The board of appeals for merchants was in session Monday. The only complainants over the action of the board of equalization for merchants in raising assessments were Eli Shire and Warner Bros. of Salisbury. The increase of $1,000 in Mr. Shire's assessment was stricken off by the board of appeals, but Warner Bros. were not so fortunate in the $1,000 increase in their assessment, as the board of appeals refused to take any further action in the case of the Warners.

A. C. Phillips returned Wednesday morning from a combined business and pleasure trip to Oklahoma.

Mrs. Dick Tisdale and her

A series of meetings are in progress at the New Hope Baptist church, seven miles southeast of Keytesville. The meeting began September 23 and will continue indefinitely. The meetings at present are being conducted by Rev. F. L. Alexander, pastor of the Keytesville Baptist church. Evangelist Kelly is expected soon to assist in the services.

Notice.

I have five jennets and two acks, all black with white points, of the registered kind, and one Cleveland Bay stallion, black in color, 16 hands high, and weighing 1,400 pounds, for sale at my the Confederate veterans and all that are concerned, that action may be taken to promote a new enterprise in which all are deeply interested.

The noted Chillicothe, Mo., Normal, Commercial, Shorthand and Telegraph college opens its 17th year with an increased attendance. New students are entering every day. This is a business year for this institution.
We recommend that those interested write to Allen Moore for a catalog.

Wm. Weber of Missouri township was before the county court Monday with the view to obtaining financial aid from the court to assist the citizens of his township in preventing the ravages of the Missouri river in cutting away the graded road which was constructed along the river bank to protect the lands from overflow. No action was taken in the matter, but the COURIER believes the purpose for which Mr. Weber came to Keytesville was a worthy one, and we hope the court may see its way clear to rendering the desired and much-needed assistance.
