Colonial, 322 Dearborn St., Chicago

Brookfield's water supply is again getting short, but there is no complaint made of a dearth of beer and other beverages. Then's when the long and loud howls will occur.

Rector Arthur McElwain, formerly of Brookfield, has been called to the pastorate of St. Paul Episcopal church in Kansas City. The position pays $2,000 a year.

W. L. Anderson, a Lawrence, Kas., merchant, whose wife and little daughter left home last April and have since kept their whereabouts a mystery, found them at Bucklin last week, but the wife refused to return home with him. It is said that he will take legal steps to regain the custody of the little girl.

A Love Letter
Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles. Ottc Dodd, of Ponder, Mo. writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth. 25c at W. C. Gaston's Drug Store.

Two of the men in Gentry Bros.' show had a knock-down argument at Carrollton Sunday night. One of the belligerents had the other arrested, but the case was dismissed when called up before Police Judge Hale. Probably the judge wanted to go to the show, and didn't care to break it up by putting one of the showmen in the cooler.

The Brookfield Budget of last week under the caption of "Who's Who and What's What in Linn County" presented a creditable picture and splendid write-up of R. J. Wheeler of that city, but the Budget said not a word in his praise that was not deserved. Mr. Wheeler is the largest taxpayer in Linn county, he paying $1,800 a year in revenues for all purposes.

Confessions of a Priest.
Rev. Jno. S. Cox of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by W. C. Gaston. Only 50c.

A crazy drunken man took possession of the Wabash depot at Carrollton Tuesday afternoon and ran things to suit himself. The first thing he ran was Agent Shauency out of the waiting-room. The agent procured reinforcements and held the obstreperous fellow at bay until officers could come to arrest him. He was subsequently given orders to leave town and left.

John Smith and John Dick, the former an ex and the latter present saloon-keeper of Laclede, mixed in mortal combat Wednesday, the trouble growing out of a controversy over an icebox belonging to Dick Bros., the brewers of Quincy, Ills. The fight was ended when John Dick struck John Smith over the head with a club, cutting a gash which it required nine stitches to close. Dick went before a justice, pleaded guilty to assault and was fined a nominal sum and costs.

Mrs. W. A. Willis, Sr., of Carrollton fell and broke her left arm at the wrist as she stepped off the porch at the residence of a neighbor, Ferd Snider, Saturday evening.

Carrollton has a new kid, but it is not a youngster as you might suppose. It is Sam'l W. Kidd, an auctioneer, who inaugurated monthly stock sales there Saturday, Oct. 3.

Broke Into His House.
S. Le Quinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure. 25c at W. C. Gaston's Drug Store.

George Smith, col., was fined $5 and costs by Police Judge Hale of Carrollton Monday afternoon for resisting arrest for boisterous conduct in Jackson's saloon. Another negro named Harvey was fined $1 and costs for interfering with the officers in their efforts to arrest George Smith.

Chas. Lathen, a laborer of Albia, Iowa, attempted to board a rapidly moving Santa Fe freight train as it passed the depot in Marceline Thursday evening, and has one arm less than he had before. His left arm was crushed by the cruel car wheels and had to be amputated below the shoulder joint.

Burglars effected an entrance to the People's bank at Hale Monday night, knocked the knob off the safe door and were getting ready to drill a hole in the door and blow the safe open when the would-be free-booters were discovered and fled. Certain parties are suspected and are under surveillance.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—HOLLEY BROS., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by O. B. Anderson & Son.

A stranger, who was subsequently captured at Meadville and who gave his name as Roy Roberts and said he was a member of a theatrical company, snatched a chataleine purse, containing $11, a note for $20 and other articles, from Mrs. Julia Wood, matron of the normal school at Stanberry, while she was, at the depot in Chillicothe Tuesday night waiting for a train to return home. When arraigned in Justice Harper's court Wednesday afternoon Roberts pleaded guilty to the theft and was sentenced to the county jail for six months.

Saves Two From Death.
"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine, and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by W. C. Gaston. Trial bottles free.

When Jeweler A. B. McDonald of Chillicothe had a couple walk into his establishment Saturday afternoon and ask to look at some rings he pleasantly anticipated the sale of a finger encirler as an engagement ring. The jeweler turned his back for a moment and one of the rings disappeared. Mr. McDodald missed it and kept a closer watch on the couple, who finally said they would not make a purchase that day, but would call again. When they started out of the store the proprietor intercepted them and told them of his suspicions. The young lady looked daggers at her companion and he disgorged the missing ring from his mouth where he had temporarily placed it as a hiding place. After recovering the ring Mr. McDodald made no further ado and permitted the couple to leave without having them arrested.

Mrs. Mary M. Hughes of Beaver was granted a divorce from her husband, David R. Hughes, at the recent September term of the Macon circuit court and was awarded $4,000 alimony. Mr. Hughes left his wife 19 years ago, and is now living in Ohio. She can recover the alimony out of property he has in Macon county.

While Farmer Heaf and family of near Wheeling were going home from church in town Sunday a Burlington engine draw a train struck his team as he was crossing the railroad track, and injured one of the horses so it had to be killed. The carriage tongue was broken out, but the carriage was not far enough on the railroad track for any of the occupants to get hurt.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Ray, N. Y., ran a 10-penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by O. B. Anderson & Son.

The Chillicothe Constitution tells of the registering at the Luella hotel in that city Wednesday night of I. Greenman, a middle-aged man, and niece, Pearl Anderson, aged 13, of Killerton, Iowa, and who were arrested in their room shortly after supper by Sheriff Daly of Chillicothe. The charge filed against Greenman by Prosecuting Attorney Miller was attempted seduction. The girl admitted that she had consented to Greenman's advances on condition that he buy her a pair of shoes and a watch which he did and that she was preparing to fill her promise when arrested. She said she had been working at Greenman's home in Killerton and that he was taking her to her brother, Dan Anderson, at Triplett. With this state of affairs confronting them there was nothing left for the officials to do but release the pair. Greenman denied the girl's story as to the seduction part of it. He left Chillicothe Thursday morning, but the girl was held until her relatives at Triplett could be heard from.
