

THE CHARITON COURIER.

C. P. VANDIVER, Ed. and Prop.

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Friday, Nov. 8, 1895.

Work has been commenced on the new Baptist church at Sumner.

Go to Brill for groceries, glass-ware, queensware, tinware, candies, cigars and tobacco.

The wind-work on a railroad from Keokuk, Iowa, to Glasgow, Mo., is being done. Senator Calvin S. Bricc, of Ohio, is said to be at the head of the project.

Mrs. S. C. Feland and sister, Miss Bettie Bailey, of 2 1-2 miles south of town, are visiting in Moberly, the guests of their uncle, E. T. Fisher, and family, of Fisher's hotel.

L. D. Applegate, of Keytesville, who has been looking to Uncle Sam's interest at a distillery at Weston, Mo., has returned home, and took charge of Hansman & Rick's distillery here as store-keeper and gauger last Monday morning.

When you want the pure article, try Kellogg's pure, hand-made sour-mash whiskey.

Hallowe'en was observed in Keytesville last Thursday night by the midnight "murkies" changing a few vehicles around town, piling up a few goods boxes and plugging up a few key holes. We are glad to say that no diabolical vandalism in destroying property was committed.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Three children of Henry Haney, living on Mrs. B. F. Wood's farm, 3 1-2 miles southeast of Keytesville, are confined to their beds with scarlet fever. They contracted the contagion while on a visit to Carroll county relatives. Dr. Aldridge, of Keytesville, is their attending physician and reports all three of the patients as "doing as well as could be expected."

If you want a good Heating Stove, Vaughan will trade you one for corn. Call at his store and get particulars.

Messrs. Hansman & Rick started up their Big Springs distillery here last Monday. They have made extensive improvements in their plant during the past few months, and now have one of the best equipped distilleries in this or any other state. It has all of the modern distilling appliances, and has a capacity of 81 bushels of grain or 108 gallons of whiskey a day.

R. P. Hubbard, of four miles southeast of Keytesville, lost a fine yearling colt last Sunday. An attempt was being made to break the young animal to lead, and in its obstreperousness a blood vessel was ruptured, resulting in the colt's death. During the week previous Mr. Hubbard lost a valuable work horse and a hog. Truly misfortunes never come singly.

W. A. Crawley, our accommodating assistant postmaster, has tendered his resignation to Postmaster Chivers and will, in two or three weeks, enter the law-office of Crawley & Son for the purpose of qualifying himself for the legal profession. "Will" is a worthy young man, energetic and possessed of studious habits, and will, no doubt, make marked advancement as a disciple of Blackstone.

About the greatest encouragement marriageable young ladies could hold out to young men, who are in quest of a life partner, would be to reduce the size of their dress sleeves. It takes entirely too much goods as well as too much money to robe fair femininity in her present big-sleeved freak of fashion. We don't blame young men for shuddering at the thought of matrimony under such serious circumstances.

The Sumner Star regards it as fortunate for its delinquent subscribers that this country was not destroyed by the earthquake on Thursday morning of last week.

H. A. Belcher, a well-known horseman, of Carrollton, has purchased P. M. Simpson's interest in the livery business of Simpson & Eidson at Brunswick. The style of the new firm is Belcher & Eidson.

Miss Ella Wright, of near town, who has been visiting in Slater and Miami for the last three weeks, returned home last Saturday accompanied by her friend, Miss Clytie Davis, of near Miami.

Master Ernest Collins, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Collins, of Mendon, is nursing a broken arm, caused by his being pushed out of the school-house window by one of his girl schoolmates, breaking the large bone of Ernest's left arm just above the wrist.

Frank Schell has accepted a position in J. H. Cox's barber shop at Brunswick.

Mrs. Magdalena Hansman made a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. Henry Strab, of Brunswick, last Sunday afternoon.

M. H. Holcomb, jr., who has been employed as night operator at Keytesville station for several months past, went up to Brunswick last Sunday afternoon, and is now installed as night man at that place.

Miss Annie Halley entertained a number of her young friends at her home in South Keytesville last Tuesday night. About 12 couples were present and all report a most enjoyable time. A toothsome luncheon was served, consisting of ices, cakes, fruits, nuts, candies, etc., to which all present did ample justice. Those in attendance from abroad were: Miss Adda Rose, Lewis Brown and Buster Sears, of Glasgow, and Miss Ruth Veatch, of Kansas City.

Miss Anne Grinstead spent Saturday and Sunday in Moberly, the guest of her niece, Miss Anne Louisa Scott.

"Ye editor" and wife returned home last Saturday from their attendance at the meeting of Missouri Press association at Pertle Springs, Johnson county, and a trip to the great Atlanta exposition. We will attempt to regale our readers with an account of our very enjoyable outing in the next issue of the COURIER.

Sheriff J. E. Dempsey left for Jefferson City last Tuesday morning for the purpose of taking Thos. Dixon, white, and Alonzo Hayes, col., to the penitentiary. Dixon was sent up at the late October term of circuit court for two years for attempting to burglarize Long & Riddell's store at Rothville, while Hayes got five years, three for burglary and two for larceny, for burglarizing Lamkin & Fristoe's store at Forest Green.

THE LEADING CLOTHIERS,
KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

The Keytesville Roller mills, which were sold at trustee's sale last Saturday for the purpose of winding up the interest the late C. Courtney had in them, were purchased by M. F. Courtney and his brother-in-law, Judge J. L. Stacy, for $7,000. Mr. Courtney having been the junior partner of the concern for several years. The late purchase will retire A. F. Owen, a well and favorably known member of the firm of Owen & Courtney, who has had charge of the mills ever since he and C. Courtney & Son bought them. We have not learned in what business Mr. Owen will engage, but we trust he will not leave Keytesville, as he is a good and thoroughly enterprising citizen and a splendid neighbor. On the other hand, we extend a cordial welcome to the new firm and hope they may find their investment a profitable one.

Mrs. W. A. Hurt and daughter, little Miss Katie, and Mrs. Hurt's sister, Miss Rosie Ewing, all of Carrollton, are visiting relatives in and near Keytesville.

The COURIER sympathizes with our good friend, Mr. John O. Dougherty, whose comfortable country home was destroyed by fire, 1 1-2 miles southwest of Salisbury, on Thursday morning of last week about 8 o'clock. The fire started through a defective flue, and was burning fiercely in the roof when first discovered. Only a comparatively small portion of the contents were saved. Among the valuables consumed were Mr. Dougherty's winter provisions, consisting of vegetables, apples, a barrel of cider, preserves, canned goods, etc., which were stored in the cellar. The house was insured for $800 and the contents for $200, which will not cover more than one-third of the loss.

Don't buy millinery until you have seen Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's large and well-selected stock, Keytesville, Mo. She is prepared to save you money on all purchases in her line.

A splendid quality of brick are constantly kept for sale at Beasley's brick-yard, Brunswick, Mo.

Miss Effie Sears has resigned her position as teacher in the Salisbury public schools for the purpose of accepting a more profitable position in the public schools at Medicine Bow, Wyoming.

T. J. Moorman has gone to Kansas City to accept a position in the law-office of Messervey, Pierce & German, prominent attorneys of that city. "Jeff" is a young man of ability and we predict for him a prosperous career in his new field of labor.

Go to Hansman & Rick and call for their 1891 hand-made Bourbon. You will find it matured well, palatable and strictly pure.

FIRST-CLASS FURNITURE

I have no bankrupt stock to offer you this week, next week, nor any other week, as I do not handle that class of goods. My entire stock is just out of the factory---new, nice and clean, and will be sold at prices which I defy competition to meet. I can save you from 10 to 30 per cent. on the same grade of goods. I pay spot cash and get the discount, which enables me to undersell any competitor that does not discount his bills. I have no division to make and my rents are light, so you see I can save you money, day or night.

My undertaker's stock is complete in every line. I carry from the cheapest coffin to the finest metallic casket and can give you just what you want, at prices that cannot be beaten. Quick sales and small profits is my motto henceforth and forever. J. P. MOORE, Keytesville, Mo.
