

YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Local News Briefly Mentioned

Noel Walther went to Columbia Saturday for a visit to friends.

Roy Halliburton of Brunswick was a business visitor here Monday.

W. D. Patterson of Salisbury was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.

Everatt Bean of Salisbury was the guest of a friend here Sunday.

Lester Montgomery of Brunswick was the guest of a friend here Sunday.

Paving the west end of main street in Brunswick is progressing rapidly.

Misses Hazel Gordon and Doshia Sullivan were Moberly visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Pet Dooley went to Salisbury Saturday for a few days visit among friends.

Fritz Iglehart and Doc Creason of Dalton were in our city Sunday visiting friends.

Mrs. Eva Cole and sister Miss Grace Lester were Moberly shoppers Saturday.

Misses Helen Zillman, Vera Cropper and Hulda Taylor were in Salisbury Saturday.

Miss Ethlyn Fidler went to Salisbury Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Rudolph Sasse and Ray Nolting of Brunswick were visiting friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hayes and children visited relatives in Salisbury Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Pleyer and her sister Mrs. Armp Young of Kansas City were in town Wednesday. Mrs. Pleyer came to meet her sister who will visit her several days.

Dr. L. O. McKee

Refracting specialist will be at Brunswick Wednesday June 27; at Brown Hotel Keytesville June 28; at Dalton Friday June 29; at Neal Hotel Salisbury June 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and two children of Moberly were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Herring and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Parker Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. S. Keith of Kansas City visited Mrs. Wm. E. Hill and Mrs. Hundly the first of the week. She was accompanied home by her niece Miss Eustice Hundley.

Lost

Pocketbook. Between town and G. B. Fennells. Some cash, deposit checks and key. Return to me and get reward. 21 Everett Harris.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the M. E. Church and the Ladies Aid Society of Dalton met with Mrs. Geo. Shively five miles west of town Tuesday afternoon. After rendering a most interesting program the ladies were bountifully served with strawberries, ice cream and cake. All reported a delightful time.

M. P. RUTLEDGE

General Commission Merchant
Specialty: Eggs, Butter and Poultry
223 West South Water Street

Chicago June 15, 1917

R. W. Cox,

Keytesville, Mo.

Dear Sir: Your eggs showed heavy loss in rots due to incubator eggs. Get after your customers as you cannot expect to get high prices unless the eggs run much better.

Yours truly,

M. P. Rutledge.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Leach Jr. were Moberly visitors Saturday.

Pat Martin made a business trip to Moberly the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Studie Garnett and Miss Grace Closson were Brunswick visitors the latter part of last week.

Everett Harris, the rural route man on route 1 is off on a fifteen day vacation and his wife is filling his place.

Misses Ruth and Helen Waller of Marceline are the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mason.

Lou Courtney of Kansas and Missouri is enjoying his old haunts again. He fits into his old neighborhood as well as before he left it.

Have You

seen our line of furniture?

It is complete. Let us show you our new dining room and bedroom suits. We also carry a full line of comfortable chairs, rugs, matting and linoleums. We have a full supply of window shades.

Come in and see our samples for parasol covers.

Funeral Directors and Licensed Embalming

C. L. HERRING & SON
PHONES: Res. 112 Store 50

Miss Eustis Hundley entertained a number of her young friends with a theatre party at the American last Friday night, the beginning of the celebration of her birthday week.

M. S. McGrew and O. M. Bridger of Mendon were here Tuesday. Mr. McGrew says corn, the backward and small, is in fine condition, a good stand and clean. Oats and Rye harvesting will be on next week, both unusually fine crops.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Horton and daughters Misses Susie and Ollie and son Phillip were in town Monday enroute, Misses Susie and Ollie to Kirksville where Miss Ollie will take a course in pedagogy during the summer, and Mr. and Mrs. Horton Salisbury on business trip.

Mrs. C. C. Parks and daughter Miss Roberta, after being highly entertained in Washington by Hon. W. W. Rucker, went to New York city last week. They sailed from Norfolk, Va., and when just outside of New York, a heavy fog delayed the ship for a day. They are expected home in a few days.

Wm. Carson of Jackson, Tenn. and Mrs. Martha Grissom of Glasgow visited nephews and nieces here last week. Mrs. Grissom returned to her home Saturday and Mr. Carson Monday. Last Friday they were guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thrash. Pat informed them that he could set 'em up alright to one meal each, but later on they might have to take him for a regular boarder.

Old Iron Wanted

I will pay 55 cents a hundred for scrap iron delivered to me at Keytesville. Rags $1.00 Hundred old rubber 3 to 5 cents a pound; brass 8 to 15 cents, good copper wire and plates 18 cents a pound. Phone 62. J. M. Halley

Milt Davenport of Brunswick was here Monday.

Attorney Joe Kendrick of Brunswick was in town Monday

Geo. Hooper of Mendon was here the first of the week visiting among his young lady friends

Capt. J. M. London of Callao was here Monday before the County court in connection with ditch matters.

Considering the amount of rain the roads are in fine condition generally tho dragging would perfect them.

E. M. Carter was here this week visiting old friends. He likes Versailles alright but this berg has annual attraction which he cannot resist.

Wm. McCampbell, B. P. Chapman and a number of others from Mendon were here Monday looking after the bridge so badly needed near this town.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The rise Saturday night in the Chariton river put the water completely over the dump east of town, something more a foot higher than the water was the week before.

I know I have the cheapest money in Chariton county for 5, 7 or 10 years. Come in and let me figure with you. Office over Farmers Bank. 31 tf J. W. Wayland.

Sam Jordan lectured at Sumner Monday and hustled up aid for the unfortunate farmers in Grand river bottoms in that neighborhood. Cris Carlstead took Mr. Jordan the rounds in his flitting Ford.

The ditch bridge between this city and Salisbury is surely unsafe and out of commission until new approaches can be constructed. Monkeying along with the bridge now will end in disaster to some one.

Frank Arrington had to get another hustle on himself to save his wheat crops on both his places. By raising the dumps around his fields he has won out again and is praying for the wheat to ripen at once and give the water no more chance.

Red Cross society workers were busy here Monday soliciting for the order. Mrs. Roy Rucker and Mrs. Will Moore put in the day most faithfully and profitably and men celebrated for holding on to their cash had to let loose of a portion of it when these ladies presented the matter to them.

It is reported that several of the bridges which were over the Chariton river ditch have been washed out. These bridges were too short for some time and they should have been taken down and used where they would fit. Bridges are needed too badly to allow any to get away.

Otto Evertz

The Harness Man.

All kinds of harness and saddles on hand at all times.

Full line of --- ROBES, BLANKETS, WHIPS and EXTRAS.

Repairing and oiling on short notice.

The Morehead hotel in Salisbury would be a credit to a much larger city. The lobby in the second story is a beauty for the purpose and writing room. There are twenty bed rooms, each and everyone handsomely furnished and desirable. The noted hostess has a beautiful dining room next to the office down stairs, and the cuisine par excellent. Every attention is given guests and the central location of the hostelry is attracting more of the transients every day.

St. Johns Day Celebration County Masonic Association which includes all the Masonic lodges in the county, and all other Masonic lodges

wherever located and which accept a cordial and urgent invitation to be present will hold a celebration of

St. Johns Day at this city in

PRICE PARK

Monday June 25, 1917

ALL MASONS with their FAMILIES and SWEET-HEARTS are expected and each and everyone should contribute something to the feast.

Don't be afraid of bringing too much of any and everything good to eat

Grand Master Higbee and District Deputy Grand Master Mason

and other notable Masons will deliver addresses.

Concerts all day and evening by vocalists and cornet bands

Plenty of shade, ice water and sociability.

Every Mason in the state and all their families should be with us Monday.

Paul Cropper of Kansas City was here a few days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and son returned to St. Louis Tuesday.

Miss Etta Remmert is the guest of friends in Glasgow this week.

Mrs. Everett McKittrick and daughter of Pee Dee were Salisbury visitors Tuesday.

Robt. Wright and Mr. Shoemaker of the Grove were here on business Wednesday.

Miss Fannie Moorman of north east of town went to Marceline Thursday to visit for several days.

Several of the Brunswick A. F. & A. Ms. were here last Friday night to assist in work on a candidate.

Albert Kressig moved into the A. G. Arrington property yesterday, the merchant tailor for Edgar Wilks to take possession of the Chapman residence vacated by Kressig.

Thos. J. Thorpe of Triplett was pronounced by the probate court to be of unsound mind Tuesday and Preston Gaines was named to administer his affairs during his inability.

Capt. Louis Benecke of Brunswick is around again tho not applying himself to his law practice exclusively. He missed the last term of circuit court here on account of temporary illness and it was the first miss-out in 55 years.

Hon. F. C. Sasse attended a meeting of the Board of Regents of Lincoln Institute at Jefferson City last week. It is almost an assured fact that the present incumbent in the office of superintendent of the Institute will have to hunt another job and will probably find one among people who have as high an estimate of his ability and other qualities as he himself fancies he possesses. Let 'em go.

Mrs. Roy Gray after two days with her parents here returned to complete her visit at Prairie Hill Tuesday.

Miss Eustis Hundley is the guest of relatives in Kansas City this week. The lovely girl is greatly missed here.

Specials

for this week only

- 1 pound pkg coffee..... 23c
- Tomatoes—small can 10c
- Large can beets 15c
- Oranges Doz 20c
- Fresh peanuts and pop corn on hand.
- Water melon Kleckley and Tom Watterson pound 65c
- Will pay 26c for eggs and 30c for butter pound rolls.
- Flour and meal only for spot cash

C. L. White

A few of our local fans enjoyed the ball game at Marceline last Sunday. They say it was some game, 2-1 and twelve innings to settle the supremacy. Lancaster pitched admirably. Teams, Kansas City vs Marceline.

Mrs. James L. Applegate and daughter Mary returned from a lengthy visit to Shreveport, La., Tuesday. Both are looking fine.

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

Every person owning a Home or Farm should know the condition of his title to the same. That requires a perfect abstract. We make no other kind. We are doubly prepared for the work. Call or write today.

Minter - Lamkin Abstract Co
331-tt Keytesville, Mo.

Manager Cox of the Wabash at Salisbury is a very accommodating man and official of the road and the Courier acknowledges itself under obligations to him for courtesies.

Miss Elizabeth Agee visited at Liberty and Kansas City last week, returning with a charming Mexico young lady who left for home all too soon according to the views of some of our society young men.

DO IT NOW

Send us the price of a year's subscription if you are in arrears.

We Need the Money

Evangelistic Meetings

Will be held at

Presbyterian Church

June 17th to July 1st

Evangelist Rev. J. E. Abbott of Kansas City will do the preaching.

Meeting every night at 8 p. m.

Everyone is invited to worship with us, and help in the meetings.