cater to your wants.

R. J. HALLEY.

The program given by the Chicago Lyceum ladies is admirably balanced, there being both classic and popular selections, the latter including many old favorites. At the courthouse Thursday, November 29.

Corn Wanted.

We want 50,000 bushels of corn, for which we will pay the highest market price delivered at Keytesville station.

MCMAHILL & MARSH.

There will be no better or more pleasant way of spending your Thanksgiving evening and helping a good cause than by hearing the Chicago Lyceum ladies at the courthouse Thursday, November 29.

See the 50 cent hats including some trimmed and ready-to-wears.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

Mr. and Mrs. French Johnson of near Forest Green are in ex-stasies of joy over the arrival of a fine boy at their house Friday, November 16. Mother and babe are getting along nicely and the indications are also favorable for the recovery of the proud father.
Under these circumstances it would be difficult to make Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and the youngster believe that Friday is an unlucky day.

Farm Hand Wanted.

I want a good farm hand at the county poorfarm. Steady job for the right man at $25 a month and board.

prices.

Mrs. C. P. Vandiver, the much better half of the COURIER man, spent Tuesday in St. Louis filling some special orders for millinery.

Just received, a nice line of flowers, frames and ostrich plumes for Thanksgiving trade and Christmas.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

Those who do not hear the Chicago Lyceum ladies will miss the opportunity of their life. At the courthouse Thursday, November 29

Special efforts made in the trimmed hats marked down from $2 and $2.50.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

Celebrate Thanksgiving night, young man, and take your girl to the courthouse to hear the Chicago Lyceum ladies. Well worth the price of admission.

Mrs. C. P. Vandiver handles the Fisk and Elzie hats. Ask to see them.

Rev. H. E. Stout will preach at Asbury chapel next Sunday morning. He is a fine preacher and singer, and all are invited to hear him.

Mules for Sale.

I have 15 good yearling mules for sale at my farm, two miles northwest of Triplett.

J. H. BROWN.

A. B. Price of Glasgow, the energetic and suave district manager of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., was an agreeable and substantial caller at the COURIER sanctum Tuesday evening.

Since sorting the stock after the splendid business of the fall I now have a nice line of hats made from odds and ends which I will close out at from $1 to $1.50.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

is an eloquent speaker and those who hear him will be glad of it.

Chris. Feitz, one of the COURIER's good friends of near Mendon, is building a combined warehouse and summer kitchen under a part of which he is constructing a large cellar, 14x14 feet and 8 feet deep. He will also put in a four-horse power gasoline engine on trucks, which will be utilized for washing, churning, grinding feed, etc. We are also informed that it is Mr.
Feitz' intention to embark in the manufacture of Swiss cheese.

NEWS OF NEWNESS:—New rings and brooches, new chains, fobs and bracelets, new watches, new clocks, new cut-glass and silverware, new novelties, new designs and patterns. Variety in plenty and real worth in everything at SIGLOCH'S.

Probate pointer are crowded out this week.

Consult us about any watch troubles that may arise. We will stop the score of annoyances, and guarantee new ones.

H. M. SIGLOCH.

The Omega club met with Miss Lois Hancock Saturday night.
The evening was spent in singing the old Omega songs and composing new ones.

We try to keep our stock so complete that all of the exceedingly varied lines that should be here are here. H. M. SIGLOCH.

Rev. F. G. Welther, pastor of the German Lutheran church at Brunswick, slipped on a sidewalk in that city Wednesday and dislocated his left ankle from the effects of which he will likely be confined to his room all winter.

We have faith in our ability to please you in a cigar way, and are anxious to prove it. Will you let us try? Our small boxes for the holiday trade are now here.

H. M. SIGLOCH.

Hugo Bartz, Sr., the senior proprietor of the Keytesville street railway, is usually a peaceable law-abiding citizen, but he got his right eye beautifully blacked and his face considerably disfigured Tuesday. He fell out of a sled in which he was hauling a load of passengers up from the depot. The street car had been put out of commission on account of the snowstorm.

We are anxious to have you see our new goods, for we feel that we can make it profitable for you to do your buying here.

H. M. SIGLOCH.

The COURIER most cordially "seconds the motion" of the Salisbury papers in their advocacy of Hon. A. W. Johnson, Chariton county's efficient representative, for speaker of the lower house of the next Missouri legislature. Mr. Johnson is a good lawyer and a clean man, who is in every way fitted for the duties of such an honorable as well as responsible position. We sincerely hope that his ambition to be elected speaker may be attained.

If you are going to buy a watch, we can show you the largest, latest and best line in town, and can save you $ on the price. That's our claim; to prove it is our aim. H. M. SIGLOCH.

We regret to learn that our fellow-townsmen, M. P. Chapman, met with a painful injury Wednesday night of last week.
He started down in the basement of his residence to shut off the furnace, and fell from the steps against a barrel, and he thinks he cracked some of his ribs, but as they were not "spareribs," they did not require "cracking." In addition to the injury named he was hurt about the stomach.
He was confined to his bed and suffered intensely for several days, but is now, we are glad to say, able to be up and around the house again.

We have the rarest, daintiest odors—in fact, all our fall shipments of perfumes are here.
Trying to describe them would be in vain, but we'll risk interesting you if you look, and risk pleasing you if you buy.

H. M. SIGLOCH.

Palatine Oil.

We have just contracted for a carload of strictly high-grade Pennsylvania coal oil. Guaranteed the highest grade oil made.
Bring in your can and let us fill it. If not satisfactory, money refunded.
