

SCHOOL BOOKS and SUPPLIES

For Cash Only WHITE DRUG CO. For Cash Only

YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Local News Briefly Mentioned

Buy your tablets at Herring's Pharmacy.

A little effort will get the sevens dishes. Try it.

Herring's Pharmacy carries a full line of school supplies.

Read our advertisement and send in your order at once.

The prettiest, biggest and best tablets at Herring's Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. D. Cunningham has returned from a trip out West.

See the ad. naming the Courier prize offer for September.

When it is circus lemonade, Rev. Mendenhall is a hard drinker.

A special line of hair ribbons for school girls all colors at Perkins & Hurt.

Marcleansers and fatters were in attendance in force at the Mike picnic.

Salt. Salt. Plenty of No. 1 Michigan salt.

J. M. HALLEY, PHONE 29

Billy Dodge, the jolly blacksmith at Bynumville handles a cornet as well as a hot iron.

Slates, pens, pencils, tablets and everything for school children at the Herring Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. D. Cunningham and two daughters returned Sunday night from a weeks visit in Kansas.

Come in and see the up-to-date trimming, fancy feathers, velvet, ribbons and silks at Perkins & Hurt.

Several automobiles loaded to the brim were in evidence at the W. O. W. picnic last Saturday at Mike.

Charles Swain has moved from Carlisle, Ark., to Warrensburg, Mo. for the purpose of schooling his children.

Mrs. M. W. Swain left Tuesday for a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Martin, in St. Louis, after which she will go to Warrensburg, Mo. for the winter.

Miss Elsie Keeting returned last Wednesday from a visit with her friend Miss Mary Jo Dodge of Forest Green.

Miss Leta Bartz went to Brunswick last Sunday, where she will teach in the graded school this term.

If you are a farmer you should take advantage of our alfalfa proposition, advertised in another part of this week's issue.

Miss Pocahontas Perkins is back from her trip made to purchase a large stock of the latest thing in hats for her millinery store.

For a limited number of mouth pieces, the Bynumville band does fine. Stay with it boys its good for you and the town.

Mrs. J. F. Stowers has moved into the cozy cottage built by Judge O. F. Smith on the corner of Jackson and Mulberry streets.

Miss Anna Rucker has returned from the market at Kansas City where she laid in a big supply of millinery. See her ad in this issue.

J. M. Halley's Flour and Feed Exchange is making some special prices to farmers, in 500 pound lots. Better call and see him for the best flour. Phone 29.

This offer will be withdrawn Sept. 16th. After that date you will be unable to secure alfalfa seed at any price below $20.00 a bushel.

The man who gets riled at what the newspaper says about him, should return thanks three times a day for what it knew about him and didn't say.

The best architects, painters and contractors of the country use Mound City "Horse Shoe" brand house paint exclusively.

KEYTESVILLE LUMBER CO.

Mrs. Etta Courtney and son Cecil returned to their home in Kansas Wednesday.

George Tisdale is up from St. Louis on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tisdale.

Tom Green county, Texas voted for prohibition by 317. Last Tuesday the county voted against local option by 54.

Charles and Louis Brandt, two progressive farmers south of Brunswick and all round jolly good fellows, called on us Tuesday.

Mrs. Milton Welch, who went to Kansas City last week in company with Miss Anna Rucker, is home again, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding.

Don Francisco Roderinguez, a merchant of Port Limon, Costa Rica, was presented by the stork with five boys, all of whom will live. No Costa Rico for us.

Mrs. Ben Willett and daughter, Miss Carrie, who will teach her old school this term, have set up for light house keeping at the old Butler home near Forest Green.

Bees as peach orchard protectors are "it." Poachers may make off with one peach and two stings, then never again. The Courier foreman could advise you further, but won't.

E. E. Rettig, erstwhile editor of the Great Favorite Weekly is still in Topeka, Kas., on a visit to his son. He will return after stopping at Platte City to see his daughter.

Misses Jo and Ruth Martin returned last Thursday from an extended visit to relatives at Dalhart, Tex. They are delighted with Texas, for numerous reasons.

Remember, we are giving away with each year's subscription to our paper and Farmer and Stockman of St. Louis, enough first-class alfalfa seed to sow one-tenth of an acre.

Mr. Geo. D. Hains was brought down to the hub by his daughter Monday that he might take the train for Salisbury where he is serving as a juror this week.

Mr. W. G. Brownlow, an inspector of postoffices was in our city Monday. Unlike some inspectors we know Mr. Brownlow does not act as though he were Uncle Sam himself.

FOR SALE!

Best LUNCH ROOM & SOFT DRINK PARLOR STAND in town. A bargain. PAT THRASH.

Squire Wm. Graves can put any baby to sleep and keep it snoozing longer during all sorts of rumpus than any M. D. in America, but it takes pie and a lot of it to hold him on the job.

Thos. Her of Gilmore, Neb., was driving a wagon on which was a tank containing 1000 gallons of butter-milk. The wagon overturned, Her fell in a hole into which the butter-milk ran and he was drowned. Evidently he was not a hog.

The auction sale last week of the 392 acre Hawkins farm south of Salisbury, was very different from the regular. The place was put up in six different tracts and sold, then all offered together, Joe Ingram buying at $58.50.

The Texas cattle men are arranging to hold a meeting Sept. 12 at Ft. Worth for the purpose of war on the Meat Trust. They believe something must be wrong because there is 300 per cent difference between what they get for cattle and the price paid by What's the matter with us, anyway? Ought it be for people who have been away from here for more than 20 years, to find that we have not increased our population a little bit? What encouragement for them to come back and invest, much less for others, is such a state of affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart, old timers from the hub, were here for a few days visiting. Mr. Stewart was the harness and saddle man and Mrs. Stewart had a milliner store here 25 years ago. They were surprised to find the town so much improved, but were more surprised to see the population no greater.

Senator Cummins of Iowa gave 8 reasons why Taft should not again be nominated by republicans for President nor elect if nominated. Either reason should be sufficient, but combine the 8 with those advanced by La Follette and numbers of other progressives and advise him to withdraw. Of course he will.

My dear lady friend, if you fail in your home, you fail in everything which brings real enjoyment to you. Home is the real woman's realm, hers to regulate, beautify and make attractive, not only to her friends, but her family. Failing in this, she has really failed in the one place where she has good right to expect to succeed.

Roger O. Mills, one of Texas great men and at one time among the most popular and talented democratic United States Senators died at his home in Corsicana, Texas last Saturday, nearly 90 years old. He was a warrior, statesman, orator and among the leaders who advocated free trade.

There are seven nights in each week. Some men devote six nights to lodges, loafing and lingering and one to the family, and some six nights to growling or grunting around home and one to restoring peace by remaining away. To which class do you belong?

School has opened and for nine long months, two too long, the teachers and pupils are going to be practically left alone with their miseries. Did it ever occur to you patrons (contributors of juveniles) of the school that a lively interest on your part would be a great incentive to teachers and pupils? Undoubtedly the little folks would appreciate such interest highly, perhaps more than the larger ones, but the effect is good all around. Some times we feel like borrowing a half dozen and setting a good example by visiting the school and encouraging teachers and pupils the best we know how. This might be construed as is the excuse dad always gives for going to the circus, but lend us the youngsters and pass on other questions later.

Rev. J. A. Snarr will preach at Centenary Sunday at 3 p. m.

Come in and try on a new style hat. They are beauties. Perkins & Hurt.

Miss Mabel Patnott is home again from an extended visit to relatives and friends at Brookfield.

Five or ten new subscribers may win $10 worth of fine china dishes.

The new shade coronation at Perkins & Hurt.

There is a delusive habit among a number of our people that leads them to go to other towns to shop, believing that they can purchase cheaper. May they not be buncoing themselves? Expenses and time should be taken into account, and also whether our home merchants have been "soaking" you, before going a distance to lay in supplies. If what you want is not to be had here, it is a different proposition.

New hats. New styles. New trimmings. Perkins & Hurt.

Piano and Vocal Instructions

I will accept for instruction a limited number of pupils for piano and voice. Instruction given at the residence of Mr. Geo. N. Elliott. This course in music is private and separate from my duties as teacher of vocal music in the school, having been engaged to take the place of Miss Stewart.

SARAH LOCKHART.

Eddie Schell and family of Kansas City are on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schell.

Notice

Those who are indebted to me will please come in and settle their accounts at once. I must hear from all such without delay. JOHN P. TIPPETT.

Miss Lilly Brandt will leave about the 16th for an extended trip to St. Louis and Warrensburg.

THE MARKETS

| | |
|---------------|---------|
| Eggs per doz. | 111-2c |
| Hens per lb. | 9c |
| Cox | 4c |
| Fryers | 9c |
| Butter | 12 1-2c |
| Wool | 15c |
| Tallow | 4c |
| Beeswax | 25c |
| Rubber | 3-4 |
| Cream | 23c |
| Hides | 6c |

Notice of Election.

The election of officers of the Knights & Ladies of Security will take place at their lodge room in Keytesville Tuesday evening, Sept. 12, 1911. Members earnestly requested to be present.

JOHN CLOSSON, President.

Notice to Hunters

Any one found hunting on my land hereafter will be severely punished by law.

LOUIS FETZER.

Pat Thrash was exonerated by the jury from charge of infracting the local option law. The jury stood 11 to 1 against conviction for about 24 hours.

Stradivarius Violin

for sale. Excellent sweet tone and in good condition. Could send on trial. Write to Miss Bertha W. Mardis, Route 5, Rose-dale, Kansas.

Miss Bertie Warden of Kansas City is visiting her cousin Mrs. Bert Finnell. She will stay for a week.

Coal For Sale.

Any quantity of good coal for threshing or cooking purposes. Call on

WILL MOORE, Keytesville, Mo.

Judge Reigelsberger and Lain were in attendance on the Merchant's Equalization Board this week.

Lost

Gold, crown shaped locket, containing thirty five brilliants, somewhere on street. Reward if returned to Courier office.

Luke J. Shaughnessy is home this week from Chariton, Iowa.

"I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success," writes Mrs. M. I. Basford, Poolesville, Md. For sale by all Dealers.

FALL MILLINERY!

NEWEST, LATEST AND UNIVERSAL STYLES IN HATS

White Felts the Fad

TRIMMINGS, NEWEST FALL FASHIONS OF ALL KINDS

Anna Rucker

Look! Read! Come! Buy!

HALLEY'S EXCHANGE!!

One more car Michigan Salt. One more car Flour and Feed Stuff. Another big buy in Graniteware. Have you seen one of my Round-Up Sale Bills? I will still run my store for 10 days from Sept. 1st. Don't miss

The Round-Up Sale!

I also want your Poultry and Eggs, and will pay the highest market prices in trade. Look for the 10 days sale. I will pay 13 1-2c for eggs; 9 1-2c for hens; 11c for springs. Don't miss this big sale.

J. M. Halley's Mfg. Co.

PLENTY OF ICE ON HAND

PHONE 29

Sacrifice Sale of Clothing!

We will sell for the next thirty days at sacrifice prices, your choice from our stock of

Summer and Fall Men's and Boys' Clothing

This is a chance to fit the boys out for school with good clothing at very low figures.

AGEE BROS.