

Correspondence.

Guthridge Mills Gossip.

Miss Anna Lee McCampbell visited Miss Pearl Yancey Friday.

Miles Munden has been very sick with la grippe for the past week.

Several of Lou Hershey's children are sick with whooping-cough.

R. D. Vincent was through here buying mules and hogs one day last week.

Some of our young people have been attending preaching at Adams chapel.

George Rohwedder and daughter, Miss Anna, visited Henry Troe and wife last week.

Mrs. Chas. Fletcher has been very sick with pneumonia, but is reported better at this writing.

Charley and Jesse Ashley and Spencer and Wm. Clark were in Mendon Saturday night and Sunday.

Robert Adams of Cass county, Neb., is here for several weeks' visit at his mother's, Mrs. John Adams.

Messrs. Hiram Piper, Robert Yancey and Jesse Hershey transacted business in Dalton Wednesday.

Roy Shoop and wife of Rothville visited Mrs. Shoop's parents, J. W. Ashley and wife, Sunday last.

J. W. Whiting has purchased the Robert Thomas farm, five miles northwest of here. Consideration, $3,000.

Some of our young people enjoyed a candy-pulling at the home of Wm. Guthridge Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. Ollie Horton of Kansas City returned to her home Saturday after several weeks' visit to friends and relatives in this vicinity.

We are sorry to hear that Tom Hershey is preparing to move to Marceline, having purchased property there some time ago. George Lewis will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Hershey.

Miss Bessie Atwell closed a very successful term of school near here Friday. Miss Bessie has given perfect satisfaction in every respect. She was admired and loved by all who knew her. She leaves a host of friends who deeply regret her departure from our midst.

Tripletts Tones.

W. F. Seneker is quite poorly at this writing.

Buckmaster & Robertson lost a fine horse last week.

B. T. Duffield and J. R. Derry were in Brunswick Friday.

Roy McPherson spent Sunday with his mother east of town.

D. H. Zimmerman transacted business in Brunswick Friday.

Miss Frances Bell was a guest of Miss Birdie Smith over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Peterson of Kansas City are visiting relatives.

Dr. Gord Brown and Miss Alma Gallatin went to Brunswick Saturday.

Miss Jessie Myers visited friends near Newcomer Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bessie Liggett and Maud Bruner were shopping in Brunswick Friday.

Miss Abba McPherson visited with her sister, Mrs. L. W. Macklin, last week.

Miss Lena Brown of Richmond, Mo., is here visiting her parents at this writing.

Mrs. Godard of Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. P. Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dean of near Mendon visited Mrs. G. D. Buckmaster Friday.

S. O. Hayes of south of town returned Monday from a business trip to Sewall, Iowa.

Miss Fannie Gaines of Dean Lake was visiting friends here two or three days last week.

Mrs. Bruce Knight is on the sick list, also Wm. McLaughlin, and Mrs. Frank McPherson.

Prof. C. F. Merrifield spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. W. F. Seneker.

Eld. Surber of Moberly filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. J. Virts and "little son," Henry Orville, attended the school entertainment at Brunswick Friday night.

Miss Mayme Surber, a popular teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Frank Elliott.

Miss Daisy Moling, our popular music teacher, was a guest of Miss Bessie Liggett over Sunday.

A crowd of young folks attended the spelling-school at Snavely schoolhouse Monday night.

J. R. Derry left Saturday via Sumner and Bogard to visit with his sister, Mrs. J. R. Fielder, over Sunday.

Col. Frank Moritz shipped hogs to St. Louis last Wednesday night. He topped the market of 5,000 head.

Miss Maude Bell and Russel Bartow came in Sunday from a visit to the family of B. H. Smith of Brunswick.

Madam Rumor says we will have several weddings in the near future. We will tell more about them later.

A Mr. Nicholson of near Mendon and Miss Gates were married at the parsonage Wednesday, by Rev. J. W. Owen.

Mrs. G. D. Buckmaster was quite sick last week with lagrippe, also Mrs. L. W. Macklin. Both are better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Brunk and Mrs. J. G. Bartow drove to Brunswick Friday night to attend the school entertainment.

We understand that L. Tankersly has bought a residence at Excelsior Springs and will make that place his future home.

J. I. Enyeart tossed us a dollar last week for the best county paper published, the COURIER. We thank you very much, Mr. Enyeart.

Miss Cora Walker, our efficient primary teacher, had appropriate exercises in her room Friday evening in honor of Washington's birthday.

Sparks Henderson closed his term of school Friday, and was a guest of his father's family Sunday, returning to Brunswick Sunday night, where he will resume the study of law.

Mrs. Henry Eubank visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McWilliams, Wednesday day of last week. She was accompanied by her two interesting little sons, Reuben and Otto.

Wednesday at 6 o'clock p. m. Rev. J. W. Owen united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of the bride's father, L. S. Bruner, Ed Moritz and Miss Maude Bruner. We wish these worthy young people much joy and sunshine through life.

Mrs. W. P. Gaines of Little Rock, Ark., came in last Wednesday night, accompanied by a sweet little girl baby, to visit her father, L. S. Bruner, and to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Maud Bruner, and Ed. Moritz, which happy event took place Wednesday, Feb. 26.

Bynumville Breezes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turpin attended to business in Keytesville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Pitts of Westville visited relatives at this place Friday and Saturday.

J. Ford and wife of near Eccles attended church services at Bynumville Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nettie Jackson of near Echo was the guest of her brother, Wm. Eagan, a few days last week.

Dr. W. J. Billiter has purchased the 40 acres of land adjoining his premises on the west and formerly owned by his sister, Mrs. Pitts.

The warm sun the past few days has taken away the snow and moistened the ground, leaving it in fine condition for the small grain.

F. E. Harmon has brought the property formerly occupied by Grandpa Ramsey and owned by Mrs. Wm. H. Ramsey. Consideration, $1,000.

Eld. A. C. Yocum of Salisbury passed through here Saturday en route for Lagonda, where he preached Saturday night and Sunday. He discoursed at Bynumville Monday night.

Ragland White and George Smith, who have been visiting relatives and sweethearts at this place for two months, started for their home at Roscoe, Ills.,

Tuesday. We expect there will now be much weeping and wailing among some of Bynumville's fair ladies.

The Oregon fever, as feared in last week's Breezes, has taken such a hold on Wm. Ramsey that he is preparing to move to that state as soon as possible. Having disposed of his land he expects to be ready to start in about three weeks.

"Grandma" Barry, who was spoken of in last week's COURIER as being so very low, died Tuesday, Feb. 18. She had reached the advanced age of 92 years. Her remains were taken to Meda, Ills., her former home, for burial. Jas. Barry, her son, and his two daughters accompanied the corpse. The bereaved family have our sincere sympathies.

Musselfork Memoirs.

Dr. J. R. Gaines is out for corner.

J. D. Ford was visiting near Mike last week.

Walter Griswold closed his fall and winter term of school Friday.

Wm. Richards and his fair bride left last week to make their future home in Iowa.

Prof. W. A. Stratton finished a six-months' term of school at the Oldham schoolhouse Friday.

M. F. McDonnell, who is making his present home in Illinois, was here the latter part of last week.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the public sale, near Little Hill church, Wednesday of last week.

Rev. E. V. Lamb, a Missionary Baptist, is conducting a series of meetings at the Union church this week.

Rev. J. P. Godbey failed to fill his appointment at Beulah church Sunday, being engaged in a meeting at Adams chapel.

Rockford Racket.

J. N. Finnell went to Salisbury last week on business.

Miss Lena Guilford is visiting Miss Zou Fennell this week.

Alger Harris has moved to Mr. Price's place, near Keytesville.

We hope the boys of this community will get enough fighting after so long a time.

Those on the sick list this week are: George Coy, Mrs. Sidney Coy and Elgin Singleton.

"Aunt" Eliza's valentines are fitting her pretty well. Don't grumble, "Aunt" Eliza.

Trammel Nix of near Dalton visited friends and relatives in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mattie Brockman of near Shannondale is visiting her friend, Miss Mattie Coy of this vicinity.

Miss Sadie Harris and John Coy gave a birthday party at P. C. Harris' Tuesday night. Both were the same age—sweet 16. All present report a good time.

Miss Effie Cooley, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Singleton, for some, went home last Sunday morning to remain while her mother, Mrs. J. T. Cooley of near Scribner, is gone to see her brother, Willie Rice of Cairo, Mo., who is not expected to live at this writing. He has been ailing for some time.

Indian Grove Items.

Miss Carrie Willett spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in Keytesville.

Joseph Thralls and wife visited his brother, Ed. Thralls, and wife of Marceline Saturday and Sunday.

Jesse Ringer and bride of Edmond, O. T., are expected in this week for a visit to relatives and friends.

Dr. A. W. Zillman went to Atchison, Kas., Friday to assist in moving Miss Fay Million to her home at Boonville, Mo.

Mrs. Mollie Dempsey was called to Keytesville Saturday to attend the bedside of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Dempsey.

Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night will be the regular monthly appointments of Rev. Moser. Let every one come out and hear him.

Miss Maud Withers closed a very successful term of school at Prairie chapel Friday, which makes the third year she has taught in that district.

Miss Lizzie Lee of near Brunswick has been employed to teach the coming spring term of school at Hickory Grove. We congratulate the directors on their selection.

A birthday social was given at the home of George Clair and wife Saturday night in honor of the 21st birthday of their son, Frank. A large crowd was in attendance and all report a pleasant time.

Mrs. C. A. Henderson returned home Saturday after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. B. F. Moorman, of near Marceline. She reports Mr. Moorman, who is confined to his bed with pneumonia, as improving slowly.

Sumner Squibs.

B. F. Northcott accompanied your scribe as far as Macon Saturday, where he visited friends in that vicinity.

J. W. McCormick and Miss Jessie Matthews were quietly married Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Florence Matthews, the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. Beistle of Clarence, but formerly of Sumner.

The mice which inhabit the Moated Grange are always out promptly at 10 o'clock a. m. and 6 p. m. to regale on our crumbs. They run around over our feet with impunity, and if we remain longer than usual they are on the table about the plates. But last Saturday, seeing us in our good clothes, there was a general panic and they fled to their retreat.

Your correspondent from Sumner is out on a holiday. By appointment he joined his brother, who is manager of the Courtenay Morgan East Lynne Co. at Macon last Saturday evening, where they played to a full house in Blee's theatre. After passing a quiet Sunday in Macon and going to church, both morning and evening, they boarded the train for La Plata Monday afternoon. There, also, the elite of the city turned out in full force. We write now from Bevier where a large number of seats are already sold, and as this is, fortunately, pay-day for the miners, a large attendance is expected. So far we have not neglected to call upon our conferees, the newspaper men and the photographers, and have found them all very pleasant and congenial.

Salisbury Scribbings.

C. C. Hammond was in Kansas City Tuesday.

Geo. Herman is preparing to move to his farm.

The "sock social" netted the ladies of the C. P. church nearly $50.

Circuit Clerk Lamkin has been over this week writing up his circuit court records.

E. B. Kellogg and C. B. Craw-came over from the capital Monday night on business.

Ed. Allen of near Sumner was in town Wednesday, as was also Percy Birch of Glasgow.

Mayor D. R. Patterson is in Memphis, Tenn., visiting his daughter, who is very ill.

The warm days this week brought out the box-whittlers and blackbirds in great numbers.

Rev. Graham, field man for William Jewel college, preached splendid sermon here Sunday.

Judge Samuel Davis of Marshall was in our city last week looking after his candidacy for supreme judge.

A "flour war" has resulted in the sale of much second grade flour. Boys, give the first grade a whirl and we'll be with you.

Rev. W. B. Watts of Huntsville, who has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at this place, will preach his initial sermon Sunday morning.

Lazar Loeb, late of Lathrop, Mo., has purchased the D. R. Benjamin place west of town and will soon move in. We welcome these good people to our town.

W. H. Bradley went to Forest Green Saturday to defend a corn-stealing coon, but as his coonship is now at Hotel de Veatch, the COURIER can give particulars.

Dr. Mary A. Markee, osteopath, has opened an office for practice in the P.-S. building. She is a sister-in-law to J. F. Pratt and will occupy a portion of his offices.

Copeland Green, the 3-year-old son of O. N. Green, whose leg was broken by a fall several weeks ago, is slowly improving and will be out in about two weeks. The little fellow has had a tough siege, and those who waited on him about the same.

Miss Daisy Neal left for St. Louis Tuesday night for the pur-

Special Sale

During the month of March, 1902,
I have concluded to inaugurate a

Big Cut-Rate Sale

on Farming Implements, Wagons and Buggies, and will sell cheaper during March than any month in the year.

..Remember..

I handle the standard makes of Farming Implements, and when you buy from me you get the very best to be had in the market. Will trade implements, wagons and buggies for any kind of marketable live stock.

H. C. ATTERBURY,
MENDON, MO.

A General Favorite.

SEE THAT THIS
Queen Quality
TRADE MARK
IS BRANDED ON EVERY SHOE.

Kibo Kid.
Medium
Heavy
Welt Sole.
Low Heel.
Exact Reproduction of this Style Shoe

ONE OF MANY STYLES

Beautiful, Comfortable, Serviceable.
Elegance with Ease.

ONE PRICE
ALWAYS... $3.00

Not Enough...

that a shoe should be "pretty" and "durable." Unless it FITS it's a failure. The....

QUEEN QUALITY
SHOE FOR WOMEN

always FITS. This fact has made these shoes famous wherever introduced.

Big reductions on Rubbers, Overshoes and all other Rubber Goods in our line.

STRUB & MEYER

BRUNSWICK : : : MISSOURI

Reduced Prices!

Good Work!

Square Dealing!

To Farmers—Look at my Prices:

Shoeing team all around with
New Shoes - - - - -	$1.50
Resetting Old Shoes, each -	12½c
Plowshares - - - - -	1.75
Lister-Shares $1.75 to - - -	2.50
Best Steel Plow Points - - -	45c
Cultivator Shovel Points - -	95c

Remember I positively will not be undersold by anybody and guarantee all work left with me to be neatly done. Thanking you sincerely for past patronage and soliciting a continuance of same, I am,
Very truly yours,
D. Iglehart, Dalton, Mo.

pose of entering the Baptist sanitarium. She received a hurt some time ago while moving a piano, resulting in something like dropsy. Her grandfather accompanied her and will remain with her some time.

Saturday a colored man, who had placed himself outside of too much hard cider, demanded of Chas. Holderle a few extra drinks, which, being refused, he proceeded to make a "rough house." This Charlie resented, and, seizing an oldshoe, tried to force his coonship from the room. A fight followed in which Charlie was worsted. The negro was arrested and taken to the lock-up to cool off and get sober. We did not learn what he paid for his experience.

Last year after the Sneed damage suit our city authorities made a general assault on old, dilapidated sidewalks. They threw many of them into the streets and ordered the owners to put down new ones. In most cases these orders were obeyed, but in some they were ignored, and the walks have remained out all winter. The spring thaw is causing these places to become ways of mud and slush, and the unfortunate pedestrian who is forced to use them is rapidly contracting habits of profanity that are fast becoming alarming. When will our city dads right this wrong?

Correspondence continued on 4th page