Fleeing from responsibility is hiding from reward.

Most men may be known by the way they use money.

The door to friendship with Christ lies in the path of service.

It is more difficult for some men to collect their wits than their bills.

Any candidate who is knifed at the polls is apt to feel somewhat cut up.

Some people tell the truth when they can't think of anything else to tell.

If men prayed as long as God would listen they would never cease.

Our Lord can hardly be pleased with our offerings of the dog's crumbs.

It is a deplorable fact that a girl can never get her first kiss but once.

You shall be none the worse to-morrow for having been happy to-day.

Some husbands are devoted to their wives and some are devoted to themselves.

People who find fault look in vain for a reward in the lost and found columns.

Many a fellow has asked to be presented to a girl who wouldn't take him as a gift.

Before some preachers condemn a sin, they investigate its financial standing.

When you carry your heart in your pocket, your hands will get into your neighbor's.

A propensity to hope and joy is real riches. One to fear and sorrow, real poverty.

A man is seldom a cynic unless he has something wrong with his digestive apparatus.

The widow is so innocent a slip of paper can teach her anything she doesn't seem to know.

When people fall in love at first sight they often regret that they didn't take another look.

All a man needs to do to get a woman to do something is to find out what she wants to do and tell her to do it.

It seems funny to see persons on a church reception committee who hate some people so that they will not even speak to them.

The man who lets his wife buy his neckties for him is the same man who lets her decide for him that he doesn't like to smoke in the house.

The same man who locks the stable door after the horse is stolen sits down to consider the serious side of matrimony after he had gone and done it.

There are three ways to win a woman's affections; one is to keep telling her how much you love her and the other two are to keep telling her how nice she looks.

If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man should keep his friendship in constant repair.

It always makes a woman have confidence in a man when he comes home smelling like a bar room for him to say casually: My, I wish I hadn't taken that drink to-day with the president of my bank.

Ex-Attorney-General Churchill Writes in his characteristic way: "Mrs. Churchill has used your Dr. Kay's Renovator and been greatly benefited thereby. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn will be avoided. For sale by Richardson Drug Co.

GOVERNOR HEARD of Louisiana has vetoed a bill providing that no text book which fails to give Admiral Schley credit for the victory of Santiago shall be used in the public schools of that state, and at the same time the governor declares himself a warm admirer of Schley. The Governor is to be commended. If the people are careful in selecting their boards of education, they can be relied upon to select proper text books.

Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one of the best patent medicines manufactured, and which is always kept on hand at the home of every scribe. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in the summer-time.—Lansing (Iowa) Journal. For sale by Richardson Drug Co.
