Feldenheimer's

Announcement for Fall

1-9-1-3

Dame Fashion has just arrived at Feldenheimer's direct from Paris and New York and has taken up her abode on the second floor in the Ready-made Garment Department for the season of 1913 and 14 where she will be pleased to enlighten the ladies of Keytesville and vicinity on all that is new, beautiful, original and modish in Women's and Misses' Suits, Dresses, Coats, Blouses and Furs, correct in style, up-to-date and down-to-the-minute.

Our stocks for Fall 1913 are now complete in dry goods, Women's Ready-made wear, Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes.

In this day and age of fake and misleading advertisements is it any wonder that the buying public become suspicious and uncertain?

In this store it is NOT risky to want things and we believe that every woman who is familiar with values will readily appreciate the quality, style and values we are showing.

We especially ask you to inspect this incomparable line before you make any purchases—we can absolutely save you $5.00 to $10.00 on your suits and it will be more fashionably designed and better made.

On purchase of $10.00 your railroad fare will be refunded one way. On purchase of $20.00 to $30.00 your railroad fare will be refunded both ways. This applies to all merchandise bought throughout the house.

Mayor Gaynor Drops Dead

Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York city dropped dead of heart disease at 1 p. m. Wednesday on board a steamer bound for Europe. His health was poor and he went expecting to recuperate strength for his mayoral campaign. A Republican, Adolph Kline, president of the board of aldermen, is acting mayor.

Misses Bixby's of Brunswick who were visiting the family of James Mason north of town last week went home Sunday.

Pee Dee Prattle

Dr. Griffith made a business trip to Moberly Wednesday.

R. W. Walter our postmaster and the exclusive automobile owner of our berg has built a nice little garage and we predict will soon have his car housed for the winter.

Ulster Embree and Lawrence Weatherford departed last Monday for Fulton, where they will enter Westminster for the present term.

The last game of ball for the season was played here Saturday by Marceline and Pee Dee the score was 11 to 9 in favor of Pee Dee.

C. F. Lamkin of Keytesville attended the ball game here Saturday and did some recruiting for Westminster.

Virgil Chrane and wife returned from Kansas City last Monday. Mr. Chrane had been at the German hospital several days having his eye treated that was injured recently his eye is slightly improved and it is now believed the eye will be saved.

This neighborhood made the Salisbury high school a very liberal donation last Monday in the way of students. Misses Edith Welch, Chloe and Orene Clarke and Lucy Johnson and Harold Chrane constituting the group from here.

Walter Gaffron has just completed a monster underground water tank and is now erecting a silo on his farm both very substantial improvements.

Eevrett McKittrick wife and baby returned to their home in Meadville last Sunday.

Judge John Turner, George Vaughan and W. B. Thomas of Glasgow were in town Monday night. They were taken to Salisbury by Hon. R. W. Rucker in his Chalmers car Tuesday morning.

Salisbury Scribblings

Miss Ethel Wells has a position in Mr. Collet's office as stenographer.

A. W. Johnson attended court in Huntsville the latter part of last week.

J. W. Luck secured a nice mess of young squirrels this, but all scribe got out of it was a tantalizing description of how good they were.

Circuit court convenes here next week with a good docket, and our attorneys are going over their cases gathering them in shape for trial.

Mrs. Bettie Croff has returned from a 2 weeks visit to relatives in Kentucky and Tennessee. Two of her sisters came home with her and are feasting their eyes on the beauties and bounties of old Chariton.

A new pump has been placed in the mineral well and our thanks are the city authorities.

Word comes from Woodland hospital at Moberly that W. F. Grisby, who was mashed up by a train a few days ago and will soon be able to return home.

Salisbury has a nice residence boom and new houses of a splendid character are being erected in several parts of town.

Our public schools started Monday, and children and books can be seen on every side. Whatever else our city may be short on, she is long on educational facilities.

Isaac Ruff, a prominent citizen of Marshall, Mo. came over this week on business and while here went to see Charlie and Mary Weber 6 miles north of town.

A fine shower of rain fell here Monday afternoon laying the dust and cooling the air and causing all to smile while breathing a sigh of relief. Do it again.

The chautauqua is over again, but will return next year. The heat and dust caused the attendance to fall off, but the exercises were generally of a high order, and those who attended the entire week got their money's worth.

Reed the son of Ollie Reed, is again in the meshes of the law, caused by handling forged checks and obtaining goods by false pretenses. Waiving preliminary examination, he now languishes in jail, and will likely take up his residence in the state capitol ere many moons, Salisbury can spare him for awhile, and should he take up a permanent residence there, our city's eyes will not be suffused with tears.

W. A. Henderson two miles north of here was badly bruised up in a runaway Sunday, one or more ribs being fractured, but is on the road to recovery. We are glad it was no worse.

Rev. Heminway of Glasgow filled his regular appointment here Sunday, the services being held in the Presbyterian church on West Third Street.

Damit! What's the Use

Homer Lewis worked many and laborious days on a deep stone dam with a strong foundation, across the branch or stream through his pasture at the rear of the John Lewis home. He thought he had one that would stand most anything but the rush of the flood Wednesday evening took the dam like it was paper and washed it out like it had done the wooden dams heretofore.

To Debtors

The account of everyone who owes me is made out and waiting for payment. I MUST have this money. Better pay while the paying is good. Can't wait any longer. If not paid, will put in the hands of a collector.

A. Keeting.

Mrs. George Pinegars parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Romine of Abilene, Kansas, left Tuesday for their home after a several days visit to the family their daughter.
