamden Happenings.

W. G. Nelson is on the sick list this week.

B. F. Ford returned from Eureka Springs, Ark., last Saturday.

Wm. Smith moved his family and household effects to Salisbury last week.

Don Holman, of near Snapp, was buying hogs hereabouts this week.

Jack McSparran and family, of Marceline, are visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

The young people participated in and enjoyed a fruit and cake party at James Hinkle's Monday night.

Frank Harlan, of near Rolling Home, was buying hogs in this vicinity last Monday.

Rev. S. T. Wallace, of U. B. church, arrived here last week to take charge of this circuit, to which he was recently appointed by the annual conference.

Thomas Barney and daughter, Miss Hannah, James Boyne, Frank Dowell and Miss Mittie Fray were in St. Louis the first of this week attending the exposition.

Eccles Echoes.

Miss Ada Cox visited friends near Brunswick Saturday and Sunday.

Will Doughty, jr., passed through this locality one day last week buying hogs.

Miss Ora Cox, of Salisbury, visited her cousin, Miss Ada Cox, last Lord's day.

Jesse Jaco and his mother has been visiting friends and relatives in Randolph county.

Miss Maggie Gordon, who has been visiting her aunt near Long's Mill, has returned home.

Several youngsters of this vicinity attended the social at Mr. Lightfoot's, near Hamden, Tuesday night.

The tabernacle meeting that is being held in Bro. John Gerhardt's pasture is progressing nicely at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moxley left here Monday morning for the Indian Nation with the intention, we hear, of making it their future home.

Will Bell made a business trip to Salisbury one day last week. I guess he thought it was business, because he brought back a new buggy. Watch out girls.

A few of our neighbors attended the old veterans' picnic at Indian Grove Saturday, the 6th. They report having a grand time and all the dinner they could eat.

PROGRAMME

Christian Endeavor Union, of Charleston County, to Be Held at Salisbury on Thursday and Friday, November 14 and 15.

THURSDAY.

11:00, A. M.—Opening sermon, Rev. Baxter Waters, of Huntsville.

2:00, P. M.—Address of Welcome, Miss Alice Slaughter, of Salisbury.

2:30, P. M.—"The Mission of Christian Endeavor," Miss Maggie Stacy, of Keytesville.

3:00, P. M.—"Good Citizenship," Prof. B. F. Heaton, of Salisbury.

3:30, P. M.—"C. E.: Its Relation to the Church," Miss Willie Winn, of Salisbury. Miss B. Moore, of Keytesville.

4:00, P. M.—Papers on "Why I Love C. E. Work," Misses Ollie Kelse, of Muscle Fork, and Emma Blake, of Salisbury, Messrs. Hancock, of Keytesville, and Dan McCurry, of Hamden.

8:00, P. M.—Address, W. R. Gentry, of Columbia, vice-president, State Union C. E. Work.

FRIDAY.

11:00, A. M.—"Interdenominational Fellowship," Mr. J. C. Crawley, of Keytesville.

2:00, P. M.—"Soul Winning, Our Highest

Endeavor.

Rev. H. D. Maness, of Salisbury.

2:30, P. M.—C. E.—Past: present; future. Mr. F. D. Mitchell, of Salisbury.

3:00, P. M.—"The Scriptural Method of Tithing," Hon. R. G. Mitchell, of Macon, Mo.

4:00, P. M.—"Difficulties, and How to Meet Them," Miss Lucy Courtney, of Bellamy, Mrs. Ira Dodson, of Salisbury, and Mr. F. B. McCurry, of Salisbury.

8:00, P. M.—"Missions," Rev. G. D. Edwards, of Salisbury.
[Mrs. FLOA SWEENEY, Miss MAGGIE STACY, H. D. Maness.]

Dr. W. P. Sparrow, the optician, will be in Keytesville one week, from Oct. 21st to 26th.

FINANCE SETTLEMENT NOTICE.

Creditors and all others interested in the estate of George Bohrer, deceased, are hereby notified that at the next regular term of the Charleston county probate court, to be begun and held on the second Monday in November, 1895, at the court-house, in Keytesville, in said county, I shall make final settlement of said estate.
ROSA BOHRER, Executrix.

SENATOR VEST has an appointment to speak at Fayette to-morrow on the financial question. He will speak from the standpoint of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

Call and see those new style leather belts at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's. They are only 25c each.

NOW IS THE TIME

AND THE

People's Dry Goods Company

IS THE PLACE TO BUY

Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Carpets, Boots, Shoes, Etc.

We have an unrivaled line and defy competition on anything we sell. In fact we are selling better goods and at lower prices than any firm in Keytesville. We invite you to call and see. Our line of SCHOOL SHOES are the BEST, and are being sold away down. Our line of nobby Carpets, Rugs and Curtains are unsurpassed, and will be sold at bed-rock prices.

M. W. ANDERSON, Manager, Keytesville, Mo.