

BORDER COUNTY NOTES.

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1904

CARROLL.

Nine carloads of cattle were shipped from Tina Tuesday.

John Cogburn, a groceryman of Norborne, died Thursday.

The late heavy rains have put many of the bridges in Carroll county in bad shape.

Mrs. James Madison died at her home, northwest of Norborne, Thursday night, aged 72 years.

Wm. Stauffer of Mandeville died Thursday in his 70th year. A widow and five children remain.

With the assistance of some of his neighbors Jack Snider one day last week killed over 300 rats, and 35 of them were found in one burrough.

For the first time in 11 years the venerable Dr. Tull of Carrollton was able to attend church last Sunday. He is slowly recovering his strength.

George Washington, col., swore out a warrant Sunday charging Albert Carr, another negro, with taking a brass horn from the band-room in Carrollton.

A son of J. N. Caulk of Coloma happened to a serious and painful accident one day last week. While splicing wire one piece struck him in the eye, putting it out entirely.

The Missouri river near George Duncan's farm, not far from De Witt, has been cutting the bank badly of late. Long-distance telephone poles have been washed out and Ed Duncan's sawmill, near the place, has been moved.

A gallant young gentleman of Norborne on discovering a young lady of 135 pounds avoirdupois, picking her way across a muddy street, generously lifted her up and carried her to the other side. When he let her down she exclaimed: "O, I forgot something, let's go back."

Mrs. G. N. Hill, after a short illness, died at her home in Hill township Tuesday in her 86th year. She and her husband, who survives her, have lived in Carroll county since 1836. She was a native of Tennessee, was a member of the Methodist church for 50 years and was married 68 years ago.

The nameless man, who was arrested in Carrollton last week and taken to Kirksville as a suspect of being one of the parties to a burglary in that city not long since, confessed his guilt when he got to Kirksville, and, no doubt, will be sent to the penitentiary. He says his home is in Kentucky, but refuses to tell his name.

About 400 persons turned out one evening last week to attend the contest held in the Wilcoxson opera-house at Carrollton between students of the Lexington and Carrollton High schools for the best young gentleman and lady speakers, and also for the team of debaters. The award for the best speakers was given to R. M. Holden of Carrollton and Miss Elaine Campbell of Lexington. Carrolltonians won the decision for the debate.

MARRIAGES.

H. Milton Jarboe and Miss Ethel G. Valbracht, both of Carrollton.

Edward F. Brockman of Kansas City and Miss Lillie Berning of Carrollton.

Albert Trantow of Houston, Tex., and Miss Lydia Haunsz of Norborne.

HOWARD.

The Chicago Produce Co. of Armstrong received a carload of sugar Sunday, containing 35,000 pounds.

Mrs. Virginia Taylor, nee Davis, died at the home of her daughter in Roanoke Saturday, aged 77 years.

The special meetings in the Baptist church at Glasgow closed Friday night with nine additions to the church.

Reed and Folk delegates for the township primaries for May 7, were filed with the county central committee Saturday.

Benjamin Griffin, 84 years of age, died at his son's residence, near Fayette, Saturday. He leaves two sons and one daughter.

Informations have been filed with the prosecuting attorney of Howard county charging a number of prominent persons of Glasgow with using money illegally in the recent city election at that place.

While assisting in putting up an awning in front of Kaufman's store in Fayette Wednesday, Frank Skillman fell from a ladder to the brick pavement and received injuries which caused death a few hours later.

Folk had an appointment to speak at Fayette last Saturday. Subsequently Mr. Reed published an appointment to speak at the same hour. Folk went to the opera-house and Reed to the courthouse. We have not heard as to the turn out.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Pritchett college at Glasgow Wednesday, it was decided to tender the presidency of the college to Rev. G. M. Gibson, now pastor of the M. E. church, South, at Richmond, Mo. We have not heard as to the acceptance of the place.

Charles Stewart, an estimable citizen of New Franklin, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. N. G. Elliott, Wednesday. He was a native of Howard county, born in 1831. He held the office of circuit clerk consecutively 16 years. He was a bachelor and is survived by four sisters and one brother.

Miss Lena Morris of Columbia and teacher in the High school at Armstrong had the misfortune to lose a $20 bill Saturday morning. A fruitless search was made for the missing treasure, when some one suggested that her loss ought to be made up to her. The generous citizens responded readily and the young lady was permitted to go on her way rejoicing and with thanks to the contributors.

MARRIAGES.

Emmett Street and Miss Lena Crawford, both of east of Fayette.

Paul A. Klayder of Fayette and Miss Mary Twyman of Armstrong.

Walter K. Long of Boonville and Miss Etta Lee Snoddy of Armstrong.

Frank Burroughs of near Rocheport and Miss Birdie Snell of New Franklin.

Charles McClammer of Cooper county and Miss Matilda Brown of Howard county.

LINN.

A dog, supposed to be mad, was killed at Bucklin Sunday.

A. N. Parker, a merchant of Brookfield, died Wednesday in his 43rd year.

The district conference of the M. E. church, South, for the Macon district convened in Marceline Tuesday.

Jim Hurt, a Santa Fe section hand was given 10 days in the Linneus jail for being drunk and disorderly at Brookfield.

A syndicate of insurance agents visited Brookfield one day last week and agreed to raise the risks in that city about 25 per cent.

The overflow of the Mussel-fork about Marceline washed out a great many culverts and small bridges, making travel very difficult.

J. L. Huffman of Linneus bought the fine Shire stallion, last week from an Indiana man, paying $2,000 for him. The animal weighs 2,000.

Some one broke into the depot at Purdin one night last week and stole a few bottles of beer. As Purdin is a dry town, the Budget doesn't think a Purdin-ite stole the beer.

Estella Cooper, a dusky damsel from Chillicothe, was arrested in Brookfield one day last week for stealing a watch, and Wednesday was appointed as the day for trial.

While bridge repairer, Warful, who makes his headquarters at Bucklin, was working on a steel plate a chip struck him in the eye, which came near causing the loss of the sight.

P. W. Gee, a traveling man from Nashville, Tenn., died on the train Wednesday. His remains were taken off the train at Brookfield, prepared for burial and sent to his home.

Mrs. Mary Stephenson of Linneus was reported last week very ill at the home of her daughter in St. Louis. She is an excellent woman, a sister to Mrs. Brady and the Perkins brothers of Linneus.

W. R. Lewis, a traveling fakir, charged with selling cigars in Brookfield without a license was fined $5 and costs Thursday, amounting to $13.25. Not having the cash he was sent to jail at Linneus for 10 days.

Hon. Ed Barton, legislative representative from Linn county dreamed Friday night that all the counties that voted next day on governor went for Folk and he believed it, and sure enough they did. That was easy. A fellow might have dreamed that with his eyes open.

MARRIAGES.

Frank Smith and Miss Alice Cordway, both of North Salem.

Arthur Brown of Hybrid and Miss Ether Wallace of Winnigan.

Ervill E. Warwick and Miss Elsie E. Loomis, both of Brookfield.

J. R. O'Donnell and Miss Margaret Duligan, both of Brookfield.

Samuel T. Bradley of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Miss Belle Watson of Brookfield.

LIVINGSTON.

William Gift of Chula died Sunday, aged about 65 years.

Mrs. Vera Goodson of Jackson township died Thursday, aged 29 years.

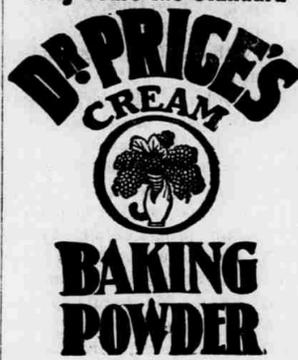

John Gash of near Eversonville died Thursday of paralysis, aged 90 years.

John Wills a native of England and a highly-respected citizen of Chillicothe, died Friday in his 73rd year.

Many of the low bottom farms of Livingston county were greatly damaged by the late rains and overflows.

On a charge of assaulting J. Sutliff, J. C. Coldiron of Ludlow

Fifty Years the Standard

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO. CHICAGO

was fined $20 and costs in a Chillicothe court Tuesday.

Three tramps picked up by the police in the railroad yards at Chillicothe Monday night were fined $5, each, and costs.

Mrs. Martha Jones, an estimable widow, born in Livingston county in 1845, died at her home, near Chillicothe, Monday morning.

Rev. A. Hunt, a Baptist minister, died at the home of his son, near Avalon, Thursday, aged 72 years, leaving a wife and seven children.

Joe Dewker of Ludlow was taken to St. Mary's hospital in Chillicothe Tuesday and operated on for appendicitis by Drs. Simpson & Simpson.

While Rube Treon of near Lock Springs was driving posts Monday he had the misfortune to lose two fingers from his right hand. They were struck with a maul.

The new Baptist church at Chillicothe has been completed, and last Sunday was the day appointed for its dedication. Rev. S. Y. Pitts a former pastor, now of Salisbury, accompanied by his wife was expected to be there Wednesday night and conduct the first prayer-meeting in the new church.

MARRIAGES.

James Belske and Miss Bertha Sparling, both of Chula.

Arthur Campbell and Miss Mayme Bryan, both of Chillicothe.

Chas. I McKinley and Miss Maude Taylor, both of Chillicothe.

Chas. Fauss of St. Joseph and Miss Bess Rhea Taft of Chillicothe.

Oscar Atkinson and Miss Julia Clawson, both of Breckenridge.

George J. Davis of Meadville and Miss Ella M. Venghaus of Quincy.

MACON.

Mrs. John McBeth of Bloomington died Saturday in her 28th year.

Mrs. Lawranza Walker of Round Grove township died Wednesday in her 77th year.

Mrs. Maidie Clarkson Hadley of Macon died Friday in her 37th year. She leaves a husband and mother.

Isaac White of Bevier is in jail at Macon having been sentenced to 52 days for stealing $12 from Kraft Willard.

Initial steps are being taken to build a union church at Lingo—something that is badly needed as there is no house of worship in the town.

The 2-year-old son of Henry Hartung of Ten Mile was terribly burned one day last week by his clothing catching fire from a stove. His sister was badly burned in trying to rescue him.

Three young men of Bevier boarded a Burlington train at Chariton station Friday to ride to Bevier, but the conductor pulled them off when one of them fired a double-barreled shotgun at him. Warrants were issued for all three of them.

Through a copy of the Macon Republican, which told a story of a mother's search for a daughter, the two were re-united in Chicago recently after a separation of 12 years. Another daughter from whom the mother was separated at the same time has not been found.

Marshal Hull of Kirksville was taking a girl to the Industrial home at Chillicothe Tuesday. He had to change cars at Macon and while he was at the window buying tickets the girl disappeared and no trace of her could be found until Wednesday when she was delivered at the home. The girl weighs over 200 pounds and is only 16 years old.

After a separation of 37 years, each supposing the other dead, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore of Macon and her son, John T. Moore, were united in Kansas City, Kas., through an advertisement in a daily paper. Before the civil war Mrs. Moore, her husband and six children lived on a farm, north of Brunswick. The husband was killed and mention is not made as to how the mother and children were separated.

RANDOLPH.

James Durben of Moberly died Tuesday, aged 55 years. He leaves a wife and several children.

Several gentlemen about Thomas Hill went to the Chariton river last week and caught a goodly number of fish.

Ed Dickerson of Moberly died Tuesday, aged 57 years. He leaves a wife, mother, three brothers and two sisters.

The Randolph springs were opened Sunday with a baseball game, played by the Moberly Signals and the Mexico Blues.

J. D. Coulter, a Wabash employe, died in the Wabash hospital at Moberly Tuesday. A son and a daughter survive him.

The residence of J. J. Whitmore, living near Higbee, with its contents was burned Friday night. Insured in the Randolph Mutual for $200.

Wm. P. Vandergrift, who has been in jail at Huntsville charged with bigamy, is out on bond expecting to be tried at the next term of circuit court.

Lewis F. Wilhite of Huntsville, formerly of Columbia, died Saturday. He leaves a family of six children. His remains were taken to Columbia for interment.

The editor of the Huntsville Herald, who has been an unrelentless anti-Folk fighter, announces his intention of coming in and surrendering after July 19.

Blair G. Harry, a Wabash brakeman, was killed at Randolph last Sunday. He got off of the excursion train to set a switch and was struck by a Burlington engine.

While out hunting Wednesday, Dan McCart of Huntsville was accidentally shot through the hand by a bullet from a 22-target rifle in the hands of his 12-year-old brother.

J. W. Brogan of Cairo was tried at Huntsville Thursday on a charge of threatening to carve one Miles with a jack-knife. We have not heard the result of the trial.

Gypsies have been so numerous in Moberly of late and so persistent in begging and fortune-telling that they are regarded as nuisances and Chief of Police Patterson has rounded them up and compelled them to move on.

George Dodson, the fellow that had a street duel with Officer Sam Magruder about a month ago at Moberly, and who gave his name as Chas. O. Hogan and is now in the Huntsville jail awaiting trial, is wanted at Fulton, Kas., for attempting to rob a bank in company with two others. These two were with Dodson in Moberly, but were released by the authorities as nothing could be found against them, and their whereabouts are now unknown.

MARRIAGES.

Judge A. H. Waller and Miss Annie James, both of Moberly. Henry Limerick and Miss Frances Brown, both of Moberly.

Walter Landree and Miss Annie Blackwell, both of Moberly.

SALINE.

Mrs. Paul Simon of Marshall died Thursday in her 36th year.

Mrs. Orson King of Little Rock died Tuesday. She leaves a husband and infant daughter.

Dan Burton, a respectable colored man of Slater, died Friday, aged about 70 years.

Andrew J. Nickell of the Good Hope neighborhood died Sunday in his 61st year. Two children survive.

A young negro named Adams, while scuffling with another negro named Kirtley at Miami Sunday, was shot in the thigh.

Mrs. Sterling Smith of near Slater died Thursday. She leaves an afflicted husband and two little girls to mourn their loss.

Two of the rural free delivery mail routes out of Marshall have been abandoned on account of washouts. On one of the routes as many as 15 bridges were gone.

In the U. S. court at Kansas City Tuesday Claude Whiteman, who was arrested at Slater some time since, was sentenced to the Bates county jail for six months on a charge of using the mails in an attempt to defraud.

The Pollock mill at Gilliam was burglarized Saturday night. The safe door was blown off and about $9 taken. One of the company's books was missing. Some tramps were seen loitering about the premises Saturday and are believed to be the guilty parties.

John Hanna, while driving a four-horse team across a small bridge on the Miami and Brunswick road Monday, lost a mule. The bridge gave way and the team was thrown into a ditch six or eight feet deep, and the harness choked a mule to death before it could be gotten out.

The Miami News says: "A fellow not a thousand miles from here ordered a pair of gum boots from a Chicago mail-order house because they were quoted 35 cts. cheaper than the dealers here asked for them. He paid 75 cts. express charges and they did not fit. He is thinking of walking to Chicago to get them exchanged."

MARRIAGES.

Joseph Bogge of Paxico, Kas., and Miss Voda Cox of Blosser.

Joseph F. Ford and Miss Rebecca Taylor, both of Waverly. George W. Wood of Slater and Miss Julia V. Yates of Nor-ton.

Garnet R. Hutcherson of Shackelford and Miss Lillian Becraft of Marshall.

"Facts are Stubborn Things."

And it is a fact that we can and do loan money to farmers on better average terms, at lower average rates and more quickly than almost any other loan agency in this part of Missouri.

We furnish strictly accurate abstracts from the latest and completest set of abstract books.

All work critically revised and corrected.

No imperfect work allowed to leave the office.

We cure defects in titles.

We don't try to do things, we do them.

No charge for talk, so come and see us.

MINTER & CRAWLEY, KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.
N. B. A change in the firm name will occur in next ad.