

TOO WARM--DOWN GO THE PRICES

The warm weather has forced us to put a price upon our merchandise lower than has ever been put upon any stock in North Missouri. We need the money; you will need the goods as soon as the weather turns cold.

Misses Aggie and Rosa McDonald returned home Saturday from Kansas City, where they had been visiting friends for some time.

Messrs. Ira Taylor and Lewis Lisle are in Mississippi prospecting with the view to trading Sumner property for Mississippi land.

The time has come when everyone should observe the 14th commandment which reads: "Attend to your own business and let the affairs of others alone."

Saturday seemed to be confession day with some, while others were disposed to be pugilistic. No gore was spilt nor was the town treasury replenished.

Jay Fulbright has a corn-sheller in operation, which shells 2,000 bushels a day and runs it into the car. Frank P. McCormick has charge of the engine that furnishes the power.

The boy, who sent his brother to ask his mother if he could go to prayer-meeting a few nights ago, took his best girl home with him Sunday to eat chicken. Who'll be next, children?

Deputy Sheriff S. J. Shaughnessy was here Saturday on official business and arranged for some of "the boys" to appear as defendants at the November term of circuit court.

As will be seen by those who read the COURIER, the county court made an order Monday to build a bridge across the slough, north of Sumner, on road leading from Sumner to Meadville.

Friday night when the train arrived in Sumner at 8:04 some one landed a blow on Henry Jacobs' jaw and then ran. Mr. Jacobs, who is a peaceable citizen, don't know who it was that struck him, but if the party is found he will be made to realize that his fun has cost him more than it was worth.

A left-handed reporter must have been on duty at Brunswick last Friday, November 7, at the trial, wherein Constable Thos. A. Hancock of this (Cunningham) township will have to pay the costs in the case of the state against Robinson Bros. of Sumner for the alleged illegal sale of beer to said Hancock on Sunday, March 23, last.

Frank Klepper spent two days here last week as legal adviser to his brother, W. R. Klepper. Frank was re-elected as prosecuting attorney of Caldwell county. He says that renegade Republicans bolted and did all they could to defeat him, but that Democrats came to his rescue and elected him. He has made it hot for the dives and drug store men for selling booze, hence the opposition, but he won out by 320 majority.

A delegation composed of about thirty of our citizens went to Brunswick Friday, either as witnesses or defendants in case of the state against S. E. and Sam Robinson of this place, to appear in Justice J. I. Crossland's court. The prosecuting witness was our high constable, Thos. A. Hancock, who charged the defendants with having sold him and John Tucker two glasses of beer Sunday, March 23, 1902. The state was represented by C. C. Bigger of Laclede and Prosecuting Attorney L. N. Dempsey, while J. A. Collet of Keytesville and Chas. E. Finch of Brunswick were of counsel for the defense. Both sides answered ready for trial and defendants' attorneys asked for a jury, which request was granted. At 1:30 o'clock p. m. the attorneys made their opening statements, after which Thos. A. Hancock took the witness stand and testified that he and Tucker bought and drank the beer on the Lord's day. Three other witnesses, including Tucker, swore they did not. The state "fell down" with its case before it got through with Hancock's evidence. After the argument of the attorneys the case was submitted to the jury, who returned a verdict of "not guilty" in about five minutes. The costs were taxed up against Hancock, who had been required by Justice A. W. Guillod of Triplett, who issued the warrant for the arrest of the Robinson boys, to give bond for costs. The case was taken from Justice Guillod's to Justice J. I. Crossland's court in Brunswick township.
