At 5 Per Cent

If you can buy your goods just as cheap, and be given back 5 per cent of your money in cash, don't you think it would pay you?

In order to encourage cash business, we have decided after careful study, to give you 5 per cent discount on all cash purchases amounting to 50c or more. This plan will be in force through the balance of February and all of March.

It means a saving to you. Will you take advantage of it? ? ?

Yours Truly,

Blair Miller

Salisbury Squibblings

Roy Walker has returned from a visit to his aunt in St. Louis. Roy thinks St. Louis a big place but not in with Salisbury as a place to live and he is right.

Henry Stone formerly of this place was killed on the branch road between Centralia and Columbia Monday. He was son-in-law of Xavier Miller West of this city. He had been married less than a year and was an exemplary young man.

Mrs. Gillottie Teters, who for some time had been a victim of tuberculosis, passed away at her home in this city Feb'y 21 aged

J. M. Barton, Dalton, Mo.

40 years, leaving three children two sons and one daughter and many relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was a patient sufferer and all was done for her that human aid and skill could do but in vain. Her remains were deposited in the Prairie Valley cemetery north of town, to await the resurrection. The devotion of her daughter Goldie was the pride of our city. Almost alone she watched with her mother day and night until death released her from her vigils.

A son of Jake Lewis is threatened with spinal meningitis but there is hope of recovery.

Word come from Branson Mo. that Carl Kressig was drowned at that point Monday night. No particulars were given in the telegram. He was an Odd Fellow and the order here will look after the matter.

There is a writing school in town and people will learn to write on the typewriter.

Rev. Franc Mitchell of Keytesville was over this week on business.

Theo Tilson and Mrs. G. W. Tillerson, have move to town. We welcome both.

It is reported this (Wed) morning that Dr. Jennings' condition is some what improved.

Word come from Kansas City that Mrs. J. P. Henderson is seriously ill as a result of a surgical operation she recently underwent. We hope she may recover.

A hard coal famine is on here and our people are shipping coal from Moberly. An order from Mayor Edwards our coal dealer seems to have gone astray leading to the present condition.

Salisbury now has one of the neatest and most efficient electric light system it ever had. Thanks to our Mayor City council and other officials. The word "progress" is inscribed on her banner as she moves forward.

Irvin Grisham, one of our most progressive young farmers closed his land deal Saturday and will take possession as soon as he can get moved. Mrs. Ellen Tillerson who sold him her 200 acre farm will move to town having purchased the brick residence of J. Paul Stamper. Mr. Grisham sold one forty of his new purchase to J. O. Snider who owned an 80 south of it. We wish all the parties success in their trade.

We regret to report that Dr. C. A. Jennings is suffering from

Fine Jack for Sale

RILEY, JR.

One of the best Jacks in Chariton County or any county adjoining it.

In selecting this fine jack, you will obtain one that could not be excelled in quality, style and general breeding. The colts sired by RILEY, JR., are of the best type in size, color and every other point which makes the male valuable. You will see by reading his pedigree that he is one of the best bred in the jack family.

RILEY, JR., sired by Riley was sired by John D. Bayne's jack, "JEFF," of Chariton county; he was sired by the Everhart Jack, "Brigham Young" of Monroe county; his dam was a fine mare, sired by the famous Reed Jack of Cooper county. Riley's dam was out of Sportsman's fine jack, "Hemion," one of the best jacks in Chariton county. Riley's grand dam was a Black Horse Jennet from Kentucky. RILEY, JR., is 15 hands high, large boned and well bred, and we feel confident in saying that he is one of the best in the county. His sire is of a high percentage. FOR SALE AND OWNED BY
