Joe Lanhoff and family and Miss Clara Osterman spent Sunday at the home of W. H. May.

Mrs. J. H. Bittker visited her parents, F. A. Clark and wife, at Salisbury Saturday.

Miss Christine Emerich accompanied Miss Clara Pinnel to Moberly Friday and returned Monday.

While Louella Moore was taking a large log to the mill it rolled against him catching both legs and pinning him to the ground until it was rolled off by hand spikes. He was only slightly bruised, a fortunate, almost miraculous result.

Salisbury Scribbings

Mrs. J. W. Armstrong of Kansas City is here on a visit.

We regret to hear that Mrs. S. J. Leach is in poor health.

Miss Lettie Horton is quite ill with pneumonia.

Warm weather, flies and frogs all got here together.

Fish poles are in evidence all over town, but the only fish so far are those shipped in.

Mrs. Dr. Morey has returned from an extended visit to Ponca, Okla. Miss Anna Larson came in with her.

M. L. Grisham of Lee Annemas, Colo., came in last week to visit friends and look after business interests.

Miss Edna Brown, a pretty little Miss from Minneapolis, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Jasper Atterbury has moved to the Embree building on Third street in order to be nearer his work.

A. Emrich and N. S. Hallock have purchased the Salisbury Auto Co. business and will continue at the old stand.

W. R. Sweeney is adding a 25 foot addition to his post office building to accommodate the rapidly increasing demands of the office.

Paul Luck and Rucker Hayward have gone to Denver seeking employment. We hope they will find it, as they are good boys.

Rev. James, the Irish divine, is conducting a meeting at the new Baptist church. He is a powerful evangelist and handles his subjects without gloves. Go and hear him.

There has been a change of station agents here, T. B. Riley going to Keytesville, and his place being taken by E. N. Benzberger. Mr. Riley makes a good agent and Keytesville will like him.

J. Ed. Dameron of Quincy, Ill., is here and will leave in a few days for Monrovia, Calif., to visit his wife, who is in a sanitarium there and in very poor health. We hope he will find her improved.

At a meeting of the school board last Thursday night, Prof. Truitt was re-elected Superintendent of the white school, and Prof. Wiley of the colored school. The other teachers will be selected Thursday night of this week.

While on his rounds Monday, Bert Prescott, rural carrier, met with a serious accident, caused by a breast snap giving away, and the team running away. Mr. Prescott was thrown out and badly bruised, but not seriously injured.

Dr. E. W. Johnson and family of Tulp passed through here Tuesday on their way to Excelsior Springs, where they go for the benefit of the doctor's health. He is very feeble, and unless these springs benefit him there is little hope of his recovery.

The M. E. church was dedicated here Sunday, Rev. McMurry preaching the dedicatory sermon. Over $8000 were raised to finish paying for the building. This was a fine showing, and we congratulate our neighbors on their enterprise, as well as their splendid edifice, for it is certainly a beauty.

Grocery Changes Hands.

L. B. Thrash has bought the interest of his partners, C. S. Patnott and E. F. McNew, in the grocery store. He will probably be ready for an advertisement in the Courier by next week. Mr. McNew will assist Mr. Thrash a few days. After school is out James L. Thrash, a High School youth, will clerk in the store, making himself useful and absorbing business ideas during vacation.

Basket Meeting.

To the Courier: Basket dinner was given at Mike Sunday by the church, which was attended by a large crowd, some of whom were from a distance.

The Union Sunday school was held at ten o'clock with a good attendance. This school is doing unusually good work. It has a contest between wearers of and canvassers for red and blue ribbon badges, in which there is a lively interest.

After Sunday school was over, Brother William Young of Salisbury preached to the congregation and brought out some very interesting points.

Last but not least, the crowd had a fine picnic dinner, all receiving Baptist color, Methodist measure and Campbellite weight.

At 2 o'clock the crowd was recalled to the church and an afternoon service was shared by all who could gain admittance. After adjournment all went home feeling that they had had a royal time.

THE AUTHOR.

Mrs. W. D. Vaughan has received a newspaper clipping from Kingman, Kans., announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Veale and W. H. McClure at the home of the bride's mother, and departure of the couple for Colorado, where they will live. The bride has many friends here who wish them well. She is a granddaughter of W. S. Evans, well known here, who was recently appointed city clerk of Kingman.
