at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's? They are all the rage.

Go to Miss Hattie Young's racket store for leather belts, assorted colors and sizes.

Kubo's groceries are groceries that are groceries. Remember this when you want the best.

County Treasurer John Knappen-berger made a business visit to St.
Louis last Friday.

Remember you can get nice laces at Miss Hattie Young's racket store at prices that will please you.

Charlie Chapman and better half went to Salisbury, Sunday, where they spent the day visiting friends.

See those side combs, curling kids and a neat selection of hair pins at Miss Hattie Young's racket store.

several days in Keytesville this week the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
T. H. Binford.

The basket dinner and Cumberland Presbyterian church dedication at Pee Dee last Sunday was largely attended by Keytesville people.

"The proof of the pudding is in chewing the string." The superior quality of Kubo's groceries is attested by all his customers who loudly praise kinds.

From the excavations that are being made in working some of our streets, we fear that a necessity will soon arise for placing railings along the outer edges of some of the sidewalks to protect life and limb.

Fred Simpson of Huntsville was in Keytesville, Monday, on business.

Wonders will never cease as long as you can get so many nice, fresh groceries as can be had at Kubo's for so little money.

Mr. Edward Bowman, a prominent merchant and influential citizen of Brunswick, transacted business at the capital, Monday.

Miss Lena Hamilton of the Forks of Chariton, who has been the guest of Mrs. P. R. O'Bryaa for the past two weeks, returned to her home, Sunday.

"A fool and his money are soon parted," but wise men go straight to Kubo's and buy their groceries, for to buy groceries at Kubo's means to save money.

The masons began work, Tuesday, laying the foundation for a business block of three buildings for Mrs. Mary Young on the corner west of Mrs.
Hansman's restaurant.

and spend several days visiting, after which they will continue their journey home.

A partition suit was filed in the circuit clerk's office this week by Wm.
Tillotson et al against Jefferson Tillotson et al. Asking for the division of 30 acres of land in the east end of the south part of sw qr of sec 32-54, and 10 acres in nw qr of sec 5-54, all in range 16. The suit will come up for trial at the Salisbury term of circuit court in September.

Rev. Simms and wife, who went to Randolph Springs two or three weeks ago for the benefit of Rev. Simms' health, returned home, Friday. Rev.
Simms returned very much improved in health and preached his congregation a splendid sermon, Sunday night.
We are glad to know that his entire recovery from his long siege of sickness is but a question of a few days.

Herbert White, who was formerly in the mercantile business in this city, went to St. Louis, Saturday, where he accepted a lucrative position as salesman with the Ely-Walker Dry Goods company. We congratulate this firm upon securing the services of such a worthy young man. Herbert has a very large circle of friends here who join the COURIER in wishing him a full measure of success.

Dabney Jackson, a gay colored lad, got a little too handy with his gun at Forest Green last Friday night and began shooting promiscuously narrowly missing a negro woman. He was arrested and arraigned before Squire F. M. Colvin, Saturday, on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and sentenced to 10 days in jail. He was brought to Keytesville by Deputy Constable Wm. Lee, Tuesday, and turned over to Sheriff J. R. Dempsey and lodged in the county bastile.

Miss Birdie Brown, who has been on an extended visit to relatives in Iowa, returned home, Wednesday.

Mrs. Jennie Haskins and son of Newburne, Tenn., arrived, Monday, and will visit several days with the family of T. F. White.

Quite a number of Keytesville's young people attended a reception, Friday night, given by Chas. L. Herring and wife in honor of Boyd Williams.

John Chivers, Jr., of Kansas City, who has a position in a packing house there, was in Keytesville visiting his family, Sunday. We understand he will shortly move his folks to that city.

John Palmer of Pee Dee moved with his family to Keytesville this week and will occupy his property in the south part of town purchased sometime since from Jacob Ray.

Isaac Huddle, a successful farmer and pleasant gentleman from Clark township, paid his respects to the COURIER while at the capital, Tuesday, as did also our handsome young friend, W. P. Gaines, of Triplett, Monday.

The Chariton county teachers' institute convened at Salisbury last Monday. A number of teachers are in attendance and are getting down to their work in earnest notwithstanding the intensely hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Reager having sold their Brunswick gallery have purchased the Crowder gallery of Salisbury, Mo. They will take possession of it about Sept. 1st. The Keytesville gallery will be continued by them. Open as usual each Friday and Saturday.

Columbus Allen, a colored boy of this place, who makes his home at B.
G. Willett's, was arrested last Monday for throwing rocks at little Pat Les-sley. The offender pleaded guilty before Justice J. M. DeMoss and was sentenced to the county jail for 30 days, but was given a stay of execution during good behavior.

Money to Loan At five per cent annual interest on unincumbered farm lands. Commission, reasonable. You cannot get cheaper money anywhere. Our terms are the very best. GEO. N. ELLIOTT, Keytesville, Mo.
Office in court-house.

Dr. S. W. Downing, formerly of this city, but who went to Alaska about 18 months ago, writes his family at Centralia that he will probably start for home before the Alaskan winter sets in. Owing to a good practice in Alaska, he will bring back more money than he took with him.

Mrs. Jas. F. Taylor, who went to St. Louis a few weeks ago to have a tumor removed, which operation was successfully performed at St. John's hospital, returned home, Sunday, having been discharged from that institution. Her friends will be glad to learn of her improved condition with excellent prospects of her complete recovery.

Centenary church, five miles northwest of Keytesville, was entered one night last week by some malicious scoundrel who forced the lock on the front door. The organ was more or less wrecked and all of the lamp chimneys broken. Such characters ought to be speedily found out and prosecuted to the full extent of the law, and it is a pity there is no law to burn such villainous vandals to the stake.

On Thursday of last week Martin Hurt, who had been cutting hay for his uncle, E. S. Pearson, six miles southeast of Keytesville, had quite a close call for his life. He came in at noon and in putting a halter on a mule his feet became entangled in the rein and the mule scared and ran, dragging Mr. Hurt quite a distance and bruising him up considerably. Fortunately help was near and extricated him from his dangerous predicament.

H. J. West of Marceline, after having searched all the directories in existence for a choice resort for recreation, decided that the greatest attraction for him was in Keytesville where he could bask in the sunny smiles of one of Keytesville's fairest and rarest young ladies, eat the best grub in old Missouri and associate with the best people on earth. Realizing these advantages he is in this city this week enjoying life like a marriageable young man should.
