

Border County Notes

Friday, May 18, 1906

CARROLL.

Henry Stark of Trotter township sold a span of mules Friday for $425.

George Clark, aged 40 years, died at his home, east of Bogard, Saturday night.

Vallie Exalle, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Smith of Coloma, died Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Johnson, who died in Chillicothe Monday, was buried in the Coloma cemetery Wednesday.

The remains of Mrs. Allie Taney, who died in Kansas City Saturday afternoon, were buried in the Bradey cemetery Friday.

A. B. Lineberry of Hale had two barns struck by lightning Monday night and one fine sow killed. The loss is estimated at $150.

Henry Horning of Tina died of pneumonia Saturday night. Deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn his death.

Geo. F. Crutchley of Norborne, who has been publishing the Richmond Democrat for the past year, has retired and has been succeeded by Carl White.

Geo. Johnson died at his home in South Carrollton Friday night. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Wakefield Standley post, G. A. R.

R. W. Backenstos, who has been in the hardware business in Norborne for nearly 30 years, sold out to Belt Bros. & Shifferdecker, and will move to San Francisco.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Ford, who died in St. Louis Monday, were shipped to Carrollton for interment. Mrs. Ford was at one time a resident of Carrollton.

Ex Governor A. M. Dockery delivered a speech at the county convention in Carrollton Tuesday. A hot time was had and anti-Folk men were much in evidence.

A carload of hogs of the "Arkansas breed" was sold in Norborne Friday. The Arkansawyers are one-half snout and the other half hog.

Lida, the 10 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, died in Kansas City Tuesday of brain fever. The remains were shipped to Carrollton Wednesday and interred in the Powell cemetery.

Gilbert Smith, aged 50 years, became violent from urine poison and was taken to Carrollton Saturday morning and locked up in the insane cell at the jail. He grew rapidly worse and was taken back home Friday morning where he died at 6 o'clock that evening. Mr. Smith is a brother of John Smith of Sugar-tree who went insane last fall and is now in the insane hospital at St. Joe.

CARROLL MARRIAGES.

J. E. Ellis and Miss Odessa Brock, both of Carrollton.

HOWARD.

The ladies of the Baptist church of Fayette have ordered a $1,200 organ for their church.

W. S. Cox of Fayette shipped a fine Scotch Collie female to a party in Illinois last week. Consideration, $40.

Mrs. Bettie Wilkerson, aged 50 years, died at her home, near Bobsboro, Friday, as the result of accidental burns.

The property of Mrs. Laura Miller in New Franklin, fronting on main street, was sold last week for $40 a front foot.

Will Burge was kicked in the breast while driving some horses into a barn at the home of Harry Shores of Roanoke Friday. He was unconscious for sometime, but will recover.

S. T. Mobley, superintendent of the Howard county poor-farm, and his son-in-law, Omer Andrews, killed a monster rattlesnake in a woods pasture Thursday. The snake had 11 rattles and a button.

Mrs. John Talbot of Fayette had 87 small chickens stolen from the brooder in her back yard Saturday night. Another haul like that and the prospect for chicken pie at the Talbot mansion won't be so blooming.

A new carpenter-shop and contents belonging to Charles Fisher of Fayette was destroyed by fire Friday. The fire originated in some shavings on the floor and was a mass of flames before scarcely anything could be saved. Mr. Fisher had $150 worth of tools. He carried $200 insurance on shop and contents.

Mrs. A. B. Price of Glasgow had a narrow escape Tuesday evening. She was sitting by a lamp, reading, when a celluloid comb in her hair caught fire. Considerable hair was burned off her head before the blaze was extinguished.

Frederick Heaster breathed his last, alone, sometime between the hour of 4 and 6 o'clock Wednesday a. m. while reposing on his couch in his suite of rooms in Glasgow. Mr. Heaster was born in Germany January 29, 1845. At the age of 14 years he came to America with his parents, locating in Glasgow where he had spent the remainder of his life.

The following gentlemen were the winners in the recent Democratic primary in Howard county; Representative, John A. Woods; county clerk, W. D. Settle; sheriff, G. D. Gibson; treasurer, D. J. Briggs; collector, G. G. Smith; judge eastern district, J. M. Settle; judge western district, Howard Sartin; presiding judge of county court, John Kingsbury; circuit clerk and recorder, N. F. Frazier; probate judge, John R. Hairston; prosecuting attorney, A. W. Walker; coroner, J. Y. Miller.

HOWARD MARRIAGES.

Arthur Garrett of Fayette and Miss Callie Darnell of Kirkeville. Louis Sapp of Greely, Colo., and Miss Bernice Morris of Armstrong.

MACON.

Homer, a son of Jake Linn of Ardmore, died Saturday.

The Nebraska Indians defeated the Ethel Blues in a game of base ball by a score of 26 to 3.

The Macon district Epworth league held a three-days' session at Macon beginning Monday, May 14.

The board of aldermen of Bevier are in a deadlock over the appointments of a policeman, treasurer and street commissioner.

John Reed, aged 54, of Bevier answered the final summons Thursday. His death was due to inflammatory rheumatism and heart trouble.

"Uncle" Tommy Conner of Keota has been numbered with the dead. He was 90 years old, and leaves a wife and three sons and eight daughters.

Richard Cross of near Keota passed to the great beyond Sunday from internal injuries he received from being thrown out

DR. PRICE'S BAKING POWDER

Good health depends mostly upon the food we eat.
We can't be healthy if we take alum or other poison daily in our food.
Dr. Price's Baking Powder is absolutely free from alum. It is made from pure cream of tartar and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.
CHICAGO.

NOTE.—Baking powders that are sold at ten to thirty cents a pound, or a cent an ounce are made from alum. Avoid them.

of his wagon at Macon not long since. He was nearly 46 years old, and leaves a wife and four sons and two daughters.

Fifty-three graduates blossomed from the grammar department of the Macon public schools this year, and were given certificates entitling them to enter the high school.

The 5-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White, Jr., of Ten Mile was smothered to death in bed Monday. Mrs. White awoke and found the babe lying on its face, dead.

Mrs. Tabitha Morgan, widow of the late T. J. Morgan of Russell township, departed this life Sunday at the age of 78 years. Deceased was born in South Wales, but had lived in this country since 1851 and in Macon since 1864. Six children survive her.

Dr. Edward C. Still, aged 82, was gathered to his fathers at the home of his son, Thos. A. Still of Macon, Tuesday morning from the effects of injuries he received in a fall three months ago. He was both a preacher and a physician, and delivered the first discourse ever delivered in Macon county by a minister of the M. E. church and also administered the first dose of medicine ever given by prescription from a physician in that county. Dr. Still was born in Virginia, but had made his home in Macon county since 1837, first settling at old Bloomington, but had lived in Macon since the early 60's. His wife died in 1882. Seven children were born to them, but only two sons are now living.

MACON MARRIAGES.

John Dixon and Mrs. May Hall, both of Macon.

H. E. Dunkin of Macon and Miss Stella Wright of Bevier

Charles B. Truitt and Mrs. Kate Dunaway, both of Macon.

Benjamin L. Overfelt and Miss Annie E. Lee, both of Jacksonville.

William H. Emert and Miss Nannie Williams, both of La-Plata.

LINN.

Wolf Krampfer, aged 66 years, passed away at his home in Brookfield Tuesday.

The citizens of Meadville and vicinity raised over $100 one day last week for grading the roads, south of that city.

Mrs. Katherine Smith, aged 80 years, passed to the great beyond Tuesday at the home of her son, H. T. Smith, northeast of Brookfield.

Fifty men and teams are at work in the Santa Fe yards at Marceline, widening the track surface and making other improvements.

The 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McDaniel of Marceline died Saturday from the effects of some lye which it had drunk about two weeks ago.

The residence of John Y. Smith in Jackson township was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. No insurance.

A team, belonging to Dave Perry, ran off Tuesday morning while hitched to a road drag on his farm, west of Linneus, and seriously injured one of the horses. Fortunately Mr. Perry was unharmed.

The tax on the selling of fresh fish in Brookfield was removed by the city council there last week, and the citizens of that place can now enjoy a fish "try" every time anyone brings a "batch" of fish to town.

Landreth & Son of Marceline are sinking a prospect hole, near their shaft, west of town, having reached a depth of over 150 feet. They will probably go 300 feet or until they reach another good vein of coal below the one they have been mining.

LINN MARRIAGES.

Elmer Hier and Miss Lulu May Rice, both of Marceline.

Claude Smith of Linneus and Miss Cloe Lane of Purdin.

Henry McMillen and Miss Anna Melta, both of Marceline.

LIVINGSTON.

While shingling a wood-shed at his home in Chillicothe, Edward Daly fell and broke his right leg just above the ankle.

Mrs. Phoebe Bell col., aged 70 years, died at her home in Chillicothe Friday morning of lung trouble.

J. N. Altman, a contractor and carpenter of Chillicothe, was seriously hurt Wednesday morning by falling about 15 feet from his building ladder.

Mrs. Anna Linville of Chillicothe was severely burned with hot grease Sunday afternoon. The burns were dressed and she is reported as resting easy.

Louis Herman, aged 58 years, died at his home in Chillicothe Thursday night, of heart failure. Mr. Herman was a business man of more than ordinary ability and his cheerful disposition had won him a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith of Chillicothe are in receipt of a letter from their daughter, Miss Blanch, who eloped with a Chicago traveling man three weeks ago. She says they are happily married and are living near Chicago.

Miss Bessie Leonard, aged 15 years, an inmate of the state Industrial home for girls at Chillicothe, escaped from that institution Sunday evening, but was captured a few hours later, near Utica.

A delegation of Mooresville citizens appeared before the county court Monday with a petition asking that their town be incorporated. The petition was signed by practically all the citizens of Mooresville. The court appointed a board of trustees to proceed with the incorporation.

A family of refugees from San Francisco, consisting of Wm. Miller, wife and their four small children, were stranded in Chillicothe last week. They had lost everything they possessed in the earthquake and were trying to make their way to Moulton, Iowa, their former home. A liberal sum of money was raised for their benefit.

MARRIAGES.

Elmer F. Kerr and Miss Edith L. Goff, both of Avalon.

Donald Melton and Miss May Earhart, both of Chillicothe.

Thos. Gilchrist and Mrs. Laura Shearer, both of Norville. John Atkinson and Miss Alice Sneden, both of Jackson township.

Ora Anderson and Miss Edna Wadcell, both of Jackson township.

Henry E. Hawkins of Rayville and Miss Adeline Earhart of Chillicothe.

RANDOLPH

Mrs. Fannie Hinton, aged 75 years, died of pneumonia at the home of "Uncle" George Dillman in Huntville Saturday.

Mrs. Lella Clark, relict of the late Benton Clark, passed away Thursday at her home in Moberly after a lingering illness. She was 67 years old.

Zeula Smith, aged 5 years, died at the home of her parents, near Cairo, Friday. She had been afflicted with spinal trouble for sometime.

Mrs. Margaret Mathias, aged 60 years, died at her home in Moberly Thursday. She had been ill for many weeks and heart trouble was the cause of her death.

The Odd Fellows of Moberly purchased two lots, 50x65, feet Friday, paying therefor $1,600. They purpose to build a two-story building with two store-rooms below and their lodgeroom above.

Mrs. Millard Sanders, while carrying a bucket of hot water at her home in Clifton Hill Monday, stumbled and fell to the ground, spilling the water on her left arm and shoulder, painfully though not seriously scalding her.

The citizens of Moberly who were out of doors at 5 o'clock Friday morning witnessed a beautiful spectacle, the fall of a meteor. The heavens were ablaze as the meteor made its way from the northeast to the southwest, the light being more dazzling than the sun.

The lightning struck John and Lute Bayler's barn, near Rolling Home, Saturday night, burning it and the granary which contained about 250 barrels of corn and all of their harness and farming implements. They succeeded in getting all their horses out, but one was badly burned. They had only a small amount of insurance.

Cal Winn of Renick was fined $10 and costs for disturbing the church services Sunday when he stole his promised bride from the edifice. He also had to pay $100 for the death of a horse which he killed by his mad drive to Highbee where the young couple were married. Such elopements cost money, but we hope the bride is worth the price.

The committee from the Brown Shoe Co. of St. Louis, which visited Moberly Friday, two of the members expressed themselves as being in favor of that city for its factory, while the other two were unwilling to express their sentiments. The committee stated that at many homes in Mexico they were greeted with laughter when they inquired how many of the inmates would be willing to work in the proposed factory.

SALINE.

E. M. Iglehart is building a new telephonic line from Miami to Marshall.

Ward Williams is a new recruit, by initiation, to the M. W. A. camp at Miami.

Eld. Clark W. Comstock of King City, Mo., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Miami.

Sam'l Ewan, aged 27, of Kansas City, formerly of Marshall, died of quick consumption Thursday. A wife survives him.

The printers and post-office pie-eaters of Marshall will play a match game of baseball decoration day, Wednesday, May 30.

A 3 year-old son of Russell Colder, col., of Marshall fell into a cistern Saturday afternoon and was drowned before he could be rescued.

Miss Aileen Strother, aged 22, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strother who formerly lived in Marshall, recently died of consumption at Las Vegas, N. M.

E. S. Davis of Iola, Kas., has purchased the printing plant of the defunct Saline County Index at Marshall and will publish a new paper at Iola with the outfit.

The Marshall high school turned out 19 graduates this year, 11 of whom were young ladies. The address to the graduating class was delivered by E. W. Stephens of Columbia.

The Miami public schools had four graduates this year, one young lady and three young men. The address to the graduating class was delivered by Prof. T. Berry Smith of Fayette.

While playing at the home of Dan Benningfield Wednesday morning, Harry, the 6 year-old son of Jas. Benningfield of Miami, fell and broke both bones of his right arm between the wrist and elbow.

MARRIAGES.

Geo. Ballew and Miss Ida Rowland, both of Marshall.

Richard Bothgard of Lebanon and Miss Jessie Sipes of Blackwater.

David A. Baker and Miss Estella Ross, both of M. Leonard.

Mitchell M. Crosslin of Slater and Miss Odessa B. Cott of Gilliam.

We Are Often Asked

why our rates and terms on loans are the best.
We are glad to explain and readily prove that it is to one's advantage to make his loan with us.
Why not talk with us about it?
It can do no harm and may save you much

MINTER & LAMKIN
Keytesville, Missouri.