are authorized to announce PROF. J. W. TAYLOR of Keytesville as a candidate for County Commissioner of Chariton County, at the pleasure of the annual school

Baptist Church Notes.
Subject for Sunday, March 10, Mr. Piper's m.: "The Teaching of the Church;" 7:30 p. m.: "Amos and His Message."

Bible school at 9:30. Lesson, Gen. 16:12-25.

Brighter prospects for a good convention. We are to have some special music that will be a large feature. Then some messages that we shall all be glad to hear. Come!

Have just received a letter from an able evangelist, J. O.
Shelburne, who, I am delighted to say, is a Virginia man and is so highly recommended that we do not want to lose any time in making definite arrangements with him. He says that he can come the middle of September, if we will act at once.
This we must do. However, that means that the officers must meet me at the church next Lord's day morning before services and begin to talk matters over that we may be able to put some definite plans before the people. Let us see that we do this. Then, too, all must make it a point to be there as well. If it is a little mean, come any way as this is of value enough to go to some trouble over. I do so hope you will do so.

We have enough for all now and we must all work or something will go undone.

The Ladies' Aid society will give an entertainment at the courthouse Thursday evening, March 21, by a well-known reader and impersonator. All are invited.

J. E. WOLFE, Pastor.

Baptist Church Notes.

Subject for next Sunday morning will be: "God's Providence;" evening subject: "An Irrevocable Decree."

The average attendance at Sunday-school for February was 73 3-4. We must do better for March.

An "Amoma" class was organized last Sunday by Mrs.
Alexander. Miss Edith Stender is president; Miss Louis Hancock, vice-president; Miss Mabel Gaston, secretary, and Miss Anna Young, treasurer. There were seven charter members.
The word "amoma" means "the blameless life." Their first contribution was 25 cents.

The Agogas have an enrollment of 13. The average attendance for February was 71.
Total amount contributed, $1.30.
Average amount per Sabbath, 321 cents. They began March with an attendance of nine and a contribution of 45 cents. The Amomas say that by the end of March they will be first and the Agogas second. The March report will show. These two classes will work together for general good and will be mutually helpful.

The average prayer-meeting attendance for February was about 35, a large increase over January, and yet it is the poorest attended public service we have. But we are thankful the interest growing. Brother, sister, won't you see to your part of the prayer-meeting for March? Ask yourself why you have not been there, stir yourself up, resolve to do better and do it. Some are doing better.

The Agogas with the assistance of their friends have secured President J. P. Green, D. D.
LL. D., of William Jewell college for a lecture Thursday night, March 28. Dr. Green is president of the largest and best equipped college for young men west of the Mississippi river and he is also one of America's greatest living preachers. This lecture will be delivered at the Baptist church and it will be free. All are cordially invited to attend. Further announcements will be made.

The average attendance of the juniors for February was about 21. They are taking a course of study in the life of Paul. The interest, order and advancement for February have been truly good. The boys, who are members of the juniors, met at the pastor's home Thursday night, March 7, at 7:30. All boys who are not members and who wish to become members are also invited to attend. Leader for next Sunday, Dorothy Baldrige.
Subject: "A Slave Owner and His Slave."

Average attendance of the B.
Y. P. U. for February was about 55. The interest is excellent.
Miss Emma Chapman led the last meeting very acceptably.
Miss Jane Anderson leads the meeting March 10. Subject:
"Lessons from the Patriarchs No. 2.—Abraham."

Attendance at all the services were good, especially at the night service. It is always a joy to the pastor to greet so many men at each service.

Teachers' meeting at J. W.
Grizzell's Friday night at 7:30.
Seven teachers were present at the last meeting.

F. L. ALEXANDER, Pastor.
