

County News Items

Interesting Facts Gathered Over the County During the Week.

Owest thou the printer?
What does your date say?
Look at the date on the yellow label!
Kindly pay up your subscription if you are owing.

The printer's hand is outstretched. Please put a dollar in it.

If you don't want to be "dunned" pay up before September 1, 1910.

Miss Mabel Pinegar delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home just west of town Saturday night.

Mrs. E. H. Logan returned Friday night from a several weeks' visit with relatives at Denver and Pueblo, Colorado.

Miss Kate Hawkins visited at home of John Moritz of north of town the latter part of last week and attended the ice-cream supper at Adams chapel.

Miss Maude Mann, formerly of this city, who is in Europe this summer, will go to Vienna after the Christmas holidays and study music under Lisohintigly.

There will be some extra fine subjects on at the Airdome Saturday night, as follows: The Nurse's Strike, comical; The Power of Labor, colored; Chrysanthemums, colored and magical. The show begins at 8:30 sharp.

All those not remitting on back subscription before September 1 will receive a statement of their arrearage.

For cooling drinks—Herring's soda fountain.

Russel Bartow of Brunswick was in the city Tuesday.

To cure a headache take our Magic Headache tablet.
H. M. SIGLOCH.

Miss Ella Minter and friend, Miss Montgomery, spent Sunday in Salisbury.

Mrs. Mollie Cravens is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Mason of northwest of town.

W. R. Nelson of Brunswick was in the city Friday and took in the baseball game.

Linn county's attractions for this week is the ever-excellent Meadville chautauq.

Raymond Curran of Kansas City is visiting his uncle, J. H. Smith of near Indian Grove.

Hart & Frank shipped a carload of sheep and one of mixed cattle to St. Louis this week.

Miss Maude Smith of Wakenda visited her sister, Mrs. C. P. Vandiver and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murdock of Reeser, Sullivan county, are guests of C. T. Carr of near this city.

Miss Josephine Casey of Kansas City is visiting her sister Mrs. J. H. Smith of near Indian Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Winfree and baby of Butte, Mont., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hancock and other relatives. Mr. Winfree is an old Keytesville boy who has not been here for 17 years.

Take our Magic Headache tablets, for quick relief, and you too, will recommend them to your friends.
H. M. SIGLOCH.

Miss Katherine Watts of Glasgow came Friday to be the guest of her cousin, Miss Margaret Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright of St. Joseph are visiting the family of Dick Blackwell of west of town.

Miss Lillie Mann of Charleston, Ark., is visiting friends and looking after her residence property here this week.

Clem Vannest and Lester Turner both of Ponca City, Okla., are visiting the former's uncle, C. T. Carr of near town.

Miss Ooe Miller of Hale came Tuesday to visit Miss Maude Bradshaw and attend teacher's meeting here this week.

Sam'l Meyer, a Marcelline merchant, and three other men passed through here Tuesday in an auto en route for Joplin.

Claude Cropper of Dalton came over Wednesday to visit the family of his uncle J. L. Cropper before moving to Nebraska.

Keytesville's second team played the Dalton champions Tuesday and beat them 17 to 5 on their own baseball diamond.

Miss Sammy Vaughan and Roy Cropper made an automobile trip to Brunswick Sunday afternoon to see W. R. Nelson and family and other friends.

The Farm Progress of last week contained a photograph out of a white wyandotte cockrel belonging to the flock of Geo. M. Dewey of near this city.

Claude Hyde of Kansas City, formerly an old Keytesville boy, son of L. B. Hyde of north of this city, is visiting his father and other relatives here this week.

Be sure and take in the moving pictures at the Airdome Tuesday and Saturday nights. Adults 10 cts., children 5 cts.

Mendon's fourth annual street fair will be held October 5 and 6.

By a score of 7 to 4 the Bachelors defeated the Benedicts at Brunswick Tuesday.

C. B. Kavanaugh of Musselfork left Saturday for Kansas City, making this office a pleasant call.

Chas. Cunningham has bought the 10-acre farm, near Newcomer that formerly belonged to F. M. McNamara.

Mrs. Canaan who lives near the Catholic church at Salisbury fell and broke two of her ribs Tuesday afternoon.

There is a probability of the Tri County corn show of Howard, Chariton and Saline counties being held at Salisbury this year.

Miss Venza Pearl, daughter of Chas. H. Garrett, formerly of Chariton county, now of Kansas City, was married to Joseph Burnell Sunday afternoon.

J. Ramsey of Bynumville delivered a lecture on state-wide prohibition at Musselfork Friday evening and was welcomed by a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Black of Rothville announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Lee, to Earle West Mayhugh, the marriage to take place in October.

Bessie, 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. H. F. Johnson of Sydney, Nebr., who is spending the summer here is very ill of typhoid fever. Dr. Zillman is the attending physician.

Marshall Berry of Sumner, in trying to quiet a horse, hitched in that city, that was kicking a buggy to pieces Saturday night stepped into a ditch and sprained his ankle.

Mrs. Jennie McGuire and Mrs. Granville Kennedy of Brunswick, Mrs. E. H. Bragg of Kansas City and Miss Hattie Corby of Pleasant Hill spent Tuesday with the family of R. D. Edwards.

For watches, any reliable make from $1 up—go to Sigloch's. Get one that is inspected, fitted and timed by a watch expert, they cost no more at the start, and will cost you less in the future.

The baseball game pulled off here last Friday between the home team and the Oklahoma Indians resulted rather disastrously for the town nine. The score is good enough to keep—mum—about.

Mrs. Lou Grinstead and two grandchildren, Mary and Alice Moore, went to Moberly this week to visit Mrs. Claude Scott. They were met by Mrs. J. E. Moore with whom the children will return to their home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Daniel Crisman of east of town left Wednesday with her daughter, Miss Ruth, for Bedford, Pa., her old home town where she will spend two months visiting her aged mother and other relatives whom she has not seen for 16 years.

When Sterling Elliott, son of E. E. Elliot, went to the pasture at their farm, near this city, last Thursday, caught a young horse and mounted without saddle or bridle, the animal objected and began bucking Sterling jumped a sustained and serious sprain of the right ankle.

Dr. Lawhorn of Forrest Green and state evangelist of the Christian church, Rev. Robertson of Independence and Tom Veatch of Forks of Chariton were in the city Tuesday and Wednesday soliciting funds to help them make a payment on the Christian church at Forrest Green.

Little Miss Alice Hancock Johns of Charleston, Mo., who has spent part of the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hancock of near town, left Monday for St. Louis where she will be joined by her father, T. J. Johns, going from there to Montreal, Canada. They will meet Mrs. Johns and daughter, Miss Mary Lillias, there Aug. 27, as they then return from their European tour.

Mrs. John Jones of Indian Grove neighborhood is on the sick list.

Misses Alice and Teresa Clavin of the Indian Grove vicinity are visiting in Marcelline.

Drugs, stationery, candies, postcards, jewelry and watches, toilet articles at Herring's drug store.

Murlin, 10-year-old son of A. Hawkins of Salisbury was thrown from a wagon in a runaway accident Monday. A heavy trunk fell on him bruising his left knee.

Mrs. Floyd Clark of Marcus, Ia., is visiting her father, James Wrenn of near this city, and will go from here to Kansas City where she will make her future home.

Mrs. Ed Fogglin of Brunswick and sister, Mrs. J. T. Kennedy of Toledo, Ohio, left Wednesday for a visit with their brother, Ed Knappenberger, at Edmond, Okla.

I have 1,200 bushels of coal to sell at 8 cents per bushel.

FRANKLIN ELLIS,
Guthridge Mills.

Prof. C. G. Truitt of the Salisbury public schools was married to Miss Morda J. Blackwell of Bakersfield, Colo., formerly of Breckenridge, Mo., Aug. 4 at Denver, Colo.

If your watch don't keep time or if some one else couldn't put it in proper shape, don't blame the watch, bring it to me. I'll guarantee it to be o. k.—if I do the work.
H. M. SIGLOCH.

H. A. Harmon of Prairie Hill felt considerable poorer when he awakened last Saturday morning and discovered 150 chickens and 15 bushels of oats had been stolen from him during the night. From 300 to 500 chickens have been stolen at Prairie Hill during the past month.

Among those from here who attended the fair at Brookfield last week were: W. L. Wright, Chas. Schell, Herbert Applegate, Warner White, Cleveland Schell, Rector Brewer, Garnett Hyde, W. C. Adams, and M. A. Prather and Misses Mabel Patnott, and Nell Pansler.

Hon. Jno. D. Taylor went to LaPlata Tuesday to participate in the taking of depositions in the case of Alba Logan vs. Court of Honor, a suit on a life insurance policy brought to this county on change of venue, and set for trial at the Salisbury term of circuit court. Mr. Taylor is attorney for the defendant.

Boyd Turner, formerly of Brunswick, died Wednesday at his Kansas City home as the result of a seemingly trivial injury received some 10 days before. Mr. Turner dropped off to sleep with a lighted cigar in his mouth. The fire from the "weed" burned a hole in his clothing on the side of his chest. Blood poisoning set up and brought about his death.

Depositions in the case of W. A. Taylor vs. Western Union Telegraph Co., were taken here Thursday before R. D. Edwards a notary public. The case is an action for damages in the amount of $1,300 because of a delayed message sent by the plaintiff to his son, W. W. Taylor, at Twin Falls, Idaho in regard to a land purchase. Edwin Camack of the firm of Karnes, New & Krauthoff represented the defendant and Hon. John D. Taylor appeared for the plaintiff.

The editor of the COURIER has received a copy of the catalog and premium list and a complimentary ticket to the third annual Prairie Hill fair which is to be held Sept. 1 to 3 inclusive. We attended this most excellent fair last year and it more than merits the large attendance and splendid success it always receives. The management and the progressive and energetic farmers and their wives who place their praiseworthy work and products on exhibition induce this yearly success. We thank Mr. Sears, the secretary of the fair, for his courtesy.

Miss Kate Dewey is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Emma Rouge spent a few days in Kansas City last week.

Avry & Gipson are building a three-room house, near Chraneville.

Mrs. W. E. Miller of DeWitt spent Saturday with the family of J. T. Dewey.

Mrs. Tom Hamilton of Dalton spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. P. R. O'Bryan.

Miss Elmira Hurt is spending the week with Miss Valeria Hedrick of Marcelline.

W. L. Stephens and family of Bosworth, Mo. are guests of John Cash and family of near here.

Berry Robertson, wife and son, of Brunswick spent Sunday with his father, J. K. Robertson.

Mrs. John Reed of Huntsville visited her sister Mrs. J. W. Agee, from Friday to Sunday.

Raymond Edwards of Brunswick is visiting the family of his uncle, R. D. Edwards, here this week.

Something cold and refreshing? Herring's fountain is the place to get it—also fine candies and cigars.

Mrs. F. A. Richardson of Kansas City and sons, Bob and Billy, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Aldridge.

Miss Mabel Patnott returned Friday from a three weeks visit friends and relatives at Kansas City and Brookfield.

Miss Lutie Blake of near Salisbury spent the week end with the families of W. G. Agee and J. W. Wayland.

Mrs. Sallie Halley, one of Keytesville's aged residents, is very ill this week having suffered several hemorrhages.

While away the long summer evenings at the cool, comfortable Airdome. Moving pictures. Admission 10c; children 5c.

Miss Melva Elam of Musselfork attended the baseball game here Friday and purchased from J. P. Tippet a Moon buggy.

Mrs. Henry Leuzinger and son, Joe, of Moberly spent Sunday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Martha Wheeler.

The best architects, painters and contractors of the country use Mound City "Horse Shoe" brand house paint exclusively.
KEYTESVILLE LUMBER CO.

Braymer & Wilson of Hamden bought a bill of lumber from the Arrington lumber yard here this week to build a store room.

Mrs. J. F. Ford of St. Louis left Monday after a 10-day's visit with S. J. Carter and sisters, Misses Mollie and Maggie, of near town.

Mrs. C. E. Veatch of Atlanta, Ga., formerly Miss Julia Willis Anderson of this place, is expected Saturday to make a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. Julia Anderson and family.

Special 1-4; car load of best granulated sugar at $5.90 per 100.
J. M. HALLEY,
Phone 29.

There was an old fashioned barn raising at the home of John Stephenson in the Forks of Chariton Friday. Dinner was served to about 50 friends and neighbors who were in attendance.

Miss Louise, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lena Strub of Brunswick, was operated upon Saturday by Dr. Zillman. Miss Louise fell when a child and injured her nose and the operation was performed to straighten that member.

A granatoid bridge, 28 feet long, is in the course of construction across the road between here and the station. This is only one of the many long needed bridges, as those in every direction out of Keytesville are in a wretched state of repair or long since past repairing.

Just received, a carload of iron roofing on which we are prepared to give prices that defy competition.

KEYTESVILLE LUMBER CO.

PRIZE SCHEME!

When you want the Coffee that never fails to tickle the palate, remember that I have the

METEOR BLEND
Four Pounds for One Dollar.

After you have purchased 100 packages and return the wrappers to me I will present you

FREE, a McLaughlin's Percolator

Which you will find a great help in making good coffee.

You will also find here a well selected stock of ..STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES..

on which my prices are always right

CRACKERS, CAKES, PICKLES, SALMON,
POTTED HAM AND CHIPPED BEEF

for picnics and fishing parties, all guaranteed to be just right for picnickers and fishermen.

Highest market price paid for Produce and I want yours.

R. J. HALLEY,

PHONE 157.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

