

Border County Notes

Friday, February 26, 1908.

CARROLL.

Chilton Cowell, infant child of Jake McClure of near Hale, died Tuesday night.

Carrollton has a new physician in the person of Dr. A. L. Meredith, recently of Bunceon.

About 50 section bosses from all over the Burlington lines were in Carrollton last week on a tour of inspection.

Mrs. Sam Winfrey of near Carrollton fell on the ice Tuesday and broke a small bone in one of her lower limbs.

Wm. Wooden of Carrollton bought 40 acres of land in Hill township at a trustee's sale for $1,000 last week.

The Norborne Fuel, Ice & Light Co. received a 25-horse power engine Friday, which will be installed in the plant at once.

Gus Uhrig purchased an 80-acre farm, near Carrollton, from Ed Dolan and 40 adjoining acres from Noah Roller last week.

Omar Walters, formerly of Norborne, 35 years old, died of consumption at the home of his aunt in Hardin, Mo., Friday night.

Tude Stone of Bogard let a pitchfork drop on his left leg Sunday and sustained a bad wound.

E. G. Foster and wife of near Bogard have separated. They sold all their household effects at public sale Saturday.

H. McNelly, a veteran of the civil war, died at his home in Hale Tuesday. An aged wife and eight children survive him.

Rev. John P. Turpin, pastor of the Baptist church in Carrollton several years ago, died recently at his home in Parkersburg, W. Va.

The Creel-Lewis Grocery Co. in Carrollton took out a license to sell oleomargarine. The scarcity of butter forced them to do this.

Miss Lelia Cannon of Carrollton fell against a tree one night last week and cut a gash in her hand that required five stitches to close it.

The first interment in the new Norborne cemetery occurred Thursday afternoon when the infant child of Charles Meadows was buried there.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, aged 83 years, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cochran of Carrollton. Her body was taken to Fayette for burial.

Less than one-tenth of the people of the Wakenda drainage district fastened a burden on the other nine-tenths of the population without even consulting them.

Mrs. Amanda Hill, 80 years old, a resident of the vicinity of Norborne for over half a century, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Elliott, Wednesday. Two children survive her.

J. E. (Ebe) Young, a farmer living near the Lucas school-house in Carroll county, dropped dead in his yard Friday afternoon. Deceased was 60 years old and his death is attributed to heart failure. He leaves a wife and two sons.

The charge of highway robbery preferred against Palmer Taggart of Bosworth, has been dismissed, and Taggart was re-arrested on a charge of felonious assault. Donald O'Hara was taken in charge as being an accessory.

MARRIAGES.
D. A. Carroll of Bosworth and Miss Bessie Thomas of Miami Station.

Dr. Karl H. George and Miss Vivian Dobyns, both formerly of Norborne.

HOWARD.

Henry Kettler, 78 years old, of Glasgow died of pneumonia Wednesday.

About 16 of Aholt's sports killed a wolf Tuesday. They ran the animal six miles before killing it.

The editor of the New Franklin News acted as an auctioneer at a stock sale in Howard county last week.

Harrison Holbert, a veteran of the civil war, 76 years old, died of pneumonia at his home, south of Armstrong, Friday.

Thos. Manahan of Fayette, an aged and respected citizen, died Sunday. He leaves four children to mourn his death.

P. M. Cason, a worthy negro teacher of Armstrong, has been a member of the faculty of a negro business college at Sedalia.

Central college's second basket-ball team of Fayette played the Marshall team Friday night. The score was 61 to 15 in favor of Central.

Russell I. Tolson, one of Fayette's brilliant young lawyers, has entered a big law firm in St. Louis, that of Peters, Brown, Tolson & Whitaker.

Messrs. Caldwell & Fritz have sold the machinery of the Fayette laundry to the Conger Laundry Co. of Columbia where it will soon be moved.

Fayette's three excellent banking-houses published statements in the Fayette Democrat-Leader last week. The commercial bank goes above the $100,000 in totals, the Fayette bank over $200,000 and the Farmers' & Merchants' over $270,000.

Several Glasgow citizens were injured by falls last week. Col. A. B. Southworth had three ribs broken, Harry Grove sustained a broken rib and several bruises, J. H. Bowen wrenched his hip and W. H. Irwin was badly cut on the scalp.

The beautiful home of Mrs. A. F. Davis in Fayette had a narrow escape from fire Thursday morning. A curtain blew over a burning gas jet and ignited. The carpet and inside shutters were damaged, but the fire was opportunely discovered.

Dr. H. K. Givens, John Farrington, M. H. Davis and F. H. Quinn, all of Fayette, bought the M. B. Yeaman property and the acres surrounding it, near Fayette, last week for $7,800. They intend laying off the land for building lots.

The country residence of W. H. Morgan, one of Howard's best citizens, situated near Sebree, burned Friday night. A piano and some smaller pieces of furniture were saved. The fire originated in the smoke-house and then communicated with the house. Insurance to the amount of $1,000 was carried.

MARRIAGES.
Willie Hannon and Miss Bessie Bodle, both of near New Franklin.

Edward Steele of Oklahoma and Miss Mary Borgia Doyle of near Armstrong.

Joseph O. Ray and Miss Nannie O. Miller, both of near Boonsboro.

LINN.

The baby girl of John Farris of St. Catherine died of pneumonia Thursday.

The Marceline park is to be adorned with two cannons, relics of the civil war.

A barn belonging to P. Brumbaugh of Browning burned down Monday. The origin of the fire is a mystery. There was no in-

Made from cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes. All the ingredients of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are printed on the label. They are pure, healthful and proper.

When baking powders are peddled or demonstrated, examine their labels. You will find they are not made from cream of tartar. You don't want them surance upon the structure and the loss is estimated at about $300.

R. J. Alexander bought the Foreman house in Laclede last week from F. M. Conner and will run the hotel.

Mrs. J. H. Burgett of Marcelline died one day last week after a long illness, aged 43 years. Five children survive her.

Miss Nadine Hayes of Bucklin won the set of dishes offered by the Bucklin Herald for securing eight subscribers to that paper.

Richard W. Clements, a native of Maryland, 68 years old, died at his home in Brookfield Tuesday. He leaves a widow and six children.

Judge E. G. Fetty has sold his 250-acre farm, Locust Creek bottom pasture land, near Linneus, to J. T. Stevenson of that city for $48 per acre.

Mrs. A. L. Sparks of near Linneus, aged 51 years, a native of Indiana, died of apoplexy Sunday. Her husband and one son survive her.

Chas. Bradshaw, in the employ of the Burlington railroad at Brookfield, slipped and fell from the platform of the freight house Monday and was painfully injured.

R. C. Perkins of Kansas City, an expert abstractor, has accepted a position in the Linn County Abstract Co.'s office at this place and is now associated with Mr. Hotaling in that work.

Mr. Perkins and his family, consisting of a wife and one child, arrived here Tuesday from Kansas City. They will be accorded cordial welcome into the business and social circles of our city, says the Linneus Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins were formerly of Keytesville.

MARRIAGES.
Wm. A. Delong and Miss Ida May Botts, both of Marcelline.

Herman C. Cooper of Shafter and Miss Ollie Myrtle Browning of Laredo.

Walter F. Thompson of Kansas City and Miss Flossie Starke, formerly of Marcelline.

LIVINGSTON.

There were 29 additions to the Christian church in Chillicothe Sunday.

John Hargrave, a Jackson township farmer, broke his collar bone Tuesday by falling.

Harve White, a Chillicothe fireman, is circulating a petition among his friends for an appointment to the position of guard at the state penitentiary.

John Nothnagle, 55 years old, died of rheumatism and Bright's disease at his home near Spring Hill Thursday. He is survived by his widow and four children.

Mrs. Lizzie Shriner of Chillicothe is suing J. M. Decker of that city for $50,000 damages, actual and punitive, for alleged libel. Mrs. Shriner asserts that Decker wrote her libelous letters. He called her a scandal-monger and said she had no morals.

Two divorce cases were filed in circuit court at Chillicothe Wednesday. Mrs. Dellano F. Cameron charges her husband with leading a dual life, having two wives. Cameron has fled the state. Mrs. George W. Moore asserts that her husband has deserted her.

Ezra Curtis of Chillicothe, charged with wife abandonment, will not be prosecuted in court. Wm. Stevens, his father-in-law, has agreed to let the matter drop, and Curtis, who is only 19 years old, has promised to provide for his wife while she stays at the home of her father.

Phillip Schott, the man who stole the tickets from the Milwaukee office at Sturges last week, was released Saturday night from jail, where he was serving out his fine of $20, by his brother, Anton Schott of Franklin Grove, Ill. Anton bore out the story of his mother being sick, but said his brother had escaped from a hospital for the insane in Illinois.

MARRIAGES.
Anthony Veneman of New Cambria and Miss Catherine Saale of Chillicothe.

MACON.

Two of the nickel theatres in Macon have quit business.

The infant child of Wilbur Halliburton of Macon died Friday.

John W. McDowell opened a cafe Sunday at the Reileigh house in Macon.

A. Dana Castle of College Mound was in Macon Thursday talking up a motor line. He hopes to interest parties enough to form a transportation line soon.

In a play, "The Missouri Sheriff," at a New York theatre, there is a scene showing the old Macon jail.

The revival meeting at the Presbyterian church in Macon, conducted by Rev. P. M. Fitzgerald, closed Sunday night.

Ex. Sheriff Graves of Macon is very anxious for the trial of the $15,000 damage suit filed against him by young Ad Miller of Macon.

A Shelbina youth was arrested in Macon last week in company with a woman of that town. They were registered at a hotel in that city as man and wife, but were not married. The woman was about 30 years old and the boy 19. The boy's mother paid her son's fine of $25.

MARRIAGES.
John Peroglis and Miss Minnie Rucker, both of Bevier.

Masten Jordan and Miss Lizzie Lockord, both of Atlanta.

Harry R. Clarke and Miss Mary Waddell, both of Anabel.

Archibald T. Bowen and Miss Ellen Jordan, both of Novelty.

T. H. Cooley of Bevier and Miss M. D. Dooley of Hunnewell.

Julius Bethel, col., and Miss Jessie Brown, col., both of Keota.

Evan S. Jones and Miss Missouri Jenkin, both of New Cambria.

Joseph T. Cloyd and Miss Nerva L. Ancutt, both of Novelty.

W. F. Bradford of Hurdland and Miss Mary Alice Harrison of La Plata.

George A. LeFever of Texas and Miss Paula M. Graves, formerly of Macon.

RANDOLPH.
The infant child of Waldo Holman of Huntsville died Saturday.

Mrs. Belle Stevens passed away Tuesday at her home in Jacksonville, aged 45 years.

The snow storm last week badly crippled traffic on the Wabash and M., K. & T. railroads.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoagland of Moberly celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday.

The Suppe property in Moberly was purchased last week by W. R. Turner, formerly of Moberly.

Mrs. Sam Allyn sold her cottage residence property in Moberly last week to Mrs. A. R. Minters.

Henry Humphrey and Miss Beulah Callaway, both of Moberly, will be married at an early date.

John P. Beuth of Moberly has installed an up-to-date air compressor in his plumbing establishment in that city.

Merritt (Cook) Clifton, 65 years old, formerly of Randolph county, died in Texas last week. He leaves a wife and six children.

Mrs. W. W. Elliot, 73 years old, died Wednesday at her home in Jacksonville. Deceased leaves four children to mourn her death.

Two large houses in Moberly, modern in every way, were sold by Mrs. C. W. Digges of that city to John Hinman of Centralia last week.

The property known as the Wabash lunch counter, near the Wabash yards in Moberly, was sold to J. E. Johnson last week by J. J. Johnson.

Arne Anderson, a cabinet-maker of Moberly about 20 years ago, died Sunday at his home in Kansas City. His widow and six children survive him.

C. H. Woods, a Moberly brakeman, married his brother's widow, Mrs. J. M. Woods, February 11, just 14 days after his brother's death, at Little Rock, Ark.

R. H. Moffitt of Moberly bought the old W. P. Cave house in that city last week. He purchased the house from a Monroe county man, who paid $6,500 for the residence.

one of Randolph county's good men, died at his home, near Darksville, Thursday morning.

Deceased was born in Kentucky.

Oscar J. Wright, a Moberly switchman, lost his right hand Tuesday morning while engaged in switching at the Wabash yards in that city. His hand was severed just above the wrist.

James J. Patton, 73 years old, a prominent citizen of Clifton Hill, breathed his last in that city Friday. His death was caused by blood poisoning. A wife and three children survive him.

Edward Cogley, a Moberly engineer employed on the Wabash railroad, was held up by two highwaymen in St. Louis Thursday night. They leveled three revolvers at him and took his gold watch, a lodge pin and $8 in money.

Three Higbee druggists were fined recently for violating the laws regulating drug stores. Mr. Bradley was fined $50 and costs for failing to register certain prescriptions with the county clerk, and Messrs. Perkins and Cleeton were each fined $100.

MARRIAGES.
Charles Canote and Miss Laura Lane, both of Moberly.

John Geisler and Miss Kate Schneider, both of Moberly.

O. G. Ridgeway of near Clark and Miss Olive Griffith of Higbee.

SALINE.
Chris Fishbeck has opened a new tin shop in Slater.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Burnside of Miami died Sunday.

Mrs. B. J. Mosier, formerly of Marshall, died in a Kansas City hospital Friday.

Mrs. Mary K. Bender of Marshall suffered a stroke of paralysis Thursday morning.

Mrs. Minnie R. Herndon of Marshall has closed her boarding-house at that place.

Miss Mollie Young, 22 years old, daughter of Wm. Young of south of Slater, died of consumption Friday morning.

The Saline Telephone Co. had heavy losses during the late storms. Their lines are now down and badly damaged.

C. H. Hitchborn, editor of the Miami Weekly News, is a candidate for county commissioner of the Saline public schools.

Mary Elizabeth, little daughter of Dr. E. S. Leach, formerly of Saline county, died of whooping-cough in Texas last week.

"Aunt" Sarah Loveless, negro cook at the Bluff hotel in Marshall, fell and broke her leg Monday morning while going to her work.

Mrs. Elizabeth Titcomb Brown, 86 years old, died Thursday at the home of her son, John A. Brown of Slater. Deceased was born in Maine and is survived by two sons.

After a two-years' struggle with a fatal disease, H. A. Edwards, formerly superintendent of the public schools at Slater, died Sunday in Slater. His remains were interred at Otterville, Mo. Deceased was born in Tennessee 43 years ago and leaves his widow and two children to mourn his untimely death.

MARRIAGES.
Theo. G. Rehkop of Blackburn and Miss Ella A. Nevins of Alma, Mo.

W. Earl Rexroart of Illinois and Miss Anna M. Bird of Marshall.

Herman W. Stoll and Miss Aureline Vawter, both of Marshall.

R. Lee Eddy of Marshall and Miss Margaret A. Adams of Blackburn.

Geo. T. Lyon of Saline county and Miss Emma K. Day of La-grange, Mo.

Lester A. Burnside, formerly of Miami, and Miss Mary E. Melcher of Ottumwa, Ia.

You Want Your Loan

Negotiated in confidence by reliable people in a businesslike way. Remember that we are the only firm in this county which owns a building devoted exclusively to the loan and abstract business.

Therefore, we can, and will, serve you better.

MINTER & LAMKIN, Keytesville, Mo.