Paul Didn't Go

That there's many a slip twixt cup and lip goes now as well as when the poet wrote it. There was some slip in the plans of Paul Cropper to go to the exposition at San Francisco and as the result Paul will stay at home. He expected to go to Carrollton last Saturday and join the band there and then leaving for the west. The plans flunked when at Kirksville, Wednesday night the band went busted, the promoter A. L. Scott of Moberly was found with his wrist cut, near a hospital and the band men returned to their homes after being out on the road about three days. How the promoter ever thought he was going to get across with the proposition is more than any man who knows anything about the band business can figure out. He expected to make enough money in six concerts given at Carrollton and other towns to take the band through to the exposition, pay the men $4 a day and their expenses. They got to Kirksville and the funds ran out. The people did not turn out rapidly enough in their patriotic fervor to take the band to the west so they left for their homes, with their leader in the hospital at Kirksville. There had been some suggestions before the thing happened that it might fail though many persons had the erroneous idea that the state had made an appropriation for the support of the project. Cropper says he is glad that he discovered the facts in time as walking across the great American Desert might be rather hot this sort of weather for the return trip especially lugging a big bunch of metal in the shape of a tuba.

Her face is as sweet
As the fairest you see,
Her manner as modest
As an angel's could be,
But her skirt is too short
And her waist cut too low,
And how she can make
Such things jibe I don't know.

Charles R. Daniels

Charles R. Daniels, for most of his life a resident of Brunswick, died at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Showers in Brunswick, Friday July 23. His death followed illness of several months and was directly caused by a clot on the brain. He had been residing at Cartersville where he was a driver of a taxicab and in an altercation with a customer was badly beaten. The injury was the result and caused death. He was 42 years of age and is survived by his widow and five children, three sons and two daughters. Burial was at the Lower cemetery in charge of Rev. Bowles.

Despondency Due to Indigestion

"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macedon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

Wm. L. Hecke

William L. Hecke died at his home, a farm southeast of Brunswick July 24 after an illness of four years. He was 56 years of age. He was married twice, his first marriage to Malinda Anderson 1879. Nine children were born six of them living. His second wife was Sophia Wahl whom he married in 1908. Seven children were born to this union of whom three survive. Rev. Bowles had charge of the funeral service and interment was in the Lower cemetery.

Salisbury 3 Burlingtons 0.

The Burlington railroad ball team from St. Louis was pitted against the Salisbury champions Sunday and but for the rain which ran players, fans and rigs from the field at the sixth inning, the prettiest game of the season would have been witnessed. Salisbury came nearer to having a team in her class to contend with in the Burlingtons than she has so far this season, and the large crowd sat up and took notice from the opening of the game. Salisbury tallied one run in each of the first three times at bat and then laid down flat to one of the best pitchers they have faced. In the first half of the sixth the score was 3 to 0 and then Burlington tied and the game had to end, the official score being Salisbury 3 Burlingtons 0 under the rules.

It is patent that if the game had continued the full 9 innings, Salisbury would have got a drubbing. Lang for the visitors was getting faster each inning and the team work was nearly perfect, whereas Nutt appeared to be weakening and a degree of demoralization to pervade the heretofore invincibles. Undoubtedly the rain was providential for Salisbury.

Language of Sealing Wax

A well-known New York stationery dealer says that the language of sealing wax is a late fashionable fad. A meaning has been given to all the colors generally made, and all persons who use sealing wax on their letters should be acquainted with the meanings, so that the use of a favorite shade may not be misinterpreted.

In this new language white means a proposal of marriage, black is a message of death, of course, and violets signify sympathy or condolence. Chocolate should be used for invitations to dinner, vermilion for business communications, while ruby—suggestive perhaps of a bleeding heart—is used to seal love letters. Green is used to signify hope, brown to tell of melancholy, blue of constancy and yellow of jealousy.

Pink is the proper color for school girls to use in sending letters to one another, while matured ladies should use gray for letters of friendship.

Bad For Chautauquas

This has been a mighty bad year for chautauquas as well as for other business. The manager of the chautauqua here says they have been having all kinds of trouble this year with the elements. Rain and winds cause the trouble. Especially is it true that the winds cause the havoc. One man had his tent blown three or four times flat, while in one town for six days. When he got through the week he found that he had averaged the same as putting up his tent each and every day of his stay. High water has made it difficult for the members of the program to make connections and, withal, it has been a hard year. A week or so ago, four chautauqua managers quit at one time on account of the rain and storms that worked them so hard that they decided to give up the job. The result has been that new men have to be installed on the job. This is work for both the men in charge and the Jones people.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparations of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.

Many Keytesville People Have Kidney Trouble And Do Not Know It.

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress. Heed the warning, don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read this Glasgow testimony. William Kimmange, R. F. D. No. 2, Glasgow Mo., says: "My kidneys and back bothered me greatly. When I stooped or tried to lift, I had sharp pains in my back. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, especially at night. Nothing helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. Soon after using them, I was soon free from the trouble. What I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I publicly recommended them some years ago holds good. I haven't had a sign of kidney complaint since I used them." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kimmange had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Clara McDonald

Mrs. Clara McDonald, aged ninety years, 3 months and 28 days, died Wednesday morning July 28 at the home of her son Marion McDonald on North Main street Marceline. For years the old lady had been without eyesight and was a helpless invalid for a long time before her death. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Trotter at the home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, and interment was made at Lakeside cemetery.

Girl Kicked By Mule

The five year old daughter of John Beame amused herself one day last week by whipping a mule about the hind legs with a switch. The mule stood for the play for a while then launched a vicious heel at the head of the laughing girl, striking her in the face and splitting the right cheek entirely open from the eye to the jaw. It required seven stitches by a local surgeon. Inevitable disfigurement.

Bandmaster Tried Suicide

The Moberly papers report that A. L. Scott who headed the project to take a Missouri band to the exposition tried to commit suicide at Kirksville because of his failure. He cut an artery in his wrist before he was found near the Grim hospital in Kirksville. The Moberly papers state that Scott said he had been promised $4,000 by the head of a club in Missouri, which is not named in the article, to help pay expenses and that later, he was notified that the club had withdrawn its support. Then, it is said Scott gave up and tried to end it all. The members of the band which was to have made the trip, it is said, were to go to Moberly this week and give a benefit concert for Scott who is still at the hospital.

Chautauquas Cover Territory

A conversation with members of the Jones chautauqua attractions while here showed that the company shows its chautauquas over a large territory. The members say that their circuit comprises Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and Dakota and their engagements number 65 or 70 for the season. This shows what the Jones people, not the largest of the chautauqua circuits, either, do in the way of furnishing popular amusements under tent.

Mrs. A. T. Bondy Dead

Mrs. A. T. Bondy died at her home in Brunswick Wednesday night, July 28. Two weeks before her death she gave birth to a child and was thought to be getting along nicely when death ensued. Mrs. Bondy was formerly Miss Ida Kahler and had been married three years. She was 23 years of age. The services of burial were held at the Kahler farm and burial was in the Elliott Grove cemetery.
