BILL NYE'S NEW YEAR MEDITATION.

Of course the serious business on New Year's day is to make good resolutions, and no person who respects himself or has due regard for the proprieties will begin to smash them until the bright-eyed young cherub whom we picture as the New Year has been long enough in the world not to mind hearing the crash of the fine china. Some authorities on the etiquette of the day say that while the breaking should not begin before sundown of New Year's day, it may be inaugurated after that time, as the cherub, being very young, and tired out with moving in, may be presumed to have retired for the night. This, however, is a doubtful point, upon which it is not safe to act.

Personally, I don't begin to toy with the good resolutions until late in the day. I work up to them by degrees. The first thing I do in the morning is to think over the good I have done. I find that I can finish this very nicely before breakfast by getting up at my usual time, which is six minutes before James, my butler, brings in the first course of salted strawberries. I think I may say, without undue pride, that these strawberries are kissed through the hot-house windows at Bay State a kiss.

After breakfast I attend to my regular things done, and things left undone which ought to have been done. This is the long undertaking of the day, and I would have to pull down the curtains upon the bright night and the white mantle of virgin snow, and light the lamp before competing it, were it not for the fact that I do not find myself an enthusiastic regreter, and soon tire of my work. I knock off with the comforting thought that we should only regret enough to chastise ourselves, anyhow, and then with a firm, rigid upper lip should proceed to do better. We should let our sorrows heal, if they will, instead of keeping them open, torn and bleeding, as cowardly soldiers sometimes do to avoid the coming battle. I always like to shake hands with the New Year and bid it welcome, for it seems to me to be a sort of cleaning day, when we can put our past out on the line, look it over, and pound it with a broom and knock out the dust of selfishness and unkindness.

TRIALS OF A WOMAN EDITOR.

From the Houston Post.
The beautiful young girl who had graduated only a year before with the highest honors rushed into the family sitting-room and flung herself with a storm of sobs upon the sofa.

"What is it, my dear?" asked her father, soothing her gently. "Has anything happened to discourage you?"

"Papa," said the maiden, raising her tear-stained face, "I am done with journalism forever. When you allowed me to purchase that weekly newspaper I thought no occupation on earth could be so noble, so elevating and powerful to scatter good and wisdom throughout the world. When I began editing the paper everything appeared bright and rose-colored.

"My editorials were praised by the entire Texas press, and I got flattering words of encouragement from even the large dailies. I was, oh, so proud of the fact that, although a woman, I had been admitted as an equal member of the great brotherhood, that exercises such an influence upon the mind and morals of the people. Last week I wrote a gentle criticism of an article that appeared in a little weekly in another county. This, papa—this is what I find in the next issue of that horrid paper.

The lovely girl handed her father the paper and buried her head upon the sofa pillows while he read the following:

We would say to the loathsome, knock-kneed, piebald jabberwack that infests the editorial dug-out of the Weekly Herald—keep your shirt on! The disgusting, idiotic drivel that emanates from the clapper-jawed, squirrel-headed, slab-sided puddle-duck that spoils paper for that sewer pipe of journalism should get a pair of buckskin, kickproof pants, or else quit spouting such jobs of back-handed, putrefied slime at decent papers. If the hump-backed, putty-faced vermin referred to doesn't like our remarks, we will call any day and scatter a few locks of hair and brass buttons around said Herald office, or forfeit a year's subscription.

"Papa," said the girl graduate in a small but decided voice, "I want you to buy me a cook book and some long aprons. I am going to stay at home and help mother about the house."

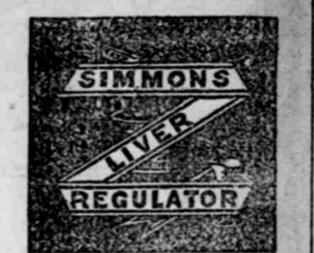

The Mount Lebanon Shakers have recently perfected an ingenious cure for dyspepsia. Their Digestive Cordial consists of a food already digested and a digester of foods happily combined. The importance of this invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach trouble. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress. This Digestive Cordial of the Shakers corrects any stomach derangements at once. It makes thin people plump. Every one will be greatly interested to read the little book which has been placed in the hands of druggists for free distribution.

Success in Business.
Geo. W. Childs.

I have always believed that it is possible to unite success in business with strict moral integrity. I am aware that many people think that a man may do things in his public employment which he will not think it right to do in his domestic or private life. I do not agree with this view; and if the record of my life has any value, it is in showing that at least it is not necessary to succeed in business that a man should indulge in "sharp" practices. But even if it were necessary, still it would not follow that it was worth while. We cannot afford to do or say a mean thing. There is higher satisfaction than the mere getting of money, and riches can not compensate a man for the consciousness of having lived a dishonorable and selfish life.

LONG experience, careful factory methods and the best help money will hire, explains why we can sell the BUCKSKIN BREECHES. The best Jeans Pants made for as little money as other makers charge for common goods. GOOD FOR EVERYBODY

Almost everybody takes some laxative medicine to cleanse the system and keep the blood pure. Those who take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR (liquid or powder) get all the benefits of a mild and pleasant laxative and tonic that purifies the blood and strengthens the whole system. And more than this: SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR regulates the Liver, keeps it active and healthy, and when the Liver is in good condition you find yourself free from Malaria, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick-Headache and Constipation, and rid of that worn out and debilitated feeling. These are all caused by a sluggish Liver. Good digestion and freedom from stomach troubles will only be had when the liver is properly at work. If troubled with any of these complaints, try SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. The King of Liver Medicines, and Better than Pills.

MANY merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance we mention Perry & Cameron, prominent druggists of Flushing, Michigan. They say: "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by W. C. Gaston.

"Don't."
Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison, the inventor, first entered Boston he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter.

Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy because his home is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses an humble trade. The author of the "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because of his dullness in his lessons. Mozart, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the great orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub a boy for any reason. Not only because he may outstrip you in the race of life, but because it is neither kind nor right nor christian.

Who stands still in mud sticks in it. Kerr's System-Renovator cures Rheumatism, Malaria, Dyspepsia, improves the blood, general health. Try it. Sold by Sneed Drug Co., Keytesville, Mo.

From late indications the present congress may be asked to take Oklahoma into the sisterhood of the states. Several efforts have been heretofore made in that direction, and it seems to be the height of the ambition of the people of that territory to add another star to the national flag. Oklahoma now consists of nineteen counties, and a population of 300,000. The resolution adopted, asking that Oklahoma be made a state, proposes that the five civilized tribes of Indians—Osage, Otoe, Ponca, Kiowa and Comanche—be annexed for judicial purposes. With these tribes and other Indian countries in the territory, Oklahoma would be a state 300 miles long and over 200 miles wide, and have a population, all told, of about 500,000. The assessable valuation of property is $75,000,000. Without the Indian countries, Oklahoma would only be about half the size mentioned. If taken into the union it would doubtless add another star to the list of Republican states.
